Harvard "Crimson" Says "Red Shirt" Unit to Organize In Waban

Parent Group Was Ousted From Harvard Building

The Harvard Crimson last Saturday contained another article relative to the organization which is referred to by its members as Yankee American Action, and which the Harvard Crimson terms "Red Shirts." The article was written by Joseph P. Lyford, the Crimson reporter, whose investigation of Yankee American Action, as published in the Harvard Crimson last February, resulted in this group having been refused further use of Phillips Brooks House at Harvard for their meetings. In last Saturday's issue of the Crimson, it was stated that the Yankee American Action is forming a branch in Waban. According to a report, eight residents of Waban have signed their willingness to become members of this branch. The "Red Shirts" now have a branch in the South End of Boston. This name was given to the organization by Harvard students because its members wore at their meetings scarlet blouses.

Before writing his expose of the Yankee American Action in February, Lyford joined the "Red Shirts." The alleged leader of the Y. A. A. is Edward Holton James, of Lexington rd., Concord, a nephew of William James, the philosopher, and a cousin of Henry James, a member of the Harvard Corporation. After Lyford's article appeared in the Harvard Crimson on February 13, Dean Speery of Harvard very promptly ordered that the Y. A. A. be prohibited from holding further meetings in Phillips Brooks House. At that time Dean Speery said he had issued the ousting order because the Y. A. A. had "violated the hospitality of Brooks House—since their reported activities are singularly wanting in Christian charity" — and Phillips Brooks House was founded to "best further the purposes of piety, charity and hospitality."

According to Mr. Lyford's article in the Harvard Crimson of April 27, the Y. A. A. has 30 members in the parent unit located at Cambridge, and these include in part Harvard students. Four students have joined during the past 2 months. The first branch has been started in the South End of Boston, and has about 40 members, mostly unemployed residents of that section. There has been some talk of starting a co-operative house for the South End members. Waban is planned to be the territory in which another (Continued on page 10)

Mayor Proclaims 'Clean-Up Week'

Next week has been designated as "Clean-up Week" in Newton by Mayor Paul M. Goddard to give residents an opportunity to dispose of rubbish and waste material resulting from the annual spring cleaning.

The Street Department will pick up the rubbish and other waste on the regular days assigned for the collection of ashes, as follows:

Ward 1, Thursday, May 9; Ward 2, Friday, May 10; Ward 3, Monday, May 6; Ward 5, Tuesday, May 7; Ward 6, Wednesday, May 8; Ward 7, Thursday, May 9.

Testimonial To Sydney Holden

Twenty friends of ex-Alderman Sydney Holden tendered him a testimonial last Saturday night at Hotel Vendome because of his recent appointment by Mayor Goddard as one of the Board of Assessors of Newton. James P. Gallagher served as toastmaster and all present made brief remarks in which they expressed their admiration for the guest of honor and their satisfaction at his appointment to his new office. All agreed that the Mayor made an excellent appointment. In behalf of those present, Mr. William M. Cahill presented Mr. Holden with a gold wrist watch. The committee which arranged the activities are singularly wanting in Christian charity" — and Phillips Brooks House was founded to "best further the purposes of piety, charity and hospitality."

Mayor Pays Heed To Inches Charges

Mayor Goddard announced last Friday that he has started an investigation relative to charges made by Alderman Henderson Inches at the last meeting of the Board of Aldermen in which the member from Ward 6 stated that a city employee had taken a city-owned automobile without authority from the Crafts st. garage of the Street Department and wrecked it. It cost $340 to repair the car, and the person allegedly responsible was not prosecuted.

Rep. Brimblecom Is Candidate for State Senate

Seeks Promotion After Four Terms in House

Representative Warren K. Brimblecom of the 4th Middlesex district in a statement today announced his candidacy for Senator from the new Middlesex-Suffolk District comprising the city of Newton, Ward 5 of Cambridge and Ward 22 of Boston. Rep. Brimblecom has served the 4th Middlesex Representative District comprising Wards 1, 2, 3 and 7 of Newton for the past four consecutive two year terms. He was elected in the State election of 1932 and has subsequently been thrice re-elected. During these terms he has served on various important committees and has been constant in attendance at committee meetings and daily sessions of the legislature. He has been clerk of the Committee on Power and Light during six of the seven annual sessions which have been held and in 1939 served as clerk of the Committee on Municipal Finance. He also served two years on the Committee on Public Service and two years as Chairman of the Committee on Engraved Bills.

Rep. Brimblecom is the owner and publisher of the Newton Graphic, the leading weekly newspaper of Newton which he has managed for the past fifteen years. He is a life-long resident and lives at 5 Fairfield st., Newtonville, with his three sons.

As a candidate for the State Senate he seeks the seat now held by Senator Arthur W. Hollis who has not signified whether or not he will be a candidate for re-election. The district now served by Senator Hollis, known as the 1st Middlesex, is comprised of Newton, the towns of Weston, Wayland, Framingham and (Continued on page 10)

Only 10 Per Cent Newton Voters In Primary Election

Regular Slates Win Easily Lutz on State Committee

The Presidential Primary in Newton on Tuesday brought out about 10 per cent of the registered voters of this city. Of 36,242 eligible to vote, 324 Republicans went to the polls, and 446 Democrats. As was expected, the unpledged slate of candidates for delegates-at-large to the Republican National Convention won an easy victory over the McMasters' slate pledged to Dewey. Governor Saltonstall, high man on the unpledged slate, received 2511 votes, and McMasters, high man on his slate, received 238 votes. In the contest for delegates to the Republican national convention from the 9th Congressional district, Ex-Mayor Weeks received 2193 votes and Robert F. Bradford 2061. Their opponents on the McMasters' slate, Charles H. Danforth of Newton and Leon Cutting of Cambridge, received 419 and 250 respectively.

Roger A. Lutz whose voting address is 87 Ripley st., Newton Center, but who has been residing in Cambridge, easily carried the city in the contest for the male member of the State Republican committee from the new Middlesex-Suffolk senatorial district. He received 1746 votes; MacPhail of Brighton, whose candidacy was approved by prominent Newton Republicans, received 500 votes; Moranah, 193 votes; Woods, 187.

In the Democratic contests the slate pledged to Farley as delegates-at-large to the national convention had no opposition, nor had the Farley pledged delegates from the 9th Congressional district. In the contest for male member of the Democratic State committee from the Middlesex-Suffolk senatorial district, James Fitzgerald of Brighton received 142 votes and (Continued on page 10)

Dr. Chadwick Talks On Tuberculosis

Dr. Henry D. Chadwick, leader nationally and locally in tuberculosis work, spoke at a joint board meeting of the Family Service Bureau and the District Nursing Association. Both of these agencies are vitally concerned with health work in Newton and cooperate closely.

In sketching the tuberculosis work in Massachusetts, Dr. Chadwick brought out that Massachusetts was the first state to require registration of births, marriages, and deaths, and therefore we had knowledge of tuberculosis in the community since 1842, at which time 22 per cent of the deaths were due to tuberculosis, while at the present time it is only 3 per cent. Interesting developments in preventive work and tuberculosis have been first, advances in treatment which stresses particularly rest and scientific ways of easing physical strain through surgical methods. St. Mary's Church Parish Meeting

Preliminary plans for the new parish house and hall wing for St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Newton Lower Falls, will be presented at a parish meeting to be held Tuesday evening, May seventh.

A permanent building committee to approve plans and let contracts will be created at the meeting.

Approximately $2,000 more is needed to reach the quota. Pledges and gifts as memorials, or increases in previous pledges are being sought by the building fund committee, with a reserve for contingencies. It is hoped to start building in the near future.

Thirteen Police Shifts Announced

Thirteen members of the Newton police department were shifted by Chief Hughes on Tuesday. The shifts are — Patrolmen Ambrose Doherty from signal desk at headquarters to relief duty days; John Foley from Newton Corner nights to relief duty days; John Bibbo from Farlow Hill nights to relief duty days; William Riley from relief duty days to West Newton six days; William Malone from relief duty days to Newtonville day route; Joseph Charlton from relief duty days to Chestnut Hill days; John Powers from Division 4 car nights to Newton Corner, first half nights; James Gaquin from West Newton days to Nonantum nights; Raymond Sullivan from Division 7 car nights to Farlow Hill foot route nights; John E. Greene from Chestnut Hill days to Division 3 car nights; John Bagley from Nonantum nights to Division 7 nights; Joseph Kerrigan from house duty days to signal desk nights; Joseph Kelly from Newtonville days to wagon driver days.

Tomorrow, May 4, Francis X. Hurley, attorney for Bart Cullen, former sergeant-mechanic of the Newton police department, and City Solicitor Bartlett will present arguments before Alexander Lincoln, master appointed by the Supreme Court, to determine whether or not Mr. Lincoln will make any changes in the report he must present to the court on or before May 15. Cullen is attempting to recover his standing as an officer of the Newton Police Department.

Argue Cullen Case On Saturday

Harry E. Noyes Will Probated

The will of the late Harry E. Noyes of Newtonville, who was killed in an airplane accident at Connecticut recently, was filed on Monday in Middlesex Probate Court. The value of his estate was estimated at about $1,500,000, and the estate was left in trust for his widow, Mrs. Ruth Noyes; his four children, Henry K., Edward P., Hope E., and Bradley Noyes; Dale Spark and John Appel of Newton are the trustees.

Opponents of the proposed zoning restrictions included Samuel Nesson of 1073 Commonwealth ave., West Newton, Irving Nesson of Boston and Robert Burns of Newtonville. The annual Music Field Day of the Instrumental Department of the Newton Public Schools will be held on the High School athletic field on Thursday, May 16, at 3:30. In case of rain, it will be postponed to May 23.

The all-city grade school band, the all-city drum corps, and the junior and senior high school bands will participate.

This program is under the general direction of Charles R. Spaulding, Supervisor of Instrumental Music.

A PERPLEXING PROBLEM

Next week the school committee will conduct a public hearing upon the question of granting approval for a permit to conduct a field day and fireworks on the 4th of July on the high school field at Newtonville. There is a great deal of merit on both sides of the question as to whether or not such a permit should be granted. It is conceivable that in the presentation of views upon the subject the ardent desires of both sides may well engender hard feeling and ill temper. We trust that the views of both sides will be aired with cool deliberation and that it may be possible for the leaders of the proposing and opposing sides to arrive at some agreement which will be a satisfactory outcome of a perplexing problem.

Through the years the town common has come to be the scene of community observance of various functions. Later came the circus grounds and other areas where the congegation of large crowds did not encroach upon the rights of others. With the growth of urban areas there came to be fewer places where field days, outdoor fairs, circuses and the like could be held. Our playgrounds and athletic fields have naturally survived as the only places where such celebrations and observances could be held. Yet there are those in this world who have no respect for the rights of others and consequently the passing throngs have considerably damaged private property in the vicinity. These rights deserve protection. And yet no one can deny the right of any citizen to use public property if it is for the general welfare of the community.

There has been some discussion of the noise of bombs and highly explosive fireworks. Personally we enjoy an hour or so of fireworks but we believe that less emphasis upon noise and greater emphasis upon beauty is deserving of attention. Certainly such a plan would be more considerate of those whose nervous system is disturbed by the ever-increasing urge to make louder and louder fireworks.

THE VOTER'S RIGHT

The lack of interest shown by Newton voters in the presidential primaries on Tuesday was not confined to this city but was widespread throughout the state. Unquestionably the lack of opportunity for the voter to express his preference for the person of his choice as president of this country was the basic reason. While the voters no doubt have confidence in the opinion of the party leaders to whom has been given the task of deciding who will become the party standard bearer in the coming national election, it is not real democracy. We trust that in the future the Legislature will see fit to return to the voter his opportunity to express his personal preference of a presidential candidate.

Letters To The Editor

KEEP CONGRESSMAN LUCE

To the Editor:

The attached letter which was recently sent to Philip G. Bowker of Brookline will, I believe, be of general interest to your readers if published in your columns.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) SINCLAIR WILLIAMS.

Mr. Philip G. Bowker,
48 Welland Road,
Brookline, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Bowker:

As a voter in the Ninth Congressional District, I am much interested in your announced intention of opposing the candidacy of our present Congressman, Robert Luce, for re-election. You give as your only reason the fact that Mr. Luce defeated Thomas Elliot two years ago by only a 2000 majority. May I ask if you really believe that the average voter cares one iota whether his favorite candidate for public office wins by 2000, 20,000, or 200,000, just so long as he wins? Is it not the aim and desire of every voter to keep the opposing party's candidate out of office, and his own candidate in office, rather than to give much thought as to the size of the majority by which his party's candidate defeats his opponent? If I am correct, then what real excuse have you for desiring to be elected and sent to Congress, thereby depriving the citizens of this District of the satisfaction of knowing that their Representative in Congress is rated by his colleagues as one to whom they can look for sound advice? Mr. Luce is admittedly (even by Democratic members of the House of Representatives) one of the few remaining experts in matters of money and finance now left in Washington. Such being the case, and with the painful lack of trained men in Congress today, is it common sense to ask the voters of the Ninth District to discard a man whose years of experience and training make him of great value to both his party and the nation, and replace him with another who, regardless of his record in the legislature of his own state, cannot possibly hope to secure the confidence of his colleagues in Washington (and their desire to adopt his suggestions on matters of finance, taxation, etc.) to the extent that his predecessor did? It must be borne in mind that Mr. Luce is, and has for years been, a member of the Committee on Banking and Currency, one of the most vitally important committees during these years of wild finance, unbalanced budgets, and cockeyed schemes for spending ourselves out of the depression. When Mr. Luce speaks on the floor of the House he is always assured of a generous and respectful audience because every member knows that he speaks to the point and that his suggestions are worthy of consideration. In these New Deal days it is a comfort to me to know that my own Congressman is a man of sound common sense, and I believe that my feelings on that subject are shared by a majority of the voters in this District.

Comparing your experience with his, it is not fair to assume that Mr. Luce can better serve his constituents of the Ninth Congressional District than a brand new man could hope to do? Is it not the duty of the voters in this Ninth District to send to Washington the man who is most experienced in matters pertaining to finance, especially during the next two years when so many financial problems are sure to come before Congress for solution? You must admit that, due to the New Deal misdeals of the past 7 years, our finances are in a bad way and that there are not now available

EDWARD H. Powers' Paragraphs

Folks have been complaining about the backward spring and continued cold weather. Now they will start kicking about the hot weather.

Perturbation, indignation and other states of mental agitation were common in Newton the latter part of last week. The cause of a number of Newton residents temporarily losing their equanimity was—the distribution to various parks in Newton of settees which had been made by WPA workers the preceding couple of months. Three hundred of the settees had been made under a project approved by WPA officials and the Newton City Government. It was understood that the benches were to be distributed under the direction of the Newton Street Department. The Forestry Division of this department cares for parks and schoolyards in the Newtons, are public property, and not for the exclusive advantage of persons owning property or residing in the immediate vicinity of these little parks. There are many residents of the Newtons, particularly elderly people, and who would welcome some places where they could sit down and rest, or breathe the outdoor air. In each park there should be a couple of settees, and this includes Kenrick Park, Walnut Park, Waban Park, Finch Park and Spear Park, as well as similar parks at Newtonville, Newton Centre and other parts of the city.

Some of those who are objecting to any settees in these little parks argue that the resting places would be used by drunkards and potters. It is true that benches in Farlow Park which were partly hidden by shrubbery, have been frequented for scores of years by alcoholic addicts and spooners. But there is not much likelihood that a couple of benches (open to view) in the small parks mentioned would become rendezvous for bums and too romantic lovers. If any soakers or nekkers started to resort to settees in any of the smaller parks in this city, neighbors have plenty of telephones, and a police cruising car would be on the spot in a couple of minutes. Nor need some of the objectors who reside near the little parks in certain sections be too apprehensive that mothers from poorer districts will trundle baby carriages so far from their homes to relax in these parks.

The writer is particularly interested in having a couple of settees placed at the very small plot at the corner of Washington st. and Walnut Park, because he was largely instrumental in having the Aldermen vote to accept this gift by Miss Elizabeth Spear as a memorial to this lady who over a period of many years dispensed charity to the poor of Newton. For months the Aldermen properly hesitated accepting this gift because it is only 14,000 square feet in area, and impractical for any public purpose other than a "green spot" or a neighborhood playground for little children. About the only use that can be made of it is to place a few settees on it. And all persons sitting on settees in large, or small parks in Newton or other places are neither bums, loafers nor Lotharios. We do not blame those who objected to attractive, little parks being made unsightly by too many settees, but we do believe that any selfish person who demands that not even a couple of settees should be located on public parks, should not be accorded especial deference and privileges to the exclusion of the rights of other citizens and taxpayers. On January 1 of this year the Newton Board of Aldermen (on recommendation of Mayor Goddard) unanimously appropriated $2400 for materials to have these benches made by Newton WPA workers. It would not be good judgment on the part of the Mayor and some of the Aldermen now, to be parties to selfish demands of those who want little parks for their exclusive benefit, that not even a couple of settees shall be located in these parks.

You are a young man. There is ample time for you to go to Washington after Mr. Luce's services are no longer available. In the meanwhile I and thousands of other like me, feel disposed to keep Mr. Luce in Washington just as long as his services are as valuable as they have been in the past.

Respectfully yours,
SINCLAIR WILLIAMS.
Newton, Massachusetts.

A DOG LOVER

To the Editor:
Because of the fact that I am a lover of dogs, and am also interested in economy in government it is my belief that the following text would make excellent reading matter for the readers of your paper.

I quote from the May issue of Hunting and Fishing:

End of Rabies Racket

"From time to time over the past several years there has appeared in these pages statements on the questionable effect of not only one dose but all known vaccine treatments for rabies in dogs. In view of the fact that many communities have passed laws making this treatment compulsory, we wish to call the attention of our readers to some reliable information published in a review prepared by Dr. Leslie T. Webster of the Rockefeller Foundation and printed in the American Journal of Hygiene, issued by Johns Hopkins University. Certainly information which passes muster with these authorities can be taken at full face value."

From a long series of studies, Dr. Webster believes that there is very little evidence that vaccines, even under the most favorable laboratory conditions, are capable of giving complete immunity. In the case of one shot doses there is even less evidence to substantiate compulsory regulation.

This review is one of the thorough steps which the Rockefeller Institute is taking in its reinvestigation of anti-rabies immunization, and dog owners everywhere are hoping that the Institute can find something which will definitely prevent rabies in the future. In the meantime, however, it would be better if those vaccine products with little if any value would give up the practice and stop attempting to make their use compulsory by law. If the most expert scientists in the country, working in the best laboratories with everything (possible to control) in their favor cannot get results with these vaccines and one dose shots, what chance has the average veterinarian or practitioner?"

I believe that the above speaks for itself and needs no further explanation.

April 27, 1940.

this park have been demanding that settees there be all removed. Protests against the placing of the settees at other little parks in certain sections of the city have also been made, including Hartmann Park at Oak Hill.

There is no question but that poor judgment was evidenced in the plan to crowd Farlow Park and the small parks with large settees. It is quite probable that had only 8 or 10 benches been placed at Farlow Park (where some more settees had long been needed), and 2 or 3 settees been placed in each of the smaller parks, there would have been few protests. Most persons realize that the small parks in the Newtons are public property, and not for the exclusive advantage of persons owning property or residing in the immediate vicinity of these little parks. There are many residents of the Newtons, particularly elderly people, and who would welcome some places where they could sit down and rest, or breathe the outdoor air. In each park there should be a couple of settees, and this includes Kenrick Park, Walnut Park, Waban Park, Finch Park and Spear Park, as well as similar parks at Newtonville, Newton Centre and other parts of the city.

So the Forestry Division selected the locations where the benches were to be located, and trucks hired by the WPA started to deliver the settees last Thursday. The principal repository for the settees was Farlow Park at Newton. At this former beauty spot it was planned to place 85 of the settees, and about 25 were actually set up there. This park, instead of being a beauty spot has been an eyesore on the Vernon st. side since it was converted into a playground for the Underwood School some years ago and the profusion of settees certainly did not improve the appearance of the other sections of the park. The pastor and members of Eliot Church protested and so did Librarian Lucht, as a row of the settees was placed alongside the fence which separates the park from the yard of the Children's Library. On Sunday members of Eliot Church signed a petition addressed to Mayor Goddard protesting against an unnecessary number of benches in Farlow Park and asking that the park be restored to its former attractive appearance.

Ten settees were taken to Kenrick Park, Newton, but were not set up. Five were taken to Spear Park at Washington and Walnut sts., and these also were not set up. Protests from abutters and neighbors carried such influence with the Street Department, that they were deferred to. Five benches were set up at Waban Park, Newton and persons residing around enough men of experience to straighten out the tangled mess into which the Roosevelt spenders have plunged the nation. Consequently why should we deprive the country of a single man of experience simply because it does not defeat his Democratic opponents by a huge majority on election day? Let us all pull together and make use of a man like Mr. Luce just as long as he feels that he can serve us advantageously.

You are a young man. There is ample time for you to go to Washington after Mr. Luce's services are no longer available. In the meanwhile I and thousands of other like me, feel disposed to keep Mr. Luce in Washington just as long as his services are as valuable as they have been in the past.

55 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, April 25, 1885
The ice business is booming.

The watering carts have been greeted with pleasure. Down with the dust!

Five days of mid-summer in April is almost unprecedented. Oh! for a gentle shower.

The site of the new Baptist Church on Church st., Newton, looks like business, if immovable derricks, piles of lumber and building material mean anything.

Persons who cut limbs of beautiful elm trees on Newton streets without authority are saying—"Now that the limbs are off, what are you going to do about it?" Our City Forester ought to answer them in unmistakable language.

Where is the great metropolitan sewer system that was to have been constructed for Boston and adjoining cities and towns? We pray that some system be built before our whole territory gets sewer soaked. We opine that those who are the least frightened now, will be the first to clear out of town if cholera enters.

A team containing a man, the man containing an over supply of "oh-beautiful" was badly stove-up on Crafts st., Newtonville on Wednesday evening. The man had been visiting in Waltham during the day, and ran into a fence while returning to Newton.

Fifteen alarms of fire were pulled in Newton from last Saturday to Tuesday inclusive. Nearly all of them were caused by gross carelessness, children playing with matches and the like. It is terribly severe upon the fire department here (many of them also working on the highway department), "driving" them so frequently over the rough and hilly territory which prevails in many parts of the city.

The High School boys in their indignation at the proposal of Supt. of Schools Emerson to institute two sessions at that school, have issued a supplement to the High School Review, expressing their minds on this subject. It is a manly and smart statement. We advise all to buy and read the Review.

Not a fish is now to be seen in Cheese Creek Brook. Five or six years ago boys caught good fares of trout there. But the sewage polluted waters ended the finny tribe in that brook.

E. L. Barker had petitioned the City Council for damages caused by a double-runner colliding with his team at the foot of Prospect st. the past winter.

The city fathers laid the recommendation for an appropriation of $400 for the Newton Boat Club regatta on July 4th on the table.

A full attendance was anticipated at Auburn Hall, Auburndale on last Tuesday evening, the occasion being the appearance of Prof. Kelly's group of the Mayor and some of the Aldermen now, to be parties to selfish demands of those who want little parks for their exclusive benefit, that not even a couple of settees shall be located in these parks.

Members of the New England and American Water Works Associations were driven through the Newtons this morning on their way to Woodland Park Hotel, where they will dine. The barges will then proceed to the pumping station and Echo Bridge at Upper Falls, where the delegates will align and be conducted through the Metropolitan aqueduct. The distinguished guests represent the leading cities of the Union.

A regular meeting of the School Committee was held on Tuesday night in Constitution Hall, with Mayor Kimball in the chair. The committee on rules and regulations recommended that two truant officers be appointed. Martin Laffie and Rodney Lucas were appointed. In view of the state requirement that the city establish a place for the confinement of truant children, the committee reported adversely on the use of the almshouse for such a purpose, and they would not be so critical.

Incidentally, the writer was present at the Parker House, Boston in July 1937 at the conference called by James Roosevelt to discuss WPA problems, and was the only person present who had the audacity (or lack of tact) to criticize the administration of the WPA. But we try to be fair.

Newton Graphic, April 25, 1890
Mr. T. F. Mague of West Newton began the construction of Hunnewell ave., Newton, at the Copley street end on Wednesday morning.

Miss Blanchard, librarian of the Weymouth Free Library, has been a recent visitor at the Newton Free Library to study its methods. The Newton library enjoys the reputation of being the

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE GIRLS SHOWN THROUGH IVERS &
POND FACTORY

An unusual opportunity to study piano construction was given students in the music department of Lasell Junior College recently, when Mr. Louis V. Haffermehl, well-known musician of Newton, official tuner for Lasell, and member of Boston Association of Piano Tuners, conducted two large parties of young ladies through the Ivers & Pond factory in Cambridge. There they were shown all the operations of piano building from the very beginning of case work to final tuning and voicing.

The students showed real interest in the numerous operations and at the close of the tour were presented by Mr. Haffermehl to Mr. C. H. Pond, president of Ivers & Pond Piano Co. On leaving, all expressed appreciation of the opportunity afforded by Mr. Haffermehl.

ASSOCIATION

Mrs. Maynard T. Hutchinson will entertain the Executive Staff of the Newton Hospital Aid Benefit Shop, at her home, 15 Temple st., West Newton, on Thursday afternoon, May 9.

Miss Frances Eddy will be a guest that afternoon, and will tell of her recent travels through South America and South Africa.

This Executive Staff includes Mrs. Brewer Eddy and Mrs. Ralph Conant, co-chairmen; Mrs. Edward Sawyer, treasurer; Mrs. Charles T. Bartlett, secretary; Mrs. Francis H. Williams, Business Manager; Mrs. Raymond Perkins, in charge of transportation of donations, and the chairman from each of the Newtons and Wellesley hall.

Central Club To Hold Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Newtonville Central Club will be held next Monday, May 6th, with dinner at 6:30 in the Central Church dining hall. The speaker of the evening will be Mr. Edward E. Whiting—political commentator and writer of national prominence—who will help us forget the depressing war news with a look into "What's what and who's who in national politics!" Mr. Whiting is, and has been for many years, an active resident of our fair city—and if anyone can present the subject of politics interestingly, with splashes of wit and humor, and with volumes of experience and study to back up his words, it would be the aforementioned resident of our fair city.

The election of officers for next season will be held. Captain Nagel will present the Bowling Trophy and individual prizes to the winners of the bowling league; and retiring Prexy Bill Mattson will give a poppy final report of the year's successful activities. The usual cordial invitation is extended to all Newton men who might be interested in meeting with the group of men in Central Club—a club dedicated to Christian fellowship and community interests.

Talk on Mexico at Guild of St. Francis

The Guild of St. Francis of Newton Centre will hold the closing of the round table series at the home of Mrs. Myron Bullock, 808 Commonwealth ave., on Monday, May 6, at 2:30. Mrs. Alphonse Kallan, newly elected president of the Guild, will entertain with a "Garden of Verse to Our Lady."

Sunday, May 12, the Guild members will hold their annual communion breakfast in the Sacred Heart School Hall, following the 8:30 o'clock mass. Miss Del Valle, Dean of the Mexican Catholic Women's College, will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Maurice Reidy is chairman of the breakfast arrangements.

Mary Lou Grieves Over Lost 'Tippy'

"Tippy," a toy Boston terrier, the pet of Mary Lou Barrett of 89 Morton st., Newton Centre, has been missing since Monday morning, April 29, and Mary Lou is grieving as any little girl would over the loss of her little chum. "Tippy," a female, is about 4 years old and is black with white markings. If anyone knows of the whereabouts of "Tippy," and can assist in restoring her to Mary Lou, such a person will make one little girl very happy.

Evening Guild

"Tonight's the Night" is the entertainment to be held at 8:15 o'clock in Trinity Parish House, Newton Centre, under the auspices of the Evening Guild of Trinity Church. Those who will appear in the entertainment are: Mrs. Allen Hubbard and Miss Gale Palmer, violinists; Miss Doris Docher, cellist; Mrs. Doris Davis, pianist; Mrs. S. Elsie Greenwood, soprano; Mrs. William H. Brackett, reader.

Everyone interested is cordially invited. Admission is free but a silver offering will be taken and candy will be sold during the evening for the benefit of the Interchurch Vacation School which is held annually through July on the grounds of the Andover-Newton Theological School for children up to twelve years of age, of all denominations. Miss Gale Palmer is in charge of the evening's program.

Baby In Hammock Gets A Shaking

John J. McCarthy of Providence, Rhode Island, reported to Newton police last Thursday when he stopped his car at the traffic signal in Newtonville square, it was hit in the rear by a truck driven by John Dominick of Dorchester. McCarthy claimed that his 4 months old son, John Noel McCarthy was injured in the collision. According to his report the infant was lying in a hammock which was suspended in the rear of the car, and the crash caused the baby to be shaken. McCarthy also reported that the impact of the collision knocked his wife's hat off.

Fined $100 For Drunken Driving

In the Newton court last Thursday Joseph McGrath, 22 of 54 Lincoln st., Watertown, was fined $100 by Judge Mayberry for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He had a previous conviction for the same offence. Patrolman John Muller testified that on the morning of April 19 at 1:50, he observed a car driven along Chestnut st., Waban. It had been in a collision and its front was damaged. He stopped the car and found the driver under the influence of liquor.

For Ex-Convict

Wesley Fanion, 30, of 346 Temple st., West Roxbury, who was captured in the gravel pit at Oak Hill on the night of April 24 by Patrolmen Turner and McArdle after he had stolen some gasoline there, was sentenced to serve 6 months in Billerica prison by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court yesterday. Fanion was released from State Prison on February 7 after having served a 5 years term for burglary.

Steal Man's Pants
With $75 in Them

Whoever stole Murdock Madison's pants last Sunday morning must have known that Murdock kept money in his trousers pocket. Madison arrived at his room at 97 Newtonville ave., Newton about 2 a. m. Sunday after attending a dance. When he awoke at 10:30 that morning he found that some thief had stolen both the pants and the cash which was in one of the pockets. It is supposed that the burglar entered through an unlocked window into Madison's room on the first floor.

SPRING FOOTBALL AT NEWTON HIGH

A limited spring football practice season opened this week at the Newton High School when Coach Owen McDowell of the Newton eleven issued football shoes to about two score football candidates who are not participating in other forms of sport. Outdoor sessions in gym suits will be held daily for about two weeks with considerable drilling on passing, kicking, handling the ball and instruction in the McDowell system of play. No contact work will be permitted other than running through plays in dummy scrimmage fashion.

TRACK TEAM OPENS SEASON TOMORROW

The Newton High track team opens its 1940 season in defense of its last year's title as champions in the annual Worcester Polytechnic Interscholastic meet. Although far from being as strong on the cinders as last year the orange and black gives promise of returning from the meet with victory. Coach Enoch's crew potentially is far stronger this spring than on the boards last winter.

The 1940 team will be strong in the middle distances with Captain Fred Hall, state champion Bob Ross and Gil Doble a trio from whom numerous points are expected. Added strength is assured in the field events with Fran Olivigni and Bill Hurley clearing close to 20 feet in the broad jump, Bill Boyer, George Walker, and Joe Beatty, the latter a newcomer to track but an athlete of unquestioned ability on the gridiron and hockey rink, in the weight events. Bob Edison, Eliot Moyer and Chet Thomas are back again in the high jump with the latter doubling up in the pole vault.

Coach Enoch's greatest problems lie in the development of competent entries in the dashes and hurdles. Among the best prospects are Bob Cotton, Bill Hurley and Paul Hines. Hines has been showing good form over the hurdles and it will be his task to attempt to fit the shoes of Don MacKinnon, Newton ace of the past few years, who was recently elected captain of the Harvard freshman track team. Hurley also may develop into a fair hurdler although his best efforts have been made in the 100. Jim Beloit, who has been a member of the squad for two years, is another century possibility. He may also run the 220. Bob Cotton, who wound up the indoor season as Newton's best 300-yarder is more than a possibility in the 220.

Several promising sophomores are working out and any of them may prove the welcome answer to one or more of the Newton mentor's problems. This group includes Savigny, Turner, Harris, Whiting, Thompson and Hooper, Murphy, Klein and Jerry Hickey are other candidates who will also be available another season.

NEWTON ARCHERS
WEEKLY SHOOTS

Fortunately for the Newton Archers last Saturday the black clouds didn't carry out the dark threat for a rainy afternoon. For the first of the tournaments held each week, Walter Kimber was in charge. Seventeen seniors and three juniors lined up to try their skill.

Those receiving the prizes for high handicap scores were:

Burton Howarth, 86-510-319-859; Dorothy Matthews, 73-361-479-40; Marjorie Kimber, 82-496-361-860.

The winners of the first three places in the American Round were: Men—Walter Kimber, Burton Howarth, Tad Skinner; Women, Dorothy Matthews, Anita Howarth, Doris Kimber; Juniors, Marjorie Kimber, Joseph Kimber, Sally Spofford.

Next Saturday afternoon the Archers will shoot in the first Saturday-of-the-Month Tournament under the direction of Carl S. Spofford. It will be the first of a series.

The Archers are especially interested in the new handicap cups and other trophies that are being offered this season. Among them are the Spofford cups and the Howarth plate. These trophies will be retired at the end of this season.

The Spofford cups are to be used in the first of the month handicap tournaments. One is to be presented to a senior archer and the other to a junior. These cups will be retained by the senior and junior archer who have won the cups three times in succession or to the archer who having won the cup once and having competed in the majority of the monthly tournaments reduces his handicap the most during the season, compared with the scores of the other archers who have won the cup.

The Howarth plate will be awarded at the end of the season to the woman who has attended 75 per cent of the weekly tournaments and who has the highest grand total in the American Round.

Rotary Club

At the regular meeting of the Newton Rotary Club, on Monday, Dick Nesbit, who has charge of the programs, introduced the speaker Dr. Earle A. Brooks, Professor at Boston University in the School of Education, who gave a very interesting talk on "The Value of Woodcraft."

He introduced his subject by showing a book presented to him by Don Fender, the young Maine boy who was lost for nine days in the woods and because he knew something about the subject of woodcraft and applied it, he came out alive. The name of the book is "Lost on a Mountain in Maine."

Four important points that a person should know if he becomes lost in the woods are: First, How to get out—you need to know directions and you should find one or two of the simpler methods of orienting yourself; second, how to find or make a comfortable shelter; third, how to take care of yourself in case of accident—nature provides many ways, one particular antiseptic being the pure resin under the blisters on the Balsam Fir; fourth, finding wild foods and knowing those that are good to eat. For instance, most of our New England territory abounds in wild game, and the water with fish. There are also plenty of nuts, tubers, and wild fruits.

Books that would be interesting to read would be: "Edible Wild Fruits," "Plants Useful to Man," and "Useful Wild Plants." One must guard against poisonous foods such as the deadly Night Shade, a small black berry, the Climbing Night Shade, a vivid red berry, and the Red Baneberry, which is found only in swamp territory. Also, one should watch out for poison Sumac and Poison Ivy, as well as the Black Widow Spider and the following four snakes: Coral, Timber Rattler, Cotton Mouth Moccasin and Copperhead.

Good wild foods are wild Cranberries, June Berries, Blueberries, the Haws, Indian Cucumber root, and ground nuts. Many of these can be found the year round if one knows where to look for them.

Successful Bridge Party For Hospital Benefit

A successful bridge party, both from the social and financial point of view, was the verdict of the committee which had worked so hard the last two weeks for the affair held on Tuesday afternoon at the Nurses Home.

Mrs. Charles B. Floyd and her co-chairman Mrs. Benjamin D. Miller were most enthusiastic in their praise of all those who had a share in making it such a pleasant affair. The number of tables was limited to one hundred and twenty-five and nearly five hundred tickets were sold.

Coffee and French pastry were served at one-thirty under the direction of Mrs. Benjamin Pepper, following which play commenced. A fragrant corsage of gardenias was placed at each table for the winners.

Mrs. Harold R. Keller was in charge of the tickets and her committee included a member from each of the Newtons and from Wellesley. Mrs. Colby and a committee who were in charge of the tables and Mrs. P. P. Drew, publicity chairman were among many active in the success of the affair.

The proceeds from the bridge will be donated by the Newton Hospital Aid Association towards the purchase of additional X-ray equipment for the hospital, the need of which was explained at a recent board meeting at which the president of the association, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, presented Dr. Robert Vance, the head of that department at the hospital, as the speaker.

Mother And Daughter Banquet at Newtonville

Barring, perhaps, a wedding party, it would be difficult to find a more attractive social gathering than that at a Mother and Daughter Dinner, a popular feature in women's church organizations. This often amounts to a coming out party when a girl has her first evening dress with a corsage and has her first permanent and Mother, not to be eclipsed by her attractive daughter, satisfies a new and stronger incentive to look her loveliest. It was on Friday evening that 120 mothers and daughters of the Newtonville Methodist Church presented this pleasing picture at their annual dinner sponsored by the Woman's Association.

Between the courses, the mothers sang "There are Girls That Make Us Happy" to which the daughters responded with "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," with Mrs. Howard W. Selby leading. Mrs. E. P. McGill, program chairman, acted as toastmaster calling on Miss Edith Alexander, a tall attractive blond, for a toast to the mothers. She read Mary L. O'Hara's beautiful tribute to "Mother." Mrs. Cad L. Swan's toast to the daughters was likewise a beautiful tribute.

A two part program followed the dinner, which was presented by Ken Chamberlain, magician, and Miss Miriam Cameron, reader. The often quoted saying of Lincoln that "You can fool some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can not fool all of the people all of the time" is well demonstrated at a magician's show.

The guests were left with many puzzling questions in their minds among them how a dollar bill, loaned by Mrs. McGill, could appear inside of "Plants Useful to Man" and "Useful Wild Plants." One must guard against poisonous foods such as the deadly Night Shade, a small black berry, the Climbing Night Shade, a vivid red berry, and the Red Baneberry, which is found only in swamp territory. Also, one should watch out for poison Sumac and Poison Ivy, as well as the Black Widow Spider and the following four snakes: Coral, Timber Rattler, Cotton Mouth Moccasin and Copperhead.

Then there was the quandary as to how Mr. Chamberlain could announce in the Friday morning edition of a Boston paper as he did, that "Miss Norma Simmons of Newton will take the ace of diamonds tonight," a thing which Miss Norma, a daughter, did, when a deck of cards was spread before her. Miss Cameron's interpretations of a one-act play and a number of short skits, with the artist's skill, proved a valuable antidote after an hour's effort to account for the apparently unaccountable.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

With the clearing of weather this week, 150 girls started intensive spring practice in preparation for River Day. The Art Department has finished a project of paper mache models and have designed and made the garments that they wear in the display being exhibited in a Jordan Marsh Co. window.

A joint concert by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Glee Club and the Orphean Club of Lasell will be held Friday evening at Winslow Hall.

Miss Elizabeth English, a student of the Music Department, gave a piano recital at Sunday Vespers last week. This week Dr. Raymond Calkins will speak at Vespers.

Lasell JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Newtonville Garden Club will meet at 10 a.m. on Thursday, May 9th, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Church, 59 Judkins st. The subject, "Flowers That Bloom in the Spring," will be presented by Mrs. F. A. Wightman.

Garden Questions will be in charge of Group 2.

Musical Programs

Music Group Plans Attractive Study

The Music Group, a part of the Auburndale Woman's Club, is being organized by Mrs. George D. de Grasse who is chairman of the Music Committee, in order to stimulate and encourage music lovers to sing, play, and listen, and to learn about various composers and their works.

Mrs. de Grasse held the first meeting of the Music Group at her home, 107 Hancock st., on Tuesday afternoon, April 23rd, at 2:30 o'clock.

After formulating plans for next year, the Group listened to a report on Victor Herbert's life, followed by piano selections, songs, and recordings which illustrated the sparkling type of his music.

Tea was served with Mrs. Paul Kieser and Mrs. Lewis F. Billings assisting.

The next meeting will be held on May 7th, at the home of Mrs. Eric J. Kermath, 4 Evergreen ave. The program will include the studying and singing of two chorals numbers, report on MacDowell's life, and listening to some of his music which will be rendered by various members of the Group.

Newtonville Woman's Club

The Annual Meeting of the Newtonville Woman's Club, held on Tuesday, April 23rd, brought to a close another Club Year, with luncheon, arranged by Mrs. Ralph E. Johnson and her committee, served at 1 o'clock. Seated at the head table, which was gay with spring flowers, were Mrs. Frank E. Morris, president and other officers and directors of the Club. Colorful May baskets, filled with candy and sprigs of white baby's breath, decorated the tables for members and their guests.

During the business meeting which followed, Mrs. Morris presented two medals. Mrs. Arthur H. Soden, a Charter member, and over ninety years of age, received one for her many years in the Club. Miss Edith Simpson, a niece, accepted the medal for her aunt, and read an inspiring letter of thanks written in longhand by Mrs. Soden. The other medal was presented to Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, for distinguished service to the Club and the community.

After the balloting, Mrs. Morris announced the following officers elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Patrick J. Duncan; first vice-president, Mrs. Gordon S. Heath; second vice-president, Mrs. George E. Dennett; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank L. Ogilvie; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Vernon E. Blagbrough; treasurer, Mrs. D. Webster Anders; auditor and finance, Mrs. Henry F. Keating; directors, Mrs. Louise C. Flene, Mrs. Henry L. Goodman, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay; Nominating chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Gibson Jr.; committee chairmen: Mrs. E. Martineau, Ways and Means; Mrs. Gordon S. Heath, Program; and Class leaders: American Home, Mrs. Maxwell P. Gaddis; Garden Club, Mrs. Frederick L. Legnard; Hobby Class, Mrs. Percival Waters; and Travel Class, Mrs. Fred H. Fowle.

Past presidents present at the head table were Mrs. Joseph A. McDonald, Mrs. John R. McLean, Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard, Mrs. Joseph A. Otis, Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield, Mrs. D. Earle Brackett, Mrs. John S. Franklin, Mrs. Ernest A. Dockstader, Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden, and Honorary member, Mrs. Francis E. Nowers.

Two Harvard University students, Mr. Henry Kelly and Mr. P. Kenny, entertained with singing and with playing of the guitar of music of Mexico.

Mrs. Percival Waters and her committee were in charge of the day. The tables were beautifully arranged, with bouquets of mixed sweet peas and French iris. The afternoon closed with the joining of hands and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

play, "Bargain Day," followed by "Mother will Help" and "Travel Talk."

West Newton Women's Educational Club

The sixtieth Annual Meeting of the West Newton Women's Educational Club closed the year with a Luncheon and business meeting at the Brae Burn Country Club, on Friday, April 26th, at 12:30 o'clock.

The president, Mrs. Patrick J. Duncan presided. After the singing of "God Save America," silent tribute was paid in memory of Mrs. Louis B. Martin. Mrs. Duncan greeted Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president of the Newton Federation, and Mrs. Leslie P. Phinney, past president of the Community Service Club of West Newton.

Mrs. Frank L. Ogilvie, recording secretary, read an interesting report of the numerous Club activities; and the treasurer, Mrs. D. Webster Anders gave a fine financial report. Chairmen of the various committees also read their annual reports.

Mrs. Herman L. Place, Nominating Committee chairman, presented the following ballot, who were elected: President, Mrs. Patrick J. Duncan; first vice-president, Mrs. Gordon S. Heath; second vice-president, Mrs. George E. Dennett; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank L. Ogilvie; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Vernon E. Blagbrough; treasurer, Mrs. D. Webster Anders; auditor and finance, Mrs. Henry F. Keating; directors, Mrs. Louise C. Flene, Mrs. Henry L. Goodman, Mrs. Edgar P. Hay; Nominating chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Gibson Jr.; committee chairmen: Mrs. E. Martineau, Ways and Means; Mrs. Gordon S. Heath, Program; and Class leaders: American Home, Mrs. Maxwell P. Gaddis; Garden Club, Mrs. Frederick L. Legnard; Hobby Class, Mrs. Percival Waters; and Travel Class, Mrs. Fred H. Fowle.

Past presidents present at the head table were Mrs. Joseph A. McDonald, Mrs. John R. McLean, Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard, Mrs. Joseph A. Otis, Mrs. Raymond O. Littlefield, Mrs. D. Earle Brackett, Mrs. John S. Franklin, Mrs. Ernest A. Dockstader, Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden, and Honorary member, Mrs. Francis E. Nowers.

Following the Annual Luncheon of the Woman's Club of Newton Highlands, held Tuesday, April 30, Mrs. Malcolm Green, the retiring president, called upon Mrs. Theron B. Walker, chairman of the Nominating Committee, for the ballot for the coming year. After the voting had taken place, reports of the officers and of various chairmen of committees were read.

Mrs. Helen Cushman Mitchell entertained during the afternoon with a delightful selection of songs and poetry of her own composition.

Mrs. Green again called upon Mrs. Walker for the result of the voting, and declared the following officers elected for 1940-1941:

President, Mrs. Marvin B. Perry; vice-presidents, Mrs. Maurice W. Denison and Mrs. Lewis O. Hartman; recording secretary, Mrs. J. Herbert Young; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Clarence K. Reiman; assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas Tod; treasurer, Mrs. Eugene F. Bradshaw; directors, Mrs. Harry W. Fitts, Mrs. William H. Adams, and Mrs. George Angier; and auditor, Mrs. Vernon B. Sweet.

After luncheon, Mrs. Frederick S. Bacon read a humorous poem on the program for the past year, and Mr. Edward Payne gave some selections from Dickens, illustrating them with drawings of the characters.

Newton Community Club

The Newton Community Club closed the current Club Year with its Annual Meeting and Luncheon, held at the Eliot Church, Thursday, April 25. At 11 a.m. the annual reports of the chairmen were read, and Mrs. Steven B. Wilson, chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the following ballot of officers, who were unanimously elected: President, Mrs. Wallace Wales; first vice-president, Mrs. Newton A. Merritt, Jr.; second vice-president, Mrs. Frank E. Wing; third vice-president, Mrs. Lawrence Garvin; recording secretary, Mrs. George R. Strandberg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John A. Boppert; treasurer, Mrs. Raymond B. Ladeo; auditor, Miss Margaret H. Aubin;

In Newton Court

Eleven automobile drivers appeared in the Newton court on Tuesday on complaints of Inspector Hammell of the Traffic Bureau. Speeders fined $5 each by Judge Mayberry included: Clyde Hartley, Hingham; Morgan Potter, Worcester; Thomas McDonald, Watertown; Aldo Doughty, Watertown. Speeders whose cases were placed on file included: Rhoda Levine, Brighton; Mary Hickey, Dorchester; Marjorie Pond, Natick; John Alken, Boston; Robert McElearney, Cambridge; Robert Parsons, 17, of Saugus, was fined $5 for speeding, and $5 for ignoring a traffic signal. Bernardino Vespa of John st., Newton Centre was fined $5 for not stopping before entering a through way.

In the Newton court on Wednesday Judge Mayberry fined three speeders who had been convicted twice within a year $25 each. Cortland Barnes, 22, of Oakvale rd., Waltham, and Paul Butler, 19, of Ash st., Waltham, were given until June 1 to pay the fines. Francis Joyce, 24, of 219 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, appealed. Traffic Office Dowling was the complainant in all the cases. Richard Olson of Maple st., Waltham and Bernard Finan, Jr., of Wessex rd., Newton Centre, were fined $5 for speeding. Max Hirson of Alton pl., Brookline, was fined $5 for ignoring a traffic signal. Archer Parquette of Summer st., Watertown was fined $5 for driving within 8 feet of a street car stopped to allow a passenger to alight. Fred Kirkham of Watertown was fined $5 for not slowing down at an intersection. A speeding charge against Winifred Reed of 76 Chestnut st., West Newton, was placed on file.

his opponent, Charles Donovan, also of Brighton, 110 votes.

Although only 10 per cent of the voters participated in the primary, the regular staff of election officers had to be on duty, and the cost to the city for their services per diem was about $1,000. To this must be added about $400 for trucking of ballot boxes and other incidental expenses. In addition, there is the cost to the State for the printing of ballots.

the city of Marlboro. Under the redistricting act of the 1939 legislature this district will be changed.

In announcing his candidacy Representative Brimblecombe made the following public statement:

"After due consideration of the views of many of my friends and my desire to continue service to the citizens of Newton I have decided to seek promotion from the elective position as Representative of the 4th Middlesex district to the office of Senator from the new Middlesex-Suffolk district comprising the city of Newton, Ward 5 of Cambridge and Ward 22 of Boston. I have served as Representative for the past eight years and have endeavored at all times to represent the views of the majority of my constituents. I have given, and shall continue to give, freely of my time and service in their interests. Recently it became known that Rep. William B. Baker, my colleague from the 4th District, was retiring after six terms of valuable public service. The subsequent announcement of candidates for the vacancy thus resulting also stated that I might be a candidate for other office. This statement was made with my knowledge as I have been considering for some time the decision I have now reached, I believe it is in the public interest that my decision be made known.

"There is now pending before the courts of Massachusetts a suit brought by the Attorney General against the Secretary of State, alleging that the new Senatorial districts were drawn illegally and in a partisan manner by the 1939 Legislature. Inasmuch as the city of Newton has more than 33,000 registered voters it will comprise more than two thirds of whatever district lines are eventually established, either by the legality of the newly formed district or subsequent lines drawn by a special session of the legislature, which would probably be necessary if the new lines are deemed illegal. As Senator from the district of which Newton is a part I shall be ever mindful of the best interests of the remainder of the district.

"I am further aware that in seeking promotion to the Senate that it will mean the election of three new Representatives from the 4th and 5th Middlesex districts into which Newton is now divided due to the fact that Rep. Baker and Mayor Paul M. Goddard are not candidates for re-election. In the past, however, Newton has always sent men to the Legislature who have been a credit to our city. I have faith in the judgment and intelligence of Newton voters that they will continue to do so.

"Some weeks ago I discussed the situation with Senator Hollis who informed me that he had not decided whether or not he would be a candidate for re-election. He has served as State Senator for twelve years and has every right to seek re-election if he so desires. I have consistently opposed over-lengthy service in one elective office except under unusual circumstances. I shall continue to do so in the belief that the ever-changing demands of government occasionally require the new viewpoint. In further discussion with friends and supporters throughout the city I believe that the majority of voters in Newton are of similar mind. Having been assured of the support of friends and acquaintances throughout the city in all walks of life I shall be a candidate for Senator. With the experience of nearly twenty years of newspaper work in Newton and eight years as Representative I shall, if elected, continue to serve my constituents to the best of my ability. I am proud of the faith shown in me by the voters of the 4th Middlesex district in the past and I look forward with pleasure to the opportunity to be of greater service."

Probe Fire At Newton Centre

At the request of Chief Randlett of the Newton Fire Department, the State Fire Marshal's office has been investigating the fire which occurred a couple of weeks ago in the two family houses at 1037 Beacon st., Newton Centre. The fire spread with great rapidity and gutted both the lower and upper apartments of the house. Sulphur candles had been ignited in the unoccupied lower apartment by the owner of the house, and tenants of the upper apartment left their home for the day after they had been notified that the lower apartment was to be fumigated.

son of February 13th, an expose which resulted in Dean Sperry of Harvard forbidding further meetings of the Y. A. A. at Phillips Brooks House.

It is a fact, however, that in most communities there are persons who are intolerant, and Waban is no exception. For instance—about 12 years ago when it was announced that a Catholic church was to be erected in Waban, a friend of ours, who had been a resident of Waban for some time, said to me—"Ed, people in Waban are quite incensed with Mr. Rane." I asked why the indignation, and my Waban friend replied: "Mr. Rane sold the land to the Archbishop of Boston on which the new Catholic church is to be erected. Waban is a Protestant community, and people there want to keep it so." We replied that such persons, in Waban, as had become indignant with Mr. Rane over this cause, were not evidencing real Americanism. But, we would dislike to believe that even such intolerant persons would approve of, or become members of such an organization as the Y. A. A. is reported to be. If, however, the Y. A. A. does succeed in organizing a unit in Waban, may we suggest that residents of Waban be hesitant about wearing red blouses or shirts—because, scarlet blouses have been the uniform of the Y. A. A., according to the articles published in the Harvard Crimson, and the fervid patriots allegedly headed by Edward Holton James of Concord have been dubbed "Red Shirts."

It is not surprising when a person of little culture or public prominence seeks cheap publicity. But one would not expect an intellectual who affects three names and is the head of such an organization as the Carnegie Institute to resort to "first page national publicity" by such bunk as has Samuel Harden Church. We read that Samuel Harden is 82 years old. That may explain his action. He announced that fifty responsible residents of Pittsburgh have pledged $1,000,000 as a reward to anyone who will capture Adolf Hitler. We know that there are many wealthy persons in Pittsburgh. Perhaps some of the fifty allegedly pledged to contribute the $1,000,000 are among those who receive incomes from holding companies whose interests have spread to Boston and throughout the country.

Correction On School Calendar

In last week's GRAPHIC two errors occurred in the dates given for the 1940-1941 school calendar. The errors were caused by the statement that the fourth term will be from April 28 to June 30 (1941), with a holiday on Friday, May 31. The fourth term in the 1940-1941 school calendar will start on April 28 and end on June 20, 1941, for the pupils, and June 23 for the teachers. Memorial Day in 1941 falls on a Friday, so the holiday will be on Friday, May 30, 1941. This year Memorial Day falls on Thursday, May 30, so, in addition to the holiday on that day, an additional holiday will be given on Friday, May 31, 1941.

vance in preventive surgery, there has been a tremendous increase in arrested cases. It stresses particularly the importance of the community helping people to go for treatment in the early stages because of the fact that the percentage recovery then went up to 95 per cent. One of the ways in which the community is helping, under Dr. Chadwick's leadership to get at an early diagnosis, is through school examinations, which was started in 1924. During the last few years the number of instances of tuberculosis in school children has decreased, and the careful diagnosis in the clinics has meant a real gain in preventive work.

The Middlesex Sanatorium has clinics four days a week, and any physician can send patients there for x-ray examination. Dr. Chadwick also stressed future programs which could be carried out under the Christmas Seal Fund and felt that rehabilitation brought the greatest returns to the community. He felt that it was important for careful planning after hospitalization, particularly in relation to vocational adjustment so that the individual could be employed successfully and still protect his health. In connection with this, he was very much interested in the recent plan of the Health Committee of the Family Service Bureau to employ a part-time rehabilitation worker. This worker would get to know the patient in the hospital and plan for training prior to his return to the community and thereby do a sound bit of preventive work.

Arrest Three For Stealing Metal

Abraham Arnold Willis, 31, of Roxbury, Angelo Azulay, 23, of Roxbury and Donald Lecorda, 19, also of Roxbury were arrested Wednesday afternoon near the former plant of the Purity Ice Company of Beacon st., Newton Highlands, charged with stripping and stealing metal of various kinds from the building. A truck which Willis stated was owned by his mother became mired near the old building after E. L. Hadley of Cambridge, an official of the Metropolitan Ice Company, present owners of the property had arrived at the place and observed the trio stealing the metal. He telephoned police headquarters and Patrolmen Taffe and Bibbo arrived in a police car and placed the three under arrest. They were arraigned in the Newton court on Thursday and their cases continued to May 9.

Poor Box Thief Given Leniency

John Nagle, 17, of 54 Williams st., Newton, was arraigned in the Newton court on Wednesday charged with robbing poor boxes at Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre, and St. Philip Neri Church, Waban. Judge Mayberry gave him a suspended sentence of two months to Billerica prison. Nagle was then turned over to the custody of the Waltham police who had a warrant for him on a similar charge. He was placed on probation by the Waltham court until June 22. Nagle was arrested on March 24 by Brookline police after a priest at St. Lawrence's Church in that town had caught him robbing a poor box there. He was sent to the Westboro Insane Hospital for observation and declared sane.

Colored still pictures will be shown in conjunction with the movie, "Cavalcade of Waban Scouting" and a running comment by Fred Came, Junior Asst. County Commissioners Asked To Explain T.B. Hospital Assessment

Newton Has Been Paying Disproportionate Share

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, Chairman McKay of the Finance Committee presented the following resolutions, which were adopted by the Board: "Resolved—that His Honor, the Mayor, through the City Solicitor, ascertain whether, or not the Middlesex County Commissioners properly computed the charges for the support of patients at the Middlesex County Tuberculosis Hospital for the year 1939, based on the actual cost of their care and treatment, exclusive of all interest or other expenses pertaining to the construction, equipment or permanent upkeep of the institution."

"And it is further resolved—that if they ascertain that the said charges were not properly computed, His Honor or the Mayor, and the City Solicitor take such steps, if any, as they may be advised, to correct the situation."

The reason for Alderman McKay offering these resolutions was because the City of Newton has been very heavily assessed for its share in supporting the hospital, and has been paying a much higher rate per patient than have other cities and towns in Middlesex County.

Last year Aldermen McKay and Colby made a study of the city's relations with the T.B. hospital and as a result of their report the Board of Aldermen early this year held up for some weeks the payment of the assessment levied on Newton. This report showed that certain cities and towns in the county paid much more than their proportionate share, as based on the number of patients they sent to the hospital, while other cities and towns paid much less than their share.

Proclamation

The President of the United States has designated May 12th as National Hospital Day.

The Newton Hospital is an institution worthy in every sense of the wholehearted support of our community and we are prone to forget the great humanitarian services which that organization constantly renders as a result of sickness or accident.

NOW THEREFORE, as Mayor of the City of Newton, I urge that every citizen take this opportunity to visit our hospital, to remember those who are ill and those who have been restored to health, and to stand ready to help our Community Hospital in any way possible during the coming year.

Protest Against Lutz's Election

The election of Roger A. Lutz as the man member of the State Committee from the Middlesex-Suffolk senatorial district is being protested by Thomas C. Morahan of Hibbard rd., Newton, who was a candidate for this office at the recent presidential primary election. Mr. Morahan has already made a protest to City Clerk Grant, and stated he would also file a protest with Secretary of State Cook.

According to Morahan, Lutz has actually resided in Cambridge for the past few years at 401 Broadway, and that on June 29, 1938 the telephone at that address was listed in Roger Lutz's name. Morahan also alleges that Lutz's automobile license was issued in 1939 with the Cambridge address given, and that the 1940 reg-

MOTHER'S DAY

Some thirty-three years ago the observance of Mother's Day was instituted by a Philadelphia woman, with the dedication of the second Sunday of May to the memory of her mother. Joined by a few friends at that time the recognition of all mothers and mothers individually rapidly spread. From birth a mother shares the joys and sorrows of her offspring until the slender thread of life parts. From childhood through adolescence to adulthood we learn to appreciate more fully the meaning of life and the beauty of creation. The world is dependent upon a mother's care and a mother's love. On Sunday we will turn our special thoughts with reverence and gratefulness to our mother which she so richly deserves.

MASSACHUSETTS NEWSPAPER WEEK

Next week has been officially designated as "Massachusetts Newspaper Week" in a proclamation in behalf of the press of this state by Governor Saltonstall. The right of free speech is one of the inherent American traditions which grew out of the coming of the Pilgrims to the shores of the first real white settlement in this country. Many Massachusetts newspapers are holding open house and inviting the public to their printing plants at specified times. The essential foundation of any newspaper is the printing of the truth. Facts are news and it has always been the desire of every reputable newspaper to search for truth. We are proud to be included among those newspapers which through the years have been found to be dependable and reliable and we are zealous in our efforts to respect the faith and confidence that Newton readers have shown in us. Like other newspapers throughout the state we reaffirm our pledge to provide a medium to which all may turn for reliable and truthful information.

NEWTON TAXES LOWER

Newton is the first city to announce its 1940 tax rate. It is welcome news that the rate has been reduced by a dollar per thousand valuation. Mayor Goddard and the Aldermen, and incidentally also with the assistance of Governor Saltonstall and his efforts to improve the state financial situation, have done a real service to citizens of Newton in these difficult times. We trust that other cities and towns will be able to follow Newton's lead to the end that the plight of the taxpayer may continue to improve as it has within the past twelve months. It is a long, hard pull, with welfare burdens extremely heavy, but there is hope of making headway against the strong tide of depression and poor business conditions which have beset everyone.

WERE YOU ENUMERATED?

On the first page of this issue readers will find a blank form asking them, if not already enumerated in the recent census count, to write in their name and send it to the proper officials. During the census taking the absence of many persons from their homes made it difficult for the enumerators to complete their task and rechecks have been made. We have been asked to co-operate in providing persons who have not yet been interviewed with the opportunity to be counted.

Puppet Show At Stearns School

An interesting entertainment will be presented in the hall at Stearns School next Tuesday evening, May 14, at 7:30 under the auspices of the Newton Recreation Department. Miss Gladys Forbush has trained a group of young boys in the manipulation of puppets. Each boy has made the puppet he will manipulate in the presentation of "Stearns Puppeteers."

The program includes "Punch & Judy," "Peppermint Stick Boy," "Happiness" and "Rumpelstiltskin," and the puppeteers will be Edward DiSantis, Joseph Cotola, Sammy Visco, Luco Bibbo, Joseph Cafferelli, R. W. Hamilton, Ed Deangelio, James Piselli, Alfred Collela, and Louis Arcese. In addition musical numbers will be given by Louis Messina on the piano, and Carmen Perna, accordionist.

Letters To The Editor

(Ed. Note—Several letters from readers for publication in this week's issue have necessarily been held over because of lack of space.)

Powers' Paragraphs

Benjamin S. Hinckley of 177 Park st., Newton, who died on May 6 was a kindly, considerate man who won many friends during his long residence in this city. He served three years in the Newton Board of Aldermen, declining to serve longer because of the condition of his health. After he became a member of the city government, Mr. Hinckley started to work for the devising and adoption of the contributory pension system under which this city now operates. He was actuated to do this by his observance of the injustice caused by city employees in certain departments being retired on pensions, and employees in other departments receiving no pensions when old age or infirmity forced their retirement after many years of faithful service.

A newspaper item stated the other day that Mayor Goddard would not submit any appointment of a City veterinarian to the Board of Aldermen last Monday night, although there are several applicants for the position formerly held by the late Dr. C. A. Boutelle. Inasmuch as the City of Newton sold twenty horses several weeks ago, why does it need a veterinarian now? Dr. Boutelle received a salary of $350 as City veterinarian, $400 as Inspector of Animals, $200 for automobile expenses, and averaged about $300 annually for his services at the dog clinic. The services of some veterinary will be required for the other duties, but the $350 formerly paid for caring for horses can now be saved, or expended for maintenance of city owned motor vehicles.

Traffic laws and ordinances are made for the protection of the public and the prevention of accidents. Most operators of motor vehicles try to obey such laws and regulations, but a certain minority seem to think they are especially privileged, or that they can disregard the right and safety of the majority by violating traffic laws and ordinances with the expectation that they will not be punished. Some of these inconsiderate or selfish persons will double-park on a street or stop their automobiles on blind corners or crosswalks, or in other prohibited areas because they are too lazy to walk even a short distance. A car stopped on a cross walk or a corner, or double-parked on a street with someone sitting in it, is just as much an obstacle to traffic as a parked car. And the excuse given by those who park or stop automobiles in prohibited areas—that the car is there for "just minute or two," is a poor reason for extrapolating autoists who indulge in this practise. If a considerable percentage of automobile drivers arrogated to themselves the right to disregard parking ordinances even for a minute or two, crosswalks and corners would be obstructed most of the time by automobiles, and double-parking would be continuous in most business sections. The only way this increasing traffic nuisance can be curbed is for judges to find such self-privileged drivers of motor vehicles istration for his automobile was at the Cambridge address.

According to records at City Hall he first became a registered voter in Newton in 1930.

Lutz's name was dropped from the Newton voting lists in January, 1939 and he reregistered in September, 1939, giving his address as Ripley st., Newton Center. According to Morahan's protest, as made to City Clerk Grant, Lutz did not establish himself as a Republican until March 8, 1940, and Secretary of State Cook had previously sent out printed instructions designating 5 p.m. on March 5, 1940 as the last day and hour for filing all nomination papers with Registrars of Voters and Election Commissioners for certification of signatures. According to the Acts of 1933, Section 33 of Chapter 53 was amended so that a voter must establish or change his party affiliation 31 days preceding a primary.

Members of the Newton Republican City Committee, as individuals, before the recent primary favored the election of a candidate from Ward 22, Boston, as the man member on the State Committee from the district which includes Newton. They did this because Mrs. E. B. Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill was unopposed for the office of woman member on the Republican State Committee. Lutz sent out a large number of postcards asking that he receive votes as a Newton Republican.

Sister Mary Clare, a member of the Order of Mercy nuns is stationed there and her tireless labors in behalf of her colored charges endears her greatly to the natives. She is a life long friend of all the members of the Catholic Rosa Mystica Club and was privileged to visit them during the past summer after an absence of twenty-five years in Jamaica.

Mrs. Barbara Boudreau, Rosalie Byrne and Mary Riley of Newton with Margaret Caldon, Teresa Sheridan, of Watertown, and Katherine Hackett, Sadie Donovan, Peg Healey of Allston are in charge of the whist committee.

LUCY JACKSON CHAPTER, D. A. R.

The annual meeting of Lucy Jackson Chapter, D. A. R., will be held at the Chapter House, corner Concord and Washington sts., Newton Lower Falls, on Monday, May 13, at 2:30 p. m. Reports of the meetings at the recent Congress will be given by the delegates, annual reports of officers will be read, money earned through the year will be collected, officers will be elected, and tea served by Mrs. Frank M. Nathan and her committee.

Kiwanis Club

President John A. Janse, who presided at the meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club last Tuesday, read an invitation from the Waltham Kiwanis Club inviting the local members to attend a special dinner and banquet at the Hotel Touraine on Thursday evening, May 16, and a number of the local members plan to attend.

Arrangements have been completed for the annual kiddie show given under the auspices of the local club to the children of Newton. This will be held at the West Newton Theatre on Saturday, May 18, at 10 a. m. Arrangements are in charge of Wilfred Chagnon and Edward Welch. Boys from the Working Boys' Home in Newton are going to be transported by special buses.

The speaker was Mr. Bernard Keyes of Waltham. Mr. Keyes is a noted artist and a member of the National Academy of Design and also the Guild of Boston Artists. Mr. Keyes spoke on "The Debunking of Modern Art." He described the present tendency as being caused largely by unscrupulous art leaders who purchased poor paintings and then attempted to sell them at high prices. He said that much of the present so-called modern art was pure unadulterated "boloney," with many so-called artists pretending to see a hidden feeling in it that actually the artists themselves didn't understand it. He said that some artists who thoroughly realized this trend were, nevertheless, producing so-called modern art pictures because of the financial inducement. In other words, according to Mr. Keyes, modern art is simply a new way of taking the public for a ride.

The speaker at the next meeting of the local club will be Edward J. Pease of the Sun Oil Company. He will speak on the subject: "The Story of the Petroleum Industry."

Rotary Club

The Newton Rotary Club held its usual weekly meeting Monday noon at the Brae Burn Country Club. President Needy presided. The speaker of the day was Charles A. Colton, National Secretary of the "Forty Plus Club," and also chairman of the Public Relations Committee of the New England Organization. Vice President John J. Cahill introduced the speaker.

The "Forty Plus Club" is made up exclusively of unemployed executives and technicians, men over forty years of age who have at one time earned $4000 per year and over. Applications for memberships are made in writing on a standardized form, and it acted upon favorably by the Membership Committee, the new member consults with the Marketing Committee, who in turn undertakes the task of assisting the new member to place himself in suitable employment. There are no dues or fees. Alumni of the "Forty Plus Club" make voluntary contributions to defray running expenses, which are surprisingly low.

Since the origin of the "Forty Plus Club" the Boston Chapter has assisted 270 members to find employment and members unemployed have been reduced from 135 to 46. The different Chapters throughout the country exchange data on available candidates and co-operate very effectively in their laudable work.

Mr. Colton emphasized that age is a quality of mind. He pointed out Columbus was 57 when he discovered America, Paderewski is over 70. Mrs. Knox the nationally known business woman is 83, and indisputably evidence was presented to prove that seasoned experience and mature application always have a high marketable value. The speaker spoke highly of the splendid co-operation given by prominent business executives throughout the country. There is a persistently growing recognition of the value to the community as a whole of the effective work being done through the instrumentality of the "Forty Plus Club."

On behalf of the Nominating Committee Past President James B. Melcher, reported the following as candidates for the Board of Directors to be voted on next month. Rotarians John J. Cahill, Orville O. Clappier, Frank E. Frystrand, Charles H. Meeker, A. Norman Needy, Warren W. Oliver and Charles Sprague, Jr.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

At the Tuesday assembly Professor Mervyn Bailey gave the last in his series of illustrated lectures. His subject was "Unity of the Arts."

Alfred C. Shifelin will give an illustrated lecture on "Beautiful New England" at the Friday assembly.

Dr. Winslow attended the American Council on Education meeting at Washington, May 3 and 4.

The Retail Training class visited the Wholesale Garment Section in Boston this week.

The tennis courts are now in good condition and are the scene of much activity. Arrangements are being made for the tournament which will take place the last of May.

The Sunday Vesper speaker will be Rev. George W. Shepherd, former adviser of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

LYDIA PARTRIDGE WHITING CHAPTER

The Lydia Partridge Whiting Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its Annual Meeting on May 7th at the home of Mrs. Albion H. Brown, 24 Saxon terrace, Newton Highlands.

Clark of Newton Highlands; treasurer, Mrs. Sidney R. Porter of Newton Centre; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Harriet W. Briggs of Newton Centre; auditor, Miss Mary Manning of Newton Centre.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Maud L. H. Simmons, County president, who brought encouraging reports of work done in education and legislation in County, State and Nation against the evils of the liquor traffic. A considerable sum was appropriated from the treasury to send some young people to the Youth's Temperance Council encampment to be held in Dunstable next month.

THE NEWTON HOSPITAL AID ASSOCIATION

The Board of Directors of the Newton Hospital Aid Association will meet at ten-thirty on Tuesday morning, May 14, at the Nurses Home. This will be the last meeting before the summer vacation.

The president of the organization, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, will preside, and there will be the usual reports, including that of the recent bridge held at the Nurses Home.

Morning coffee will be served at the close of the program, Mrs. Francis Williams and her daughter, Mrs. Walter McGill being the hostesses.

Those precious seconds

When CRIMINALS threaten, think how much more certain are your chances of pressing a button than calling assistance in any other way.

Every second counts when a burglar is about, or a criminal attacks. If you try to phone, or cry for help, he may become desperate, may even take your life to escape.

But he can't hear you press a button. He can't hear the Gamewell instantaneous alarm that brings police as quickly as the nearest squad car can speed through cleared traffic.

When FIRE flares up in a destructive orgy, you press a button of your Gamewell Signal System. This signal starts fire apparatus on the way immediately. Sirens shriek, firemen rush in and confine what might easily have been a disastrous loss to minor damage.

There is no time lost. The difference between a control-table fire and one out of control may rest in those fateful minutes when you thumb a telephone book, wait for a connection, give confused directions,—or run for help.

When ACCIDENT or sudden illness creates a physical crisis, the Gamewell "DOCTOR" button will bring the help desired.

There is no time to spare in such an emergency. When blood spills fast, when the spark of life is flickering, professional assistance must come quickly. Life may cease while you are trying to get a doctor, or attempting treatment with inexperienced hands.

Conveniently located in your home or place of business, the Gamewell Signal System is a dependable safeguard that provides the quickest, surest, most positive means of notifying the proper authorities in time of peril.

THE GAMEWELL S. O. S. EMERGENCY CALL SYSTEM

This button panel of the Gamewell private Signal System is installed at a convenient point in your home or place of business, where it may be easily reached in time of peril. The panel has four push buttons marked Police, Doctor, Fire, and Test.

Pressing the proper button causes a code signal indicating the service desired to be transmitted to the central supervisory station. The signal is acknowledged by the central station by flashing the signal light.

Recent Engagements

Dr. and Mrs. Henry L. Borg of 28 Cotton st., Newton, announce the engagement of their daughter Margaret (Peggy) to Mr. William M. Priestley son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Priestley of 215 Princeton Boulevard, Lowell, Mass.

Miss Borg attended Low Heywood School, Stamford, Conn., and is a graduate of Wellesley College of 1938.

Mr. Priestley is a graduate of Tufts, class of 1932 and a member of D. N.

Mrs. Arlene Rozelle Hudson of 10 Irving st., Newton Centre, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Rozelle Hudson to John Moore Hill, 2nd, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Hill of Bemis st., Newtonville. Mr. Hill attended the Country Day School and was graduated from Harvard in 1936. He is now in his senior year at the Harvard Law School.

A Lecture on Christian Science

Christian Science: Humanity's Friend and Emancipator

VIOLET KER SEYMER, C.S.B.

of Boston, Mass.

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church,
The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

On Monday evening, May 6th, a lecture on Christian Science was given in the Church Edifice of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Newton.

Mr. Paul R. Carmack, First Reader, who introduced the lecturer to an audience that filled the church auditorium and Sunday School rooms, spoke as follows:

Friends, a Christian Science Church looks upon the giving of a Christian Science lecture as an inspiring and joyous occasion.

However, the giving of a lecture represents only a part of the undertaking. An important part—the active and ready acceptance of the message—can be done only by the audience. And as active and valued participants in this inspiring event, First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newton, extends to you all a most cordial welcome.

In Matthew we are given these words of Christ Jesus: "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

As we who are gathered here this evening listen actively and with an open mind to the lecture, there is in reality nothing that can prevent us from realizing that the healing Christ is indeed in our midst.

The subject of the lecture is: Christian Science—Humanity's Friend and Emancipator.

The Lecturer, Violet Ker Seymour, is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

It is my pleasure to introduce to you Miss Ker Seymour.

The lecturer spoke substantially as follows:

It is safe to say that hardly anyone in this audience is satisfied at all points. Whether he seems to be moving forward, slipping backward, or is at a standstill; whether he is going through life with religious fervor, or as a devotee of agnosticism or of atheism; whether he is utterly disheartened, satisfied with material existence, or doggedly doing the best he knows against odds, Christian Science has something illuminating and practical to offer him.

Have not all here this one thing in common: a desire for health, stability, sufficiency, happiness; for something beyond the hazards of daily living; for a definite, worthy purpose in life, and the understanding of how to carry it into effect? Christian Science develops, directs, and fulfills this desire. It teaches us how to learn that which is deeply profitable, spiritually and humanly, and how to drop that which is profitless. This Science frees us from the humiliation of an inferiority complex and also from the fatuity of a superiority complex.

Most of us have believed that good and evil are equally real, and more than this; when disease, depravity, unequal privileges, poverty, war, and other adversities have apparently had the upper hand, it may have seemed to us that evil overpowered good. Hence the pitiful human tendency to slip into the "what's the use?" attitude. This is not surprising, for human creeds and dogmas are apt to preach checkered existence now, heaven later; storms here, a haven elsewhere; sin and sickness now, righteousness and health in the unknown future. Christian Science rouses us from this aimless speculation and delay.

How can we reconcile a good God with a wicked world and a distressed humanity? We cannot; they are irreconcilable opposites. Only one is genuine. Which shall we give up, God, good, or belief in evil? Or shall we continue to believe in a perplexing mixture of right and wrong?

Christian Science gives one new zest in life, new power, new understanding, new dependence on Deity, new dependability toward one's fellows. It teaches one how to stand in the hour of temptation, how to be the victor, not the victim.

Christian Science

Now what actually is this Science which does all this and much more? It is the law of God, good, and it is scientifically applicable to human problems. This Science lays bare the errors of mortal thought and therefore is corrective. It expounds the nature of divine Truth and therefore is informative. It brings to light the perfection of one divine Mind and therefore is redemptive. It develops spirituality and therefore is enabling. It explains the invariable nature of health, therefore it heals the sick. It stands for spiritual joy, therefore it comforts the sorrowing. It reveals the affluence of good, therefore it brings release from poverty.

In her work "Rudimentary Divine Science" (p. 1) Mary Baker Eddy defines Christian Science as "the law of God, the law of good, interpreting and demonstrating the divine Principle and rule of universal harmony."

Christian Science, then, is the law of infinite good, in which there is no evil. It is the law of Spirit, in which there is no matter. It is the law of Soul, in which there is no sin. It is the law of perfect Mind, in which there is no mental imperfection. It is the law of divine Love, in which there is no hate. It is pure truth as stated by Christ Jesus. In Mrs. Eddy's words, Christian Science is "a deep something discordant tempts you, at once ask yourself, Is it intelligent? Whatever you understand of this talk on Christian Science, you understand through intelligence. The physical ear records the sound of words, not their meaning. Christ Jesus said to those who understood and loved his teachings, "Blessed are . . . your ears, for they hear." And Christian Science says this to each one of you.

The Bible

By many the Bible is regarded with theoretical rather than practical respect. By others it is viewed with teriality, he remained mentally erect, preferring spiritual reflection to material possession.

The Christian Science textbook elucidates his teachings so that all may understand and demonstrate practical Christianity.

The Christian Science Textbook

At the mention of yet another textbook, some of you may recall, with a shudder of agreement, this statement in Ecclesiastes, "Of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh." The purpose of this book, to be slipping in on you, and dominion to be slipping from you, you can prayerfully realize this truth of your God-bestowed individuality, namely, "I and my Father are one." Rejoice in this oneness and you will reap the fruits of your rejoicing.

Supply

Christian Science has something practical to say on the vital question of financial supply for daily needs. It directs our thought to fundamental spiritual facts on which we may build substantially, and thereby eliminate fear and want from our thought and

Many impoverish themselves materially and financially without realizing that they are doing so. For instance, having written a check and subtracted the sum on your stub, are you not apt to think, "Now I have that much less in the bank; and if nothing comes in, I shall be still poorer next time I have to write a check?" This mental subtraction is depleting. While it is often useful to keep an account of expenditure, it is a mistake to picture your resources dwindling to vanishing point. Job said, "For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me."

So, when you have made a legitimate expenditure, realize that you have gained something in exchange for what you have spent, and that you are not impoverished but enriched by this visible token of supply.

What appear to the physical senses as money, land, a material dwelling, clothing, food, and so forth are but shadows of real substance. When we look consistently to divine Mind, the source of true supply, we shall not lack daily necessities. Infinite Love is present to furnish a table in the wilderness for one and all. The claim of human poverty is a libel on God, good. You will, I believe, find it very helpful to dwell on these lines in the Christian Science Hymnal (No. 250):

"Our gratitude is riches,
Complaint is poverty . . .

"O, life from joy is minted,
An everlasting gold,
True gladness is the treasure
That grateful hearts will hold."

You cannot overdraw on the infinite resources which are yours through your individual reflection of universal Love. Therefore give your mental consent only to that which is true about God and His likeness. Be true to divine Truth, and to your true selfhood. This is the way to liberty, which Mrs. Eddy has made plain in our day.

Mary Baker Eddy and Prophecy

Her life is a record of the power of divine Love. Sibyl Wilbur, in her biography of Mary Baker Eddy, gives a touching example of this in the following incident in Mrs. Eddy's childhood. An escaped lunatic had invaded the schoolyard, brandishing a club and terrifying the children, who ran shrieking into the house. The biography reads: "Mary Baker advanced toward him, and the children, peering through the windows, saw him wield the club above her head. . . . She walked straight up to the man and took his disengaged hand. The club descended harmlessly to his side. At her request he walked with her to the gate and so, docilely, away."

Here we glimpse in the child the courage, the love, the ministering spirit which matured in the woman and which enabled her to reveal to humanity the way of liberation from the insanity of evil. What gave this New England woman the power and authority whereby she became the revelator of Truth in this age, and the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science? What won her the confidence, respect, and love of her early and later followers? What caused them to accept her as the Leader of the Christian Science movement? In large measure it was her understanding of the relation of Christian Science to Scriptural prophecy. Jesus referred to the "leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened." Of the fulfillment of this prophecy Mrs. Eddy writes in Science and Health (p. 118): "Ages pass, but this leaven of Truth is ever at work. It must destroy the entire mass of error, and so be eternally glorified in man's spiritual freedom."

Christ Jesus, giving to humanity as much of divine Truth as could be understood in that day, stated prophetically: "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: . . . and he will show you things to come." This prophecy is fulfilled in Christian Science.

Again we find the relation of this Science to prophecy in the book of Revelation, where reference is made to "another mighty angel . . . and he had in his hand a little book open."

In the Christian Science textbook, the full revelation of divine Science is open for all to read and understand.

Nothing less than the most exalted spiritual vision combined with human self-sacrifice could have enabled Mrs. Eddy to carry through her triple task as Discoverer, Founder, and Leader, over a period of forty-five years. Mrs. Eddy was born and reared in New England at the time when several advanced thinkers, including Bronson Alcott and Emerson, were reaching out for a higher philosophy. Their beautiful writings brought a measure of enrichment. Yet, whereas they groped for the truth of being, Mary Baker Eddy grasped, expounded, and demonstrated it. Imbued with the strength of Spirit, she remained unshaken by the storms of opposition which broke over her with the appearing of the Christian Science textbook, in 1875, and which raged the more when she preached, gave public lectures, and it became known that she was healing the sick by spiritual means alone.

It would be impossible to calculate the number of diseased, distressed, demented, disheartened individuals whom Christian Science has led and is leading, out of iniquity and suffering into what Mrs. Eddy in Science and Health (pp. 226, 227) calls the land of Christian Science, where fetters fall and the rights of man are fully known and acknowledged."

Healing

By most people, righteousness is thought of as mental, and health as physical. If health were physical, it would have no connection with God, Spirit. But in Christian Science, Spirit, God, is recognized as the invariable fount of the health of man.

Healing in Christian Science differs basically from that of medical methods. Nevertheless, Christian Scientists respect and esteem the fine men and women who, with touching unselfishness and practical skill, give their lives to benefit humanity and alleviate suffering.

Healing in Christian Science is based on the truth underlying the words and the works of Christ Jesus, the greatest Healer the world has ever known. Hypnotism and human will-power, being on a level with the mortal error they seek to correct, are never employed in Christian Science. Scientifically speaking, there is but one Mind and one divine will, the will of God, good.

Christian Science heals through the operation of spiritual law, which nullifies so-called man-made laws of sin, disease, and decrepitude. Matter and fear cannot arrest the perfect operation of spiritual law. Matter beliefs are only insubstantial mental shadows due to ignorance of infinite, indestructible substance. Disease is one of the mental shadows thrown on the body, and disease need never be feared, because real substance is the reflection of Life and Love, which nothing can destroy or disturb. Man's real health is spiritual, substantial, invariable.

Christian Science frees the sick from fear through divine Love. Fear is not God-made; it is human superstition. Fear is never entertained about anything real, and it never touches anything real. You need not be afraid of fears you have not yet fully mastered. You will master them as you develop your understanding and reflection of divine Love, which knows no fear.

What and where is health? Mrs. Eddy makes this statement (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 298): "The true consciousness is the true health." In healing the sick, Christian Science deals directly and only with the consciousness of the one in need. The physical body cannot obstruct the healing power of Truth and Love, operating in consciousness. If you wanted to straighten the arched spine of a frightened or indignant cat, would you doctor its spine? If you wanted to change a person's facial redness begotten of anger, or his sudden pallor due to fear, would you do anything to the face? No, for you would recognize these physical phenomena as the result of mental disturbances. Sin and disease have no place in the consciousness of spiritual man. Health and purity, abiding in divine Mind, are not at the mercy of matter.

Divine Love dispels fear. Paul wrote to Timothy, "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." Power! Love! A sound Mind! What and where is health? Mrs. Eddy makes this statement (Miscellaneous Writings, p. 298): "The true consciousness is the true health." In healing the sick, Christian Science deals directly and only with the consciousness of the one in need. The physical body cannot obstruct the healing power of Truth and Love, operating in consciousness. If you wanted to straighten the arched spine of a frightened or indignant cat, would you doctor its spine? If you wanted to change a person's facial redness begotten of anger, or his sudden pallor due to fear, would you do anything to the face? No, for you would recognize these physical phenomena as the result of mental disturbances. Sin and disease have no place in the consciousness of spiritual man. Health and purity, abiding in divine Mind, are not at the mercy of matter.

Here we glimpse in the child the courage, the love, the ministering spirit which matured in the woman and which enabled her to reveal to humanity the way of liberation from the insanity of evil. What gave this New England woman the power and authority whereby she became the revelator of Truth in this age, and the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science? What won her the confidence, respect, and love of her early and later followers? What caused them to accept her as the Leader of the Christian Science movement? In large measure it was her understanding of the relation of Christian Science to Scriptural prophecy. Jesus referred to the "leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened." Of the fulfillment of this prophecy Mrs. Eddy writes in Science and Health (p. 118): "Ages pass, but this leaven of Truth is ever at work. It must destroy the entire mass of error, and so be eternally glorified in man's spiritual freedom."

Christ Jesus, giving to humanity as much of divine Truth as could be understood in that day, stated prophetically: "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: . . . and he will show you things to come." This prophecy is fulfilled in Christian Science.

Again we find the relation of this Science to prophecy in the book of Revelation, where reference is made to "another mighty angel . . . and he had in his hand a little book open."

In the Christian Science textbook, the full revelation of divine Science is open for all to read and understand.

This loosening of thought from material bondage has a healing effect physically. I heard a testimony given in The Mother Church in Boston by a young man who told the congregation he used to stammer so badly that for eighteen years he could not speak plainly, even to his parents. Christian Science healed him. His delivery was fluent and melodious.

"Be opened!" Open wide the door of your consciousness to the joyous freedom of Truth, as you would throw open the windows of your house to spring sunshine.

Church

In order to make the healing and redeeming power of Christian Science widely available, Mrs. Eddy, in 1879, established The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. She states, in her Church Manual (p. 17), that this Church is "designed to commemorate the word and works of our Master, which should reinstate primitive Christianity and its lost element of healing."

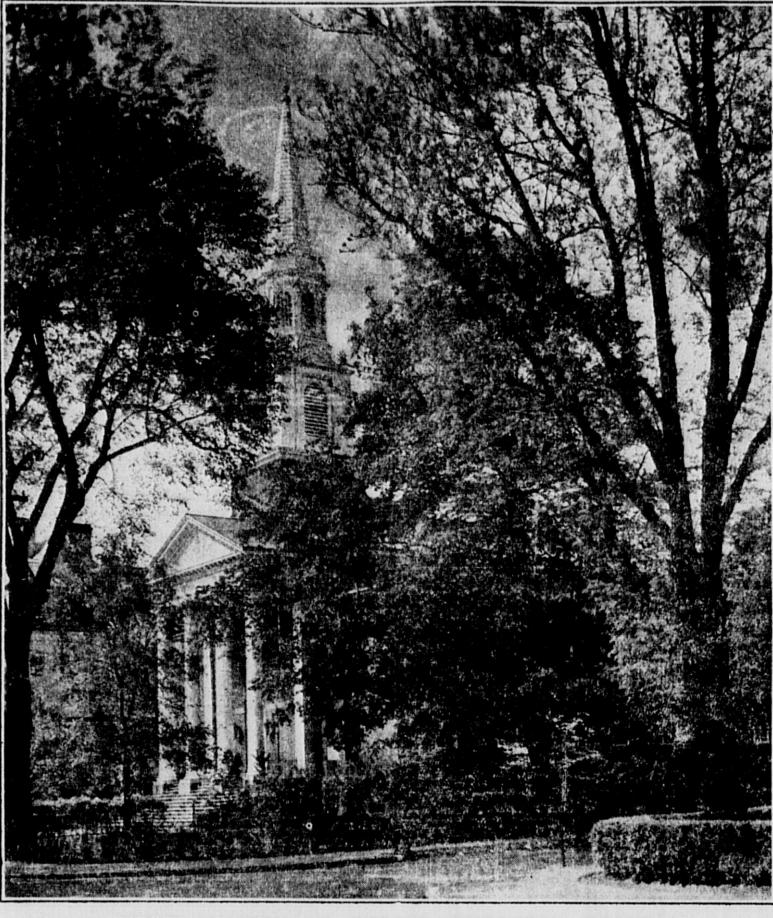

A great change has taken place in religious opinion since the establishment of this Church, which now has branches all over the world. Prejudice against Christian Science, and indifference, are giving way to eager inquiry. Church edifices in this organization represent the gratitude of those whom Christian Science has blessed. They are visible proofs of the efficacy of its teachings. But the real Church, described in Science and Health (p. 583) as "the structure of Truth and Love," is in consciousness and is not visible to the physical senses. This Church is built on the Rock, Christ. It is impregnable as Truth, as everlasting as divine Principle.

The Healing of Ignorance

Having perceived that, scientifically speaking, evil has no creator, no actual cause, you may ask, Then how is it there are so many evil effects? Christian Science replies that this is due to the mortal or carnal mind referred to in the New Testament as "enmity against God." Therefore, one who would develop his understanding of this Science must be prepared to surrender his belief in the reality, power, or attraction of this so-called mortal or carnal mind, for not otherwise can he experience the invariable purity and peace of righteousness.

Ignorance of spiritual facts prevents spiritual growth. But this ignorance, being negative, is not actually causative. Ignorance is not the offspring of anything, and it has no offspring. True cause and effect are materialistic doubt due, in part, to modern rationalism, which subordinates spiritual inspiration to documentary data. This attitude toward the Bible freezes the spirit of Christianity, and discounts both past and present-day evidence of the healing and redeeming power of the Word of God, without any human or material means.

Perhaps Christ Jesus, the founder of Christianity, foresaw this resistance to the Word of God when he declared with irrefutable authority, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Today his immortal statements are being more fully understood, and the healing ministry he inaugurated has been revived in Christian Science. Stamped on the covers of Christian Science literature are his commands: "Heal the sick. Raise the dead. Cleanse the lepers. Cast out demons."

Christ Jesus

Although Jesus walked among men in the valley of human needs, his thoughts rested in the heights of divine Mind. He was neither dismayed nor deceived by the evidence of sin, disease, and death, because his pure consciousness was inseparable from Christ, Truth. Hence he was called Christ Jesus, that is, Jesus the Christ. In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 332) Christ is referred to as "the true idea voicing good, the divine message from God to men speaking to the human consciousness." Through this same Christ, each one of us can receive the specific healing and the spiritual awakening which he needs; and each one of us can learn to speak the word of God by healing the sick as Christ Jesus healed, through spiritual means alone. The faultless logic of Science and Health satisfies the intellect, and its tender spirit reaches those in search of comfort.

Prayer

With the changed concept of God and man, gained through our study of this book, our attitude towards prayer changes. Christian Science presents prayer in a way which appeals both to those who are confused as to the character and efficacy of prayer, and so are disappointed, and also to those hitherto prayerless. Many who are grown up believe that they have outgrown prayer. One cannot outgrow true prayer, but, on the contrary, must grow spiritually in order to understand its scope and prove its efficacy. Christian Science associates prayer with the bestowals and demands of God, divine Principle.

Had there been a shadow of condemnation in the thought of Christ Jesus toward those who came to him with their sins and their fears, their sickness, their helplessness, he could not have restored them as he did, morally and physically. Christ Jesus was able to set them free because he cherished in his own heart the purity and the liberty of the sons of God, and above all, because he reflected the divine Principle.

The attitude of one's thoughts is the altitude of one's prayer. Highest prayer is the realization of spiritual perfection; and this prayer does wonders for humanity.

To some, the prayer of appeal to deity seems humanly comforting, but the premise of this prayer is lack, not completeness; pleading, not praising. Does a student of mathematics pray to the principle of mathematics? No, he sets himself to grasp and prove its rules. Spiritual prayer is aglow with the beauty of holiness, and strong with the strength of divine Principle. The spirit of confidence, peace, gratitude, hallows true prayer. Prayer in Christian Science is the spiritual understanding and inspiration we have made our own. The more exalted our prayer, the eloement, and in spite of the fact that the play is laid in the quaint Victorian period, it is thoroughly modern in psychology and characterization. The costumes of the period and the "elegance of 50 Wimpole Street" will lend charm to the setting for these characters of literary history.

The best five titles, in the opinion of the judges will receive the five cash prizes, the other winners will receive grocery bags.

The cast includes Mrs. Wesley Dynes, Mrs. Willard F. Richards, Mrs. J. Cooke White, Miss Claire Rangnow, Miss Muriel Pearce, Miss Margaret Underhill, Professor R. Clyde Yarbrough, Mr. Wesley Dynes, Mr. Ellis Dierdorf, Mr. Earle Vaughan, Mr. Frank E. Wing, Jr. and Mr. Donald Harrington.

The play will be directed by Verna Dynes and the Production Manager is Ernestine Wentworth. Assisting Mrs. Wentworth are the following: James S. Rowley as Stage Manager, Roland Wentworth as technician, Miss Charlotte Petitmermet on scenery, Michael Farina on lighting, Miss Margaret Underhill on stage settings, Mrs. Louis DiLuzio on costumes, and also Mrs. J. Cooke White, Madeline Libby, Constance Wheeler, Mabel Mason Webber, Mollie Draper, Virginia Hardy, Mrs. Harry P. Forte, Mrs. James Mitchell, David D. Fletcher and Donald L. Gibbs.

Tickets are in charge of Mrs. Frank A. Mason and Mrs. M. M. Webber.

Stamp Club To Observe 100th Anniversary of First Postage Stamp

The Norumbega Stamp Club will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the issuing of the first postage stamp, on Monday, May 13th, at 8 p.m., at their regular meeting place in the Episcopal Church crypt in Newton Highlands.

It thus commemorating the first stamp—known as the "Penny Black" of Great Britain, issued May 6, 1840—the club is following the example of many others throughout the country.

This club has met in the Newtons regularly since November, 1934, on the second and fourth Mondays of the month and has an active membership of around 50.

Village Players of Newton Centre will present "The Barretts," a new play by Marjorie Carleton, of Newton, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, May 16th, 17th and 18th, 1940, at the Unitarian Parish Playhouse in Newton Centre. Miss Carleton is well known for her clever version of "Jane Eyre," which has had many successful performances by little theatre groups this season. Now comes her chronicle play "The Barretts," portraying the romance of two great poets, Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning. Village Players will be the first little theatre group to present it, and as Mrs. Carleton is a resident of Newton, this will give a hometown aspect to the performance.

The play tells the story of a sensitive daughter's escape from a dominating father, her romance and her

Lively Blaze In Gamewell Plant At Upper Falls

The private fire department of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Signal Company at Newton Upper Falls had a chance for a realistic performance last Friday when a fire broke out in the paint shop at the Gamewell plant. The turnout of the shop fire department was too realistic, and two of the volunteers were overcome in fighting the flames. The fire started when a can containing paint-remover was overturned, and fumes from its highly inflammable contents were ignited by a nearby channelling oven. Lacquer in cans in the paint shop burst into flames, which were forced by exhaust fans in the room through a duct from the second floor to the third and fourth floors of the building.

An alarm pulled from Box 614 at 11:37 a. m. brought Engines 2, 3, 6, 7 and 9 and Ladder 2, in addition to the fire engine from Needham Heights. At 11:45 Ladder 3 from Newton was called. The fire was burning fiercely when the firemen arrived, and fumes from the burning paint and lacquer made it difficult to fight the blaze, and necessitated the firemen wearing gas masks. It was two hours before the firemen returned to their quarters. The damage was estimated at about $4000.

Hoffman Favors Purchasing Dept.

A petition sent last year by the Newton Taxpayers' Association to the Board of Aldermen, asking that an ordinance be passed creating a central purchasing department by the city, and on which no action has since been taken, was brought to the attention of the Aldermen on Monday night by Alderman Hoffman. The Ward 6 member stated that he favors the creation of such a department and asked the Board to take some action on it. President Floyd replied that the president of the Taxpayers' Association has recently conferred with the Mayor on this matter, and that the Mayor, as yet, has not seen fit to make any recommendation. Alderman Hughes suggested that the proposed survey of all city departments makes it impractical at the present time to consider a central purchasing department.

Presents Health Prize To Newton

The award again this year of first prize in the 1939 Health Conservation Contest to the City of Newton in Group 4, cities between 50,000 and 100,000 population, which was made at Washington recently, brought added distinction to this city. The plaque given for the winning of the award was presented by Leroy A. Lincoln, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to Wilfred Chapman of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, who represented the City of Newton. The national health contest has been underwritten for 11 years by a group of life insurance companies, and next year will be solely sponsored financially by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, which has for many years taken a leading interest in public health.

Vote Again On New Ward Precincts

A technical error, caused by the omission of the date in the recent changes made by the Board of Aldermen in voting precincts in Wards 1, 5, 6 and 7, necessitated a new order specifying these changes at the meeting last Monday night. The precincts affected are 3 and 4 of Ward 5, and Precinct 2 of Ward 6. Action was postponed on the change which had been planned for Ward 1. In this ward that part of Precinct 2, North of the Boston & Albany railroad, and West of Jewett st., was shifted to Precinct 1, and the Stearns School was designated as the voting place. Some Ward 1 residents affected objected to the change and asserted that a public hearing should have been held on this matter.

Because of this, the three Aldermen from Ward 1, Barwise, Fahy and Lee, requested further consideration of the change in their ward. A meeting will be held next Monday night at 8 o'clock in the hall of the Lincoln-Eliot School on Jackson rd. to discuss this matter. Ward 1 residents, who are interested, are invited to attend this meeting.

tax rate for 1940 had been announced, with a decrease of $1 from last year's rate. He accredited Gov. Saltonstall and the Legislature for contributing to this decrease.

John Madden, chairman of the Board of Health gave an interesting talk in which he detailed many of the activities of the Newton Health Department and their resultant benefits to the city. He praised Health Officer Chope and asserted that Newton's tie-up with the Harvard School of public health has been quite helpful. John W. Murphy, chairman of the Board of Assessors, explained how Newton's tax rate is arrived at, and told of the various warrants and receipts which have to be considered in fixing the tax rate. William Sprout of the Newton Planning Board told of the proposed amendment to Newton's zoning ordinance which is being considered for the purpose of preventing undesirable real estate developments in the city, and the trend toward too small house lots. Recreation Commissioner Wilson spoke on matters pertaining to his department and promised co-operation in needed improvements at the Boyd Park playground. Aldermen Barwise and Fahy briefly addressed the gathering on matters of interest to Ward 1. Edward H. Powers presided.

Community Orchestra Concert

An unusual amount of attention is being focused upon the forthcoming concert of the Lasell Community Orchestra next Tuesday evening, May 14, at the Winslow Auditorium on the Lasell campus at Auburndale. Although all the concerts by this orchestra, Newton's only symphony, have become popular events in the community, the concert next Tuesday promises to be exceptional. George Sawyer Dunham, the director, has arranged a well-rehearsed program. In addition to the orchestra numbers, Elinor Hansen, well-known first violinist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, will be heard in solos with orchestra accompaniment. Elizabeth English, a young lady whose artistry on the piano is familiar to the people of Newton, will play a difficult concerto with the orchestra. The evening will be climax ed by the Orphean Club of Lasell, composed of about 225 Lasell girls. The concert will begin at 8:15 P. M. sharp and is free to the public.

The annual meeting of the Stebbins Alliance will be held in the Parish House of the Unitarian Church on Monday, May 13, at 2:30. Following the regular business meeting the reports of officers and committee chairmen will be heard and Mrs. Arthur Melcher will present the nominations for the election of officers. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the Newton Centre Neighborhood Club will be held on Monday, May 13, at Zeta Alpha Society House, Wellesley College. The members will bring a box supper and dessert will be served. Mrs. David Tibbott is the hostess, assisting her will be Mrs. F. O. Lucas, Mrs. Henry Patch, Miss Lorraine Cottting, Miss Jean Howard and Miss Hannah Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Volpe of 877 Washington st., recently entertained at their home in honor of the 21st birthday of their niece, Miss Ann Pinnuello. A large gathering of relatives and friends were present. Music for the dancing was furnished by a three-piece orchestra. Mr. Francis Martorano of West Newton rendered vocal selections and Mr. Mirro performed feats of magic.

A Massachusetts Institution which has stood the Test of Time

In December 1816 there was founded in Boston an institution which has exerted a profound influence on American life—the first Mutual Savings Bank in America; a bank conceived on an entirely new principle. There were no stockholders. The entire profits belonged to its depositors and were paid in dividends on their savings—a bank operated solely for the benefit of its depositors. Here was an opportunity for the man of humble means to secure safety and earning power for his savings on the same basis as the well-to-do citizen.

Has the idea proved to be sound? Today there are 192 Mutual Savings Banks in Massachusetts founded upon these principles and serving virtually every community in the Commonwealth. Two out of every three Bay States—numbering almost three million people—have more than two billions of dollars on deposit. During the past twenty years these banks have paid out nearly a billion and a half dollars in dividends. State chartered and supervised, the Mutual Savings Banks of Massachusetts have a record for safety unequalled by any other banking system.

Christian Science Lecture

Spirit and spiritual. Every idea of divine Mind is endowed with measureless spiritual understanding. Then if fear, jealousy, poverty, sickness, or any other afflictive mortal belief, seems to be playing havoc in and around you, reject these phantoms of ignorance, and in every situation and condition claim your divine right to spiritual intelligence and dominion.

Dominion is usually thought of as the dominion of good over evil. But since this human concept of dominion implies the presence of both good and evil, this is not the scientific interpretation of dominion. Dominion is referred to in the first chapter of Genesis, where there is no mention of evil. In its spiritual significance, dominion is unchallenged power derived from God.

Perfection, Completeness

Progress in Christian Science brings to light man's perfect, complete individuality. Spiritual man is eternally conscious of perfection, completeness.

The moon appearing as a crescent is not an incomplete moon, but incompletely seen because of its position with regard to the sun and the earth. Material sense seems to tell from us our perfection as Mind's ideas, but our true identity, which includes righteousness and health, is forever complete. No human being can either establish or dis-establish the perfection and oneness of Mind and its ideas. Then do not regard your God-given perfection as a distant goal, to be reached after what is termed death, but as the present and eternal reality of your being. Science and Health states (p. 290) that "perfection is gained only by perfection." "Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined." It is only by looking out from the one perfect God that we can behold the one all-embracing perfection.

Peace

In this era of enlightenment, men are looking for the establishment of peace by peaceful means. Universal peace is humanity's great expectancy, great objective. This objective will be attained through the ceaseless operation of God's law of unity—the divinely established unity of good. The peace of perfect Principle will become apparent in human experience through our purposeful and patient co-operation in the interests of universal concord. Divine Principle is demonstrable, not debatable.

Friction between individuals, groups, nations, is caused by belief in the pernicious influence and contagion of so-called mortal mind. This unreal mind is humanity's one foe, and it is always the foe of peace. But the falsity of mortal mind is exposed in Christian Science, and its fictitious reign is drawing to a close. The stronghold of peace is the one perfect Mind, and this peace is never invaded. "Be ye all of one mind," Peter admonished. Christian Science goes further and states this absolute truth: Ye be all of one Mind.

The Christian Scientist who consistently and joyously obeys the demands of divine Principle as far as apprehends them has peace in his own heart and beholds the appearing of universal peace. Today the power of God, good, is being widely felt. Today there is a rallying to this supreme power. The cohesion of one righteous purpose is appearing. Through this oneness of purpose there will, in due course, appear oneness of method in establishing concord between all the nations of the earth. All alert men and women are called upon to realize that, now and forever, God, good, is omnipresent and omnipotent.

We are individual peacemakers in so far as we are proving in our innermost thoughts, in our characters, our feelings, and in our lives, the uniting, harmonizing peace of the divine Principle. Love, Mrs. Eddy states in "The First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Miscellany" (p. 279), "The Principle of Christian Science demonstrates peace."

This Science takes issue with the thought of future salvation. The keynote of present salvation is this redemptive statement of Christ Jesus: "God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

Christian Science condemns mortal mind, not persons. Its condemnation of all error is a law of liberation to the human race. Mrs. Eddy states in "Unity of Good" (p. 59): "Salvation is as eternal as God."

In Christian Science every day is a day of enlightenment and joy, a day of salvation. "With joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation." Joy, a fruit of the Spirit, is unfailingly found when it is sincerely sought.

In this hour you have gained, through Christian Science, humanity's friend and emancipator, a glimpse of your eternally established righteousness, health, and peace, and this glimpse will expand into the steadfast recognition and demonstration of your true individuality.

In bidding you farewell, I shall close with this statement of great beauty, made by Mrs. Eddy in "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 333), in regard to Christian Science: "The elements of earth beat in vain against the immortal parapets of this Science. Erect and eternal, it will go on with the ages, go down the dim postorns of time unharmed, and on every battle-field rise higher in the estimation of thinkers and in the hearts of Christians."

Various Final Events

Newton Community Junior Club

The Newton Community Junior Club closed the current Club Year with an Annual Meeting and Banquet, held at Howard Johnson's, in Waltham, Monday evening, May 6th. Miss Betty Tobey, president, presided at the meeting. Miss Margaret Bascom, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting and the secretary's report. The following committee chairmen also presented reports: Miss Marjorie W. Aldrich, Program; Miss Ruth W. Aldrich, Publicity; Mrs. Doris Hoyt, Community Service; Miss Jane Black, Sports; and Mrs. Marjorie Bassett presented a report on a philanthropic Dessert-Bridge, which was held at the Hunnewell Club.

Miss Jean P. Johnstone, Nominating committee chairman, presented a ballot from which the following officers were elected for the 1940-1941 season: President, Miss Marjorie W. Aldrich; vice-president, Miss Ellen Guion; recording secretary, Mrs. Doris Hoyt; corresponding secretary, Miss Ruth W. Aldrich; and treasurer, Miss Virginia Brownell.

Mrs. Andrew G. McKnight, Mrs. John L. MacNeil, Mrs. C. Lawrence Barber, and Mrs. Everett L. Pierce, have been selected as advisers from the Newton Community Club, which sponsors the Junior Club.

A Nominating committee composed of Miss Elizabeth Bell, chairman; and Miss Alice Anderson, Miss Eleanor McAleer, Miss Martha Bell, and Miss Frances Guion, were elected for the coming year.

The newly-elected officers held an Executive Board meeting and elected the following committee chairmen: Miss Gertrude Dennison, Social; Mrs. Marjorie Bassett, Program; Miss Jean P. Johnstone, Year Book; Miss Margaret Bascom, Community Service; Miss Ellen Guion, Ways and Means; Miss Barbara Briggs, Publicity; Mrs. Phyllis Dauten, Music and Drama; and Miss Frances Guion, Sports.

The entertainment for the evening, in charge of Miss Florence Furneaux, consisted of two short reels of moving pictures.

Bowling Match

The Bowling Team of the Newtonville Woman's Club played a return match with the women of the Highland Club of West Roxbury Monday, April 29th, and again defeated them, taking two strings of the three bowled, and winning the total pins.

The entire group of bowlers, twenty in number, closed activities for the year with luncheon and cards at the "Blacksmith Shop," on the Worcester Turnpike. Much amusement was created by the distribution of favors and prizes. Mrs. John P. Kobroch, Captain of the team and chairman of the Bowling Group, was high scorer whichever way the scores were added, but finally took the prize for high average; Mrs. Chester S. Merrill won the prize for the three high strings; Mrs. Norman W. Kempf won the prize for the high single string; and Mrs. Walter F. Stevenson won the prize for showing the greatest improvement.

Newton Federation Annual Meeting

The 45th Annual Meeting and election of officers of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs was held on Monday, May 6th, at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House. Seated at the head table were the officers of the Federation, five past presidents of the Federation, and several officers of Associate Associations. These former presidents were Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, Mrs. Ernest Cobb, Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., Mrs. Samuel N. Braman, and Mrs. J. Earle Parker.

Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, president, presided. The blessing was asked by Mrs. Palmer. Mrs. Hay presented a framed picture of Mrs. Bertrand E. Taylor, president of the Federation from 1906 to 1909, to the executive secretary of the Family Service Bureau, for their Memorial Room.

"Ragweed Week" will be observed again in July, and everyone is urged to assist in eliminating this menace from Newton.

Reporting on the combined philanthropies of the clubs in the Newton Federation, Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson announced the total gifts as $5,829.23. Gifts in Newton amounted to $4,943.47. Contributions to the Community Chest were $1,506.00 and in Scholarships, $2,082.80.

Mrs. Robert S. Bowen, chairman of the Family Service Bureau of Newton, Inc., considers very carefully this expenditure, and is most fortunate in having for its membership doctors who are foremost in the state in tuberculosis work. Sixteen children were sent to the Southern Middlesex Camp at Sharon for eight weeks, where Newton, a year or two ago erected its own cottage and enlarged the camp dining room. A worker from the Bureau carefully studied these children at camp and has, as Miss Parsons expresses it, "insured the camp investment by following up, in the homes, the progress made at camp." Some of the money is always allotted to the City Health doctor, and many pamphlets and much printed matter are annually distributed to the schools, libraries, etc. It is with considerable pleasure and with pride in our community that the chairman calls attention to the report of April 30th of the State League: "Newton shows the highest per capita return of all tuberculosis associations in the State."

Mrs. Alexander L. Peckham, chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the ballot for the vote of the Federation. The officers elected were: Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, president; Mrs. Harry P. Forte, first vice-president; Mrs. Newton A. Merritt, second vice-president; Mrs. Ernest A. Hale, third vice-president; Mrs. Alden H. Speare, recording secretary; Mrs. Leslie P. Phinney, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ernest L. Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. Robert B. McLaughlin, auditor; Miss Nellie M. Osborne and Mrs. George E. Rawson, directors, 1940-1943; and Mrs. Alfred H. Handley, Nominating Committee chairman; and members of this committee, Mrs. D. Webster Anders, Mrs. George M. Belcher, Mrs. Frank Hunting, Mrs. Harry R. Marshall, Mrs. James G. Patterson, Mrs. Alexander L. Peckham, Mrs. Howard C. Thomas, and Mrs. Sydney B. Thomas.

The sum taken in at the Sale for the Blind held last week at the Newton Centre Woman's Club House was $1,278.33. There was much greater enthusiasm shown in this event this year, making the president feel that it is not only one of the outstanding projects in Newton, but one that brings the villages of Newton closer together in worthwhile civic interests.

Mrs. W. S. Railshack, Program chairman, introduced Miss Marjorie Shepard who entertained with delightful readings.

Mrs. Hay was presented with a beautiful silver compote dish from her Executive Board, and a beautiful large bouquet of mixed flowers from the Federation. She also received a corsage bouquet of gardenias from her own club, the West Newton Women's Educational Club; an orchid corsage bouquet from Mrs. Raymond Forte; a bouquet from Mrs. Carl Thomas, Mrs. Thomas Nihan, Mrs. Foster Barnes, and Mrs. John Blanchard; talisman roses from Mrs. Leslie Pratt Phinney; and a May basket of flowers from the Social Committee of the Federation.

The new president, Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, upon receiving the gavel, was presented with a gorgeous bouquet from her club, the Newtonville Woman's Club; by Mrs. Frank E. Morris.

State Juniors' Convention

The Pre-Convention Meeting of the Federation Juniors will be held at the New Ocean House in Swampscott, tomorrow Saturday, May 11. Miss Frances A. Letson, chairman of Junior Membership, will preside; with Mrs. Fred L. Pigeon, fourth vice-president, adviser.

Round-Table Discussions will be held from 3 to 5 o'clock. The Banquet will be at 6 o'clock, and a colorful Parade of the Presidents of the Junior Clubs at 7:30.

In the evening the annual reports will be read, the prizes presented in the Drama and Program Contests. The silver cup, prize for the Drama Contest, will be given to the Brockton Junior Club. The Scholarship, which entitles her to attend the General Federation meeting in Milwaukee, will be awarded to Miss Evelyn Tuttle, of Turners Falls.

The speaker for the program will be Max K. Gilstrap, who will tell of his adventures in the National Parks, and present a Symphony of seventy-five bird calls. Mr. Gilstrap, a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, has served four summers as a ranger in the Yosemite National Park, and one summer in Grand Canyon as a ranger-naturalist. He is the author of the "Scout Jamboree Book," and was chosen by the London Daily Mail as the typical American Scout attending the World Scout Jamboree in England in 1929.

Of special interest to Newton is the presentation, among five new Junior Clubs organized during the past year, of the Newton Community Junior Club, Miss Betty Tobey, president, by Mrs. William F. Leach, the Twelfth District director.

About Speakers and Events at the State Convention

A word about the speakers who will address the State Federation of Women's Clubs in its three-day Conference at the New Ocean House in Swampscott, on May 13th, 14th, 15th forty-six years of educational progress for women in Massachusetts and in honor of the Golden Jubilee year of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, 1890-1941. The theme of the Pageant is:

"We walk today enlightened ways. Because of those brave yesterdays. May some tomorrow's past be clear because we traced it without fear."

Two hundred women from all over the state will take part. The author of the pageant is Ethel B. Atwood, who is to be president of the Brockton Women's Club. Mrs. Charles L. Fuller is General chairman, and Mrs. Franklin S. Nichols, Stage director. The Ladies' Literary Association of Randolph will take part in the first episode, under the leadership of Mrs. Frederick Glazier Smith. The Quincy Women's Club will present the prologue honoring Anne Hutchinson, under the direction of Mrs. F. S. Nichols.

The Ladies' Physiological Institute of 1847 also will take an active part in the pageant; and the Worcester Women's Club Chorus of 32 voices will be heard.

Among the officers of the Federation taking part are Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth, Mrs. John Kimball, Mrs. John Whithurst, Mrs. Edward T. Broadhurst, and Mrs. Herbert F. French.

Mrs. Malcolm Green, Mrs. Clifford D. Hubbard, Mrs. Miner H. Evans and Mrs. William J. McDonald are also assisting with the arrangements.

One of the highlights of the "Crystal Perisphere" is the participation of Mrs. Cobb's grand-daughter in the Pioneer Club parade. Mrs. Cobb was the first president of the first wom-

Meeting Postponed

The Tuesday afternoon meeting, May 7, of the Music Group of the Auburndale Woman's Club, was postponed one week, to take place Tuesday, May 14, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Eric J. Kermath, 4 Evergreen ave., with the program as previously announced.

WHO IS HENRIETTA BAGDAD?

A little book of children's stories has just appeared on the market called "Long and Short Tails" by Henrietta Bagdad.

This nom de plume is that of Mrs. Llewellyn A. Marr, a resident of Waban for the past twenty-five years.

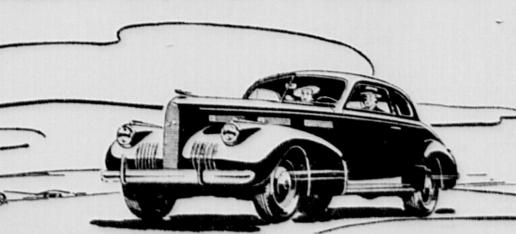

Ever since finishing school, her hobby has been "jotting down script"; sometimes poetry and then again prose, but always with the determination of sometime bringing an offering to the field of print.

During her busy home-life and the rearing of her two daughters, she still found time to study almost incessantly with teachers of literature. Their criticism of her work together with the ever increasing demand for children's material, which is always scarce, led her to publish this enticing collection.

In "Long and Short Tails," are the descriptions and pranks of many animals where she has seemed to catch their several personalities. With one exception they involve the authors' own experience and have a decided value in the unusual. Read them, laugh with the children and with Henrietta Bagdad!

RECENT DEATHS

CHARLES J. BATEMAN

Charles J. Bateman of 22 Whittier rd., Newtonville, died on May 3. He was born in Cambridge 89 years ago and was an architect from 1874 until 1932. He designed many Boston school buildings, and also St. Cecilia's Church, Boston; St. Vincent's Hospital, Worcester, and the Carney Hospital, Boston. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary (Bonner) Bateman; a son, Charles J. Bateman, Jr., of Somerville, and three daughters, Mrs. Mary Driscoll of West Newton, Mrs. Lillian Doherty of Newtonville, and Mrs. Anna Perkins of Gorham, N. H. Mr. Bateman's funeral service was held on Monday at Our Lady's Church and burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

BENJAMIN S. HINCKLEY

Benjamin S. Hinckley of 177 Park st., Newton, died on May 6. He was born in Woburn, 64 years ago and had resided in Newton for 30 years. He had been engaged in the wholesale coal business. Dump Fire At Newton Highlands

Residents of Newton Highlands were inquiring Tuesday night why the City of Newton erected an incinerator in that district several years ago at a cost of over $150,000? The reason for their inquiries was a brush fire in the dump in the Cold Spring area which cast a pall of acrid smoke over a large area until Newton firemen had worked for several hours extinguishing the blaze at the dump off Pico rd. The Newton Highlands residents remembered that when the city erected the costly incinerator at the Street Department yard on Elliot st., the alleged reason for taxing Newton citizens for this structure was—that all combustible materials collected by the Street Department would be burned in the incinerator. By doing this dump nuisances would be ended. Smoke from dump fires would not cause discomfort to Newton residents; papers would not be blown over wide areas, and vermin would not be bred in dumps to migrate into homes in surrounding neighborhoods. Despite the availability of the incinerator, much of the combustible waste collected the past few years by the Street Department has been deposited in dumps, rats and cockroaches have been infesting homes near dumps, fires have been causing smoke nuisances, and large quantities of water have been used by the Fire Department in extinguishing dump fires.

Traffic Officers Dowling and Halloran were sent to take the flag down, but could not do so as the balyards had been cut. Ladder 3, the aerial ladder at Newton, was sent for and Lieut. John Martin climbed up the "big stick" and removed the "flag" which was fastened to the rope with wire and adhesive tape. The flag was made of a pillow slip with a black Swastika sewed on. The police are endeavoring to learn the identity of the "funny fellow" responsible for the Swastika and call attention to a statue which specifies a fine of $500 for anyone raising a foreign flag at a public building.

10 Days in Prison For New. Ctr. Man

Frank L. Allen, Jr., of 40 Olde Field rd., Newton Centre, was sentenced by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court last Saturday to serve 10 days in Belerica prison. He was found guilty of operating an automobile after his license had been revoked. A charge against Allen of having given a false name to an inspector of the Registry of Motor Vehicles office was placed on file. Registry Inspectors Newcomb and Mullen testified that when they stopped a car that Allen was driving and asked him to produce his license, he showed them a license issued to a man named Seavey. Questioned by the inspectors, Allen admitted his identity and stated that Seavey was an employee of his, and had left the license in the car. Jeremiah Leary, chief inspector of the Waltham office of the Registry of Motor Vehicles, told the court that Allen "had tried the same thing twice before."

Evening Guild Entertainment

On the evening of May 3rd the Evening Guild of Trinity Church gave an entertainment in the Parish House in Newton Centre.

Mrs. Allen Hubbard, accompanied by Mrs. Hubbard, Miss Doehler, Miss Palmer and Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Elsie Greenwood, accompanied by Miss Katharine Kimball, sang a group of four songs, and Mrs. Marjorie Brackett gave a reading of the second scene of Percy Mackaye's "Jeanne d'Arc."

During an intermission, Miss Lola

White, Director of Religious Education at Trinity Church, spoke on the Intercurch Vacation School, which is held annually during July on the grounds of the Andover-Newton Theological School, for children of all denominations. A silver offering was taken, and candy was sold under the direction of Miss Marie Ulmer, for the benefit of the Vacation School. Miss Gale Palmer was in charge of the program.

What to do when the bug bites you!

FIGURES show that about one out of every five able-to-purchase new-car buyers really wants a Buick more than any other car.

Not all will buy one.

Too many of them without even getting actual figures will shake their heads and sigh, "Nope! A car that big and handsome must be out of my reach!"

You'll be smarter than that, we know.

When the bug to own a Buick bites you, you'll figure that a car as talked-about as Buick must be looked at first—if you're going to have anything to go on in judging 1940 values.

You'll realize it doesn't cost a cent to find out how one feels under your own hand and what the delivered prices are.

So you'll walk in, please, to the nearest Buick dealer and boldly say:

"Let me have a good look at that car that's showing the rest of 'em what modern style is."

"Let me try out that big straight-eight engine that's electrically balanced after assembly for smoothness to match a wrist watch's works.

"Show me those big soft coil springs you talk about and how they smooth out that rough stretch down the street—and what's the business about recoil-mounted Knee-Action, heaviest frames at the price, five-foot front seat room in SUPER models, and six dozen new 1940 features?"

When you've got the answers through a good long ride—ask one more question: "How much?"

Current prices† start at $895 ★for the business coupe, delivered at Flint, Mich. To this add transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), and optional equipment and accessories—though there will be few such "extras" you'll need.

That totals up to low delivered prices that are often only a few dimes more a day than on cars in the lowest-price class—so why hesitate or haggle?

When the bug bites you, get the facts—and you'll get a Buick and be happy!

†Prices subject to change without notice.

Watertown Selectmen Asked To Discontinue Dump Nuisance At Bemis

Newtonville Residents Attend Protest Meeting in Watertown Adm. Building

A large delegation of Newtonville residents travelled to Watertown on Tuesday night to attend a hearing held before members of the Board of Selectmen of that town in a protest against the town dump off Pleasant street in the Bemis section of Watertown. For years this dump, which has also been used as an outdoor incinerator, has been a nuisance not only to residents of Bemis, West Watertown and part of Nonantum, but also to that section of Newtonville across the river from the dump. Selectman Bernard McCue presided at the hearing.

The large committee composed of Newtonville, Nonantum and Watertown residents petitioning for the abatement of the dump nuisance was headed by William Mattson of Brookdale rd., Newtonville, chairman; Mrs. J. C. Beale, 60 Parkway rd., Newtonville, secretary; John Kaspar, Jr., 532 Pleasant st., Watertown, and Fred C. Alexander of the Newtonville Improvement Association. Mr. Mattson stated that complaints had been made to the Town of Watertown, State Board of Health, Metropolitan District Commission, Mayor Goddard, and the Newton Board of Health. He said that Dr. Jakmaul, State Director of Public Health, had an investigation made of conditions at the dump, and had recommended that the burning of combustibles there be discontinued, and that a boom be placed between the dump and the nearby Charles River to stop pollution of the river by seepage from the dump.

Warned By Newton License Board

Abraham Lazarus, proprietor of the Paramount Delicatessen at the corner of Centre and Jefferson sts., Newton, appeared before the Newton License Board on Wednesday night because of complaints which have been made about this place which also houses a common victualler license and sells beer and wines. It has been alleged that patrons of this place are frequently under the influence of liquor and boisterous. Among those who attended the hearing were policemen on duty at Newton Corner, including Patrolman Manter, Lovley and Riley, and Inspector Lyons. They testified that conditions at Lazarus' combined beer dispensary and delicatessen are better than they have been. Members of the License Board warned him that if more complaints are made, his license will be in jeopardy. Residents on the Newtonville side of the river told of many rats swimming across the stream and invading their properties. The petitioners asked that combustible materials deposited at the dump be taken to different parts

Plans Made For Legion Field Day

Commander Arthur A. Hunt, of the Newton Post, American Legion, announces that the annual field day of the post will be held on July 4, at Norumbega Park, Auburndale.

Included in the program are a baseball game between two Junior American Legion teams, presentation of an automobile and a display of fireworks in the evening.

Special arrangements have been made for admission to the park and to the amusements.

Past Commander John B. Foley is general chairman of the committee on arrangements and the following sub-committees will assist: J. Sherman Irving, baseball; Alvin D. Parker, publicity; Francis P. Frazier, Treasurer; Commander Arthur A. Hunt, chairman of the ticket committee, which includes Francis P. Frazier, George F. Henrikus, Alvin D. Parker, Carlton W. Ray, Elmer E. Ellsworth, Thomas F. Dowd, John J. Foran, Leon H. Mayer, Charles E. McKenzie, Arthur R. McCarthy, Harold A. Bailey, William A. Davidson, Fred Perkins, Charles F. Manning, Paul L. Mullen, Carl P. Peterson, Joseph A. Campbell, Thomas M. Cummings and Raymond W. Taffe. John B. Foley, Arthur A. Hunt and Francis P. Frazier comprise the park committee.

The proceeds will be used for Welfare and Community Service. During the last five years the blood squad of Newton Post has given over two hundred transfusions, free of cost to those in need of this service and unable to pay, entertained three hundred children at a Christmas party, gave Thanksgiving and Xmas baskets to the needy, and organized to cooperate with the city in case of emergency.

The post annually donates to the Community Chest, Red Cross, Salvation Army and other worthwhile causes and has on its program the gift-to Newton Hospital of a Resuscitator and Inhaler at a cost of nearly $500.

Wilbur Gravel Pit Gets Another Stay

The much prolonged litigation over the continued operation of the huge gravel pit at Oak Hill, by George Wilbur of West Roxbury, received another prolongation last Friday when Judge Francis Goode of the Superior Court decided to report the case to the Massachusetts Supreme Court. A couple of weeks previously Judge Goode had adjudged Wilbur in contempt of court because the gravel pit operator had not abided by an order of the Superior Court to remove structures from the gravel pit and discontinue operating the machinery in them. Because Wilbur had expressed a desire to take an appeal from Judge Goode's contempt action, the Superior Court justice decided to give the defendant the added recourse to law. It is probable that the Supreme Court will not act on this matter for several months.

Rev. Wm. E. Park Heads School

Rev. William E. Park, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Edgar Park, was chosen president of the Northfield Schools last Saturday. Rev. Mr. Park was born in West Newton 30 years ago, graduated from Williams College in 1930 and from Union Theological Seminary. He was minister of Congregational churches in Abington and Orient, Long Island, and for the past 4 years had been at the North Presbyterian Church in Buffalo. He is married and has two sons. He is the fourth titular head of Northfield Seminary and Mount Hermon School.

Red Cross Appeals For Funds For War-Torn Europe

Last Friday morning's papers announced the spread of war to an already horrified world, in the German invasion of Holland, Belgium, and Luxembourg. In its train is added distress for thousands of people, with attendant deprivation, poverty, illness, and migration. The Red Cross alone can bring them the assistance and comfort they need in this dark hour. And the Red Cross is already carrying a tremendous expense in other war-torn areas which have looked to them, and not in vain, during the past months.

The National Organization of the American Red Cross, therefore, now appeals to the people of the United States to come to the assistance of these suffering countries, and is asking them to raise a fund of $10,000,000, for this tremendous task of rehabilitating and clothing desolate people. A telegram to this effect was received by the local Newton Chapter of the Red Cross, and in accordance with its request, the Executive Committee of the Newton Chapter met Monday evening, and its chairman, Mr. Charles R. Cabot, herewith issues appeal to the residents of Newton, and of surrounding cities and towns who are interested in the Newton Chapter, for contributions to make up the quota assigned to Newton, which is $12,000.

Comptroller Says Sand Price Too High

Comptroller of Accounts Daniel White has refused to approve the payment of a bill of $1367.44 to the Riverside Sand & Gravel Co. for sand sold to the City of Newton since April 1, 1939. White states that the contract price of $1.17 per cubic yard for sand expired with the termination of the contract between the city and the company on that date, and although the market price dropped to 95 cents a yard, the company continued to bill at $1.17 per yard, except on one bill where the charge was at the 95¢ rate. He states that the company recently bid at 96¢ a yard to supply sand to the city. The matter will be considered by the Board of Aldermen and the City Solicitor.

In making the announcement of his candidacy Mr. Ames issued the following statement:

Ames A Candidate For Legislature

The candidacy of Harold D. Ames of 109 Austin st., Newtonville, for the House of Representatives from the 4th Middlesex District was announced this week by Mr. Ames, a former Commander of Newton Post No. 48, American Legion. He is the son of Mrs. Fred Fisher Ames and the late Mr. Ames of Newtonville and has resided in Newtonville for twenty years. He has been associated with an investment banking firm for twenty-four years. During the World War he served in the U. S. Navy and the Naval Reserve Flying Corps. He is married and has two daughters.

The National Organization of the American Red Cross, therefore, now appeals to the people of the United States to come to the assistance of these suffering countries, and is asking them to raise a fund of $10,000,000, for this tremendous task of rehabilitating and clothing desolate people. mission and Mayor Childs agreed with him, but City Solicitor Bartlett contended otherwise.

Cullen engaged Francis X. Hurley as his attorney and the writs of mandamus were applied for. Hearings were started before Auditor Lincoln last December and occupied 22 days at the court house in East Cambridge.

Twenty of the 21 members of the Board of Aldermen were summoned to testify before the auditor. The exception was Alderman Jamison who was not present at the meeting of the Board when the vote was taken which abolished the office of sergeant-mechanic. The report of Auditor Lincoln says in part:

"I find that the Aldermen who voted for the amendment abolishing the office of sergeant-mechanic acted in good faith, believing . . . that such abolition was for the best interests of the city as a measure of economy, and I also find that the amendment was not enacted for a mere device for getting rid of the petitioner."

The auditor's report will come before the Supreme Court for approval or disapproval.

Attorney Hurley will file a motion for recommitment of the report to the auditor, and will ask that the finding of Mr. Lincoln—that the members of the Board of Aldermen acted in good faith, be reversed. He argued that if the report will be sustained, legal provisions to prevent removal of civil service employees, can be circumvented by legislative action.

Auditor Lincoln in the report states that Cullen was never listed either on the city payroll or on civil service records as a sergeant, but was listed as sergeant-mechanic, and that the annual city budgets contained a separate item for his salary under the designation of sergeant-mechanic. Lincoln stated that the evidence showed that a majority of the Aldermen were influenced by the fact, as reported to them, that the bulk of the work on the police cars was being done by a civilian assistant to Cullen; that one man could do this work, and he need not be a police officer.

WPA Orchestra Gives Concerts In Schools

Two music appreciation concerts will be presented at Newton schools on Friday of this week by the Newton WPA Orchestra, with Murray Hochberg conducting. The first will be at the Newton Trade School, Newtonville, at 8:30 in the morning and the second at Franklin School, Derby st., at 2:15 o'clock in the afternoon.

Former Newton Man Missing In War

Lawrence A. Jump, 26, formerly of this city, was reported as missing on Wednesday after the ambulance he was driving near the Belgian-French frontier had been bombed by the Nazis. He went to France after the war started and has been assigned with an American ambulance unit near the Saar region. Jump attended Newton High School and graduated from Dartmouth in 1936. He had been spending much of his time in Nantucket in recent years.

A few years ago three Yale students trespassed into another Lasell building late one night, following a Harvard-Yale football game. Later, as the trio were motoring from New Haven to West Newton to be tried for this escapade, they were involved in an automobile accident in Connecticut and one of them was killed.

Rev. Wm. E. Park, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. Edgar Park, was chosen president of the Northfield Schools last Saturday. Rev. Report In Cullen Case Unfavorable To Former Sergeant-Mechanic

Auditor Lincoln Decides That Aldermen Acted in Good Faith in Abolishing Office

Former Sergeant-Mechanic Bart Cullen of the Newton Police Department received an unfavorable decision in the report presented on Thursday by Alexander Lincoln to the Massachusetts Supreme Court. Mr. Lincoln was appointed on July 26, 1939, by Judge Lumamus of the Supreme Court to serve as auditor on the Cullen case, and to hear evidence and make a report. Cullen, through his attorney and the writs of mandamus were applied for. Hearings were started before Auditor Lincoln last December and occupied 22 days at the court house in East Cambridge.

Twenty of the 21 members of the Board of Aldermen were summoned to testify before the auditor. The exception was Alderman Jamison who was not present at the meeting of the Board when the vote was taken which abolished the office of sergeant-mechanic. The report of Auditor Lincoln says in part:

JERRY HAS GONE

"Jerry" has gone. He has answered the last call from which there is no return. For thirty-seven years "Jerry" was a familiar figure around the Newton high school, where he served as custodian of the building. In our high school days we often envied, to a degree, the happiness and joviality, yet withal a sense of discipline and tolerance, which Jerry showed in his work. In later years we have sometimes envied Jerry for the opportunity he had to always be around youth. For there has always been something refreshing and inspiring about youth which gives one a hopeful outlook upon life in general. Jerry has gone—but his spirit will remain. The thousands of boys and girls who knew Jerry will have a deeper realization that the thing that counts most in life is not what we do but the way in which we do it.

THE RED CROSS APPEAL

Once again the Red Cross has appealed for aid in bringing relief to unfortunate victims of unsought and inescapable tragedy. Once again it is the tragedy of war in a land where only peace is desired. Newton has been asked for $12,000 as its quota in the collection of funds for War Relief. Newton will oversubscribe this amount in short order, we believe, as it always has met every moral obligation of similar kind. We have watched with others for many months, and with others we are appalled at the growing destruction which is unfolding, coming closer and closer, growing wider and wider with the ever present hope that something will intervene to stop it before it is too late. Meanwhile we turn our attention to the task at hand. People, like we are, who want no part of war, in distress. The Red Cross is ready. Let's go!

College News

By GEORGE W. HUTCHINGS, N.H.S. '39

With the approach of June comes the time to college life for seniors all over the country. Of course the outlook is brightened somewhat by the overdone idea of commencement. This entrance into new fields is accompanied by elaborate and impressive ceremonies. Today, true to our promise, we bring a few advance highlights concerning Newton girls who will participate in the sixty-second commencement exercises at Smith College in June. Joan Marble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Marble of 15 Crystal st., Newton Centre; Katherine Prescott of Auburndale; Evelyn Waddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Waddell of 50 Shaw st., West Newton; and Emily Young of 223 Park st., Newton, have been chosen to usher in the commencement exercises. This constitutes a signal sophomore honor, one which all strive to gain. The committee will aid in the decoration of the gymnasium, serve at the senior class luncheon, act as ushers at the senior play, run errands, guide families about the campus, serenade the alumnae classes, and see that commencement exercises run smoothly. The name of the committee is derived from one of its chief functions, that of pushing back spectators from the main scene at hoop-rolling festivities of the senior class on May 24.

Nancy Flagg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of 54 Oakwood rd., Newtonville, has been honored with appointment to Sophomore Push Committee, members of which serve as pages at the commencement exercises. This constitutes a signal sophomore honor, one which all strive to gain. The committee will aid in the decoration of the gymnasium, serve at the senior class luncheon, act as ushers at the senior play, run errands, guide families about the campus, serenade the alumnae classes, and see that commencement exercises run smoothly. Nancy has been prominent on campus since she came to the Northampton college from Newton High in 1938. She was elected historian of her sophomore class and also won a place on the staff of Tatler, the college magazine, last year. This year Nancy served as a member of the steering committee for the Refugee Fund.

While band leader Artie Shaw has cast a morbid spell over hundreds of collegians with his "Gloomy Sunday," there is much rejoicing at 1110 Walnut st., in Newton Highlands. Mr. and Mrs. William Morse just learned that their son, Alfred, was one of eight students elected to Phi Beta Kappa, according to a special announcement in the Bates College Chapel exercises held last week.

Kay served as treasurer of her freshman class and also had an active part in Float Night her first year. Active in sports, she succeeded in winning a place on the freshman archery team and the sophomore hockey team.

Evelyn, a member of the French Club since freshman year, was elected secretary of that organization this year. Other Smith functions which have found her time are vice-president of her house last year and membership on this year's Point System Committee.

A member of Sophomore Push Committee last year, Emily was once again elected to serve at commencement. She, too, was elected class treasurer, having filled that capacity during her sophomore year. Other

Powers' Paragraphs

The vernal beauty of Spring has burgeoned forth the past couple of weeks. Trees are resplendent in fresh foliage and myriads of blossoms. Flowers of brilliant hues greet the eyes. The lawns and fields are covered with lush, green carpets. Nature is at its best here in these United States of America.

Across the Atlantic it is tulip time in Holland, foliage in the Ardennes has been verdant, poppies are budding in Flanders. Beeches and poplars should be swaying in Belgium and North France. But on many of the lowlands of Holland no tulips will be gathered this year. Water covers tulip fields. Scores of thousands of peace-loving Netherlanders will never harvest tulips again. They are the harvest of bullets and bombs; their mangled corpses lie either in hastily dug graves, or are strewn in abandoned towns and fields. Flanders fields are again shambles, and poppies there will once more bloom amongst unknown dead. Trees in the Ardennes forests and along the road of Belgium and North France are gaunt skeletons. Nature at its best has been made hideous by man at his worst.

As we read of the horrible, mass murder now at its height in Belgium and France, with millions of Germans, French, Belgians and British slaying each other, our memory goes back to cute little boys we were in France over a score of years ago, who politely asked soldiers of the A. E. F. for chocolate and chewing gum. We recall good natured little German boys who did the goose-step on village streets in the Rhineland at the behest of American doughboys, and were rewarded by a few pennies. These French and German boys of 1918 are now (or were) men in their late twenties and early thirties. Many of them have already been killed in the titanic warfare of the past week. More of them will be slaughtered. They never met one another, had no personal enmities against each other, but because of a defective civilization they are engaged in mass killing. The World War was horrible. This war is infinitely more so. Aerial warfare has so advanced that non-combatants, including the aged, young children and the sick in hospitals, are now slaughtered as indiscriminately as are the soldiers at the front. Why?

The man upon whom most of the blame is placed for the increasing horror in Europe, a horror that seems to be about to spread to some degree all over the earth, is Adolf Hitler. It would be difficult to deny that this humble Austrian, whose fantastic rise in less than 20 years from an obscure house painter in Austria to the most powerful, most feared, most hated man in the world, is not the leading character in the tragedy which has engulfed hundreds of millions of persons, and promises to engulf other hundreds of millions. Admitting that Hitler's diabolical fanaticism and tenacity of purpose crystallized Germany into its crusade for rehabilitation and revenge, those who believe that the death of Hitler would cause a collapse of German aggression and philosophy of military might—are stupid. Hitler is neither a God, demigod nor a superman. Eighty million Teutons are not in accord with his principles, but a sufficient number of people of the German race have endorsed and supported his doctrines to enable him and his Nazi followers to accomplish the almost unbelievable rise of Germany in seven years from a conquered nation to the most formidable power on this planet. Events of the past year prove conclusively that Hitler has had the cooperation of the most brilliant minds in Germany. Nor did he originate a determination for world conquest in the Reich. "Deutschland Über Alles" was written before Hitler was born.

Activities which have made her college career a full one are membership in the class choir and the cabinet of the Smith College Association of Christian Work. The recent appointment as head of Health Committee, along with two years service on the Press Board, partially sum up her full and diversified campus life. She will take a vital part in the preparations for Junior Prom as she has already been appointed Ticket Chairman for the dance.

Nancy Flagg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Flagg of 54 Oakwood rd., Newtonville, has been honored with appointment to Sophomore Push Committee, members of which serve as pages at the commencement exercises. Congress is being asked to make provisions to increase the number of reserve officers in the U. S. aviation force about 1000 per cent. If this is done present restrictions on applicants will have to be reduced. Youths, not college students, will have to be given more consideration.

During the World War many young men who never attended a college became aviators in the U. S. Army and gave satisfactory service proving both brave and skilled.

There has been no general movement for 8 hours in this city, carpenters, painters, masons and others in building trades went to work as usual on Thursday morning, with the exception of 21 carpenters who had been temporarily employed in Newton. These reside in Boston and belong to unions on strike for 8-hour days.

Thomas Coughlin, engineer at the pumping station of the water department, will burn the prepared coal for a week and report on the quantity used.

The beautiful, new edifice of St. Bernard's Church was dedicated last Sunday morning with impressive ceremonies by Archbishop Williams. It replaces the church burned on June 23, 1889. The processional was led by Rev. Lawrence O'Toole, pastor of the church. The church is of Gothic design and will comfortably seat 1040 persons. A new organ costing $3000 has been placed in the church, and a bell, weighing 3000 pounds, will be placed in the belfry. The church was built by Bailey & Hargrave of West Newton, and cost with furnishings $100,000.

to transport pupils from the South side to the high school. Councilman Forknall objected and asked why not appropriate $500 a year for Wards 3 and 4 pupils, and also for Wards 1 and 7 pupils? Councilman Collins said that for 27 years the city has kept a pact with Wards 5 and 6 by transporting the pupils from those sections.

Councilman Porter said he did not believe $500 each year should be spent to transport 29 pupils. The motion to suspend the rules for a second reading was lost.

Last Saturday the writer made a hurried trip to New York City to attend a reunion of veterans of the Fourth Division, A. E. F., arriving back in Newton on Sunday. Monday I was informed that a certain citizen of this city was labeling me as a "pro-German" because of views we have expressed in this column. It may be that our command of the English language is not sufficient to make ourself lucid, but frequently in the past several years we have expressed our disapproval of Hitler and Nazism. We have also expressed our contempt for the Welching by Britain, France and other European countries in the payment of the billions they borrowed from the people of the U. S. A. We are not pro-German, pro-British or pro-French. First and last, we are pro-U. S. A. and shall continue to advocate, as does President Roosevelt and over 90 per cent of the citizens of this country, that the U. S. A. not become engrossed in the European war unless this country or its possessions be attacked by any of the aggressor nations.

We have asserted that Britain and France are not real democracies; that they are empires and the former monarchy a monarchy and with a political fabric still composed in part of a privileged aristocracy. We have stated, and reiterated—that because Britain and France adhere to a decree to a representative type of government, that we hope for their victory over the totalitarian countries.

The terrific successes of the Nazi military forces the past week in Holland, Belgium and France have aroused the majority of people in the U. S. A. from self complacency regarding the security of this country. Although insignificant individuals such as the writer have been uttering feeble warnings for years regarding the lack of modern military equipment, and an adequately sized army and compulsory military training in this country, it is only the past week that similar opinions have been uttered by most of the "intelligentsia" who occupy high positions in the political, industrial and financial life of this country. We hope that France and Britain will turn the tide which is turning against them, but conditions look anything but encouraging. If the Nazi might in its stupendous thrust shall in the next few weeks overcome France and Britain, this country will be in a precarious position. A minority here demands that the U. S. A. go to the aid of the allies. With what? We have only sufficient military equipment for a small army. We have only a few hundred thousands of trained men, unless the middle-aged veterans of the World War are counted. If Germany in its blitzkrieg speedily overcomes Britain and France, we repeat what we have said before that it is within the range of possibilities that a combination of the Nazis, Japan, Italy and possibly Russia, could dictate to or even overcome this country. So we approve President Roosevelt's demand that this country arm against aggression as speedily as its resources will permit. It takes years, not months to so prepare.

Possibly the Dies committee which has been attempting to ferret out insidious activities, and has been giving most attention to Communists in the past, may give more attention to Nazis and Fascists in the future.

and is doing honors work in French, his major subject.

This ends another brief survey of what the colleges are doing with regard to Newton, our favorite city.

We should well be proud of the fact that Newton is among the leaders in high schools sending students on to higher institutions of learning.

OAK HILL PARENT TEACHERS ELECT OFFICERS

The final meeting of the Oak Hill Parent Teachers Association was held Tuesday, May fourteenth. The following officers were elected for 1940-1941: President, Mrs. Charles Treffrey; 1st vice president, Mrs. Earle Davis; 2nd vice president, Miss Jane Wyman; rec. secretary, Mrs. Stephen Hodges; corres. secretary, Mrs. Richard Wills; treasurer, Mrs. Abner H. Bailey.

The speaker for the afternoon was Dr. Lura Oak, who is connected with the Division of Child Hygiene of the State Department of Public Health. Her subject was "The Character Development of Children." Dr. Oak filled her very interesting talk with many specific cases, notably the famous Dionne Quintuplets, as they best illustrate how children in the same family, of the same heredity, can turn out to be very different people, in the same environment.

Questions followed the lecture and the meeting was adjourned with refreshments in the music room.

Rotary Club

Edward F. Maloney, vice president of the Atlantic Research Associates, Newtonville, was the guest speaker this week before the Newton Rotary Club. Vice President John J. Cahill introduced the speaker whose discourse dealt with "The Farm Chemurgy Movement."

"Chemurgy" as explained by Mr. Maloney was converting farm products into commercial uses. The speaker pointed out how in bygone years a country through exploitation and invasion would take over the national resources of another country. The difficulty of solving their problems through this method had forced nations to turn to production of new scientific ideas which would make them more self-sufficient. "Chemurgy" was one of the solutions. In this field Germany has in recent years done an outstanding job, but in the United States great strides have also been made and largely through the help of outstanding industrial leaders like Henry Ford, General Motors, DuPont and the Chemical Foundation.

The use of the Soya bean as developed by Henry Ford is perhaps the best known example of "Farm Chemistry."

Particularly did Mr. Maloney discuss in detail the use of Casein, a by-product of milk, recognized as one of the marvels of the chemical age. The problem of putting to use fifty billion pounds of skim milk produced in this country has been partially solved by the development of Casein, a by-product which industrial scientists have put to strange and unusual uses. Buttons, buckles, cigarette holders, knitting needles, and wall paint are only a few of the many articles manufactured from Casein. Experiments are being made for the use of Casein which promises the announcement of developments as startling as rayon, nylon and other chemical developments of the last decade, all of which have demonstrated the truth of the saying "necessity is the mother of invention."

Past President Paul Ellicker of the Boys' Work Committee, presented Hollis Wyman of Auburndale, a senior in Newton High School, who has been selected to join the group of Newton boys who are being sponsored during their college years by the Newton Rotary Club.

Woman's Bible Class Holds Annual Dinner

Giving three reasons why he writes poetry, Dean Earl B. Marlatt of the Boston University School of Theology entertained about ninety members of the Woman's Bible Class of the Newtonville Methodist Church School and their friends at the 16th annual dinner of the class on Friday evening. Gifted with a keen sense of the values in right and wrong thinking, he combined the sublime with the humorous in his remarks.

Dean Marlatt finds great satisfaction in being able to teach his students how to write verse if they are potential poets. He has demonstrated his second reason for writing poetry, that of being able to express in the best way his deepest and highest feelings, in his hymns which are used in the Methodist Hymnal. The acquiring of friendships, his third reward, was beautifully illustrated in the story of a visit to Catherine Breshkovsky, the Little Grandmother of the Russian Revolution, while he was studying in Berlin in 1923. He, with two other students, found Madame Breshkovsky who had spent more than half of her eighty years in exile, cheerful, free from any resentment and feeling that a human soul was the highest gift to humanity. He had with him a letter, written in beautiful English, which he received from her in acknowledgment of lines of his which he had written for her following their meeting.

Prof. W. J. Lowstuter, the class teacher, was master of ceremonies and Mrs. Carl L. Swan, the president, outlined the work of the class, which Newton Village Brownies will have a "Fly Up" ceremony at Cedar Hill, Friday, May 17, at 4:00 P. M. Eleven Brownies from Pack 5 under the leadership of Mrs. Howard Rich, Mrs. Donald Gibbs and Mrs. Richard Blaisdell and from Pack 7 whose leaders are Mrs. W. A. Somerby, Jr., and Mrs. Augustus Smith will enter a new Scout troop and will have for their captain, Mrs. Horace Cole.

Radio Thief Sent To State Prison

Leroy Keyes, 54, of 607 Tremont st., Boston, and various other addresses, was sentenced to serve 3 to 4 years in State Prison by Judge Fosdick in the Middlesex Superior Court last Friday. Keyes made a business of renting a room in a city or town, obtaining a radio from some local store, and then vanishing with the radio. In Newton he obtained a radio from the Newton Music Store at 287 Centre st.

jected to a proposal that Watertown residents burn combustibles instead of the town collecting such waste. The chief said that such a method of disposing of combustibles would increase fire hazards and fires in Watertown. The Chief aroused the ire of a citizen when he facetiously offered to supply gas-masks to the persons who had to close their windows nights because of smoke from the dump. Ex-Selectman G. Fred Robinson of Watertown suggested that the town use the huge dump at East Watertown instead of the Bemis dump. A Newtonian woman called attention to the danger which has been caused by bullets travelling across the river from rifles used by persons who indulge in the sport of shooting rats at the dump.

Erring Autoists Fined In Newton

In the Newton court last Friday a considerable number of automobile drivers were fined by Judge Mayberry for violations of traffic laws. John Desmond of Trapelo rd., Waltham, was fined $10 for speeding, and fines of $5 were imposed on William Boyce, Brookline; Horace Tapply, Waltham; George Fales, Medford; David Sager, Winthrop; Daniel Barnicle, Wellesley; Allen Woodward, 18 Chase st., Newton Centre. Patrolman Joe Smith testified that cars driven by Woodward and Charles Collins of 21 Institution ave., Newton Centre, were proceeding at a rate of 45 miles when he stopped them on Beacon st. Collins testified his car was not going over 32 miles an hour when the policeman stopped him. Woodward, who had pleaded "nolo" when his case was called, testified as a witness for Collins, and said that both had driven out from Boston and he doubted if either car had exceeded the 30 mile speed limit in Newton. Others charged with speeding, but whose cases were placed on file, included—Alexander Marshall, 144 Pine Ridge rd., Waban; Eleanor Dickens, Ashland; Arthur Fiorelli, Waltham; Thomas Powers, Jr., Somerville.

Patrolman Mague was the complainant against a number of autoists who disregarded the pedestrian lights at the traffic signals in West Newton square. As a result the following were fined $5 each—Nicholas Richardson, Prescott st., Newtonville; Louis Bartlett, Roxbury; Benjamin Banks, Roxbury. Others charged with the same offence, but whose cases were filed because they were first offenders, included—Reuel Beach, 23 Prince st., West Newton; Melville Spindel, Central st., Auburndale; John Harmon, 15 Hawthorne ave., Auburndale; Thomas Curry, Hobson st., Brighton. For failing to stop before entering a through way, John Carter of 64 Elliot ave., West Newton, was fined $10, and Harold Taylor of 157 Lowell ave., Newtonville, was fined $5.

Delegates to the 1940 annual meeting of the American Unitarian Association were elected as follows: Mrs. William B. Baker, Mrs. Marshall B. Dalton, Mrs. William Zoller, Mrs. Arthur W. Lane, William Carroll Hill, Robert G. Fisher, and Carl J. Beebe. Alternates, Miss Caroline Lovett and Mrs. Albert P. Carter.

Thomas Saathoff, 18, of 530 Beacon st., Boston, a student at M. I. T. was fined $25 in Newton court on Wednesday for driving to endanger. On April 14 a car driven by him hit a car which had stopped at a signal.

Julian Richardson, 18, of Needham was fined $20 by Judge Nagle in the Newton court on Thursday for not stopping his car before entering Hampton.

William B. Baker acted as moderator of the meeting and the annual church dinner was served during the evening.

Pilgrim Display Truck In Newton Tomorrow

Thousands of people thrilled at the unbelievable demonstrations of modern science in the General Electric House of Magic at the World's Fair last summer. But those who have peered through the plate glass window of the Pilgrim display truck claim that Invisible Marking beats them all when it comes to scientific miracles. And better still, Invisible Marking has practical use that sets a tough example for all those "Miracles" to keep up with.

So with the coming summer, the Pilgrim Laundry's new display truck takes to the highways. Last summer this truck proved to be of great interest to over 70,000 people by actual count, who were both mystified and entertained by this amazing display of Pilgrim's new Invisible Marking System.

These new Invisible Marks, as used by the Pilgrim Laundry, are absolutely undetectable by the naked eye. They gleam, however, in full brilliance when placed under Pilgrim's "Seeing Eye Lamp" as if to cut the customer's very name.

This amazing mobile display unit is scheduled for the Newtons, Saturday evening, May 18th, so for a thrilling preview into a miracle of modern science, keep your eyes open after dark for Pilgrim's Invisible Marking.

Michael Farina, a member of the Quota Club of the Pomroy House, Newton, assisted Mrs. Jamison with properties, stage effects and lighting.

Fall Kills Man At Waban Monday

Sven Anderson, 60, of 217 West Newton st., Boston, was killed on Monday morning when he fell about 20 feet from a ladder at the home of H. Potter Trainer, 74 Windsor rd., Waban. Anderson and Forest Bradley of Wollaston, painters employed by a Boston company, arrived at the Trainer residence Monday morning and prepared to paint the house. Anderson, who had complained of feeling dizzy, was ascending a ladder, which had been placed against the side of the house, when he fell to the ground. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance and was pronounced dead on arrival there. His skull was fractured and his chest crushed.

EUGENIA S. BROWN

Mrs. Eugenia Stafford Brown, widow of George W. Brown, was found dead at her home, 31 Norwood ave., Newton Centre, on Sunday afternoon, May 12. She was to have been the guest at dinner at her daughter's home in honor of Mother's Day and she was apparently in good health when her daughter, Mrs. Herrick O. Tappan of 6 Trowbridge st., Newton Centre, talked with her on the telephone a half hour previous. When Mrs. Brown did not arrive for dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Tappan went to her home and found her lying dead at her desk in the library. Medical Examiner Gallagher stated that death was caused by heart disease.

Mrs. Brown was born in New York City 70 years ago and had resided in this city for 40 years. Her son, Stafford Brown, was a Lieutenant in the Lafayette Escadrille and was killed in action in France. In his memory, Mrs. Brown several years ago donated a fund of $50,000, the income of which is used to provide scholarships for graduates of Newton High School. Besides Mrs. Tappan, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Helen B. Osborn of this city. Mrs. Brown's funeral service was held at her late home on Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York.

HERBERT F. SKELTON

Herbert F. Skelton of 495 Watertown st., Newtonville, died on May 14. He was born in London, England, 56 years ago and had lived in this city for over 30 years. He was associated with the Skelton Hardware Company. He is survived by three brothers, John of Brookline, Daniel of Newton Upper Falls, and William of Newton Centre; and four sisters, Mrs. Alfred Williams of London, Mrs. Charles Flish of Waltham, Mrs. Silas Seelye of Newtonville and Miss Ceil Skelton of Upper Falls. Mr. Skelton's funeral service was held at his late home on Thursday; Rev. Bob Harris, Paul Rich and Leigh Stanton were elected to see what could be done along this line.

CLARA PERRY

She had been in failing health since entering the Institute eleven months ago. Funeral services were held from the home of Miss Eliza Huntington of 50 Harvard st., Newtonville, on Thursday, May 9 at 2 p. m. with Rev. Randolph S. Merrill, pastor of the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville officiating. Cremation was at Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

JOHN DUNGAN

John Dungan of 28 Alden place, West Newton, died on May 14. He was born in County Waterford, Ireland, 68 years ago and had resided in West Newton for 50 years. He was a retired foreman of the Newton Street Department. Mr. Dungan was a member of St. Bernard's Court, M. C. O. F. He is survived by four daughters, Sister Mary Esta of the Sisters of Charity, stationed at New Waterford, Nova Scotia; and the Misses Agnes, Margaret and Lillian Dungan of West Newton. Mr. Dungan's funeral service was held at St. Bernard's Church this morning and burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts of Norumbega Council, comprising Newton and Wellesley, will hold their Annual Spring Camporee and Rodeo at their 200 acre Nobscot Reservation in Sudbury over the week-end, May 25 and 26. Over 300 Scouts, equipped with full camping paraphernalia will establish their camps on the wooded shoulder of Nobscot Mountain. Meals will be cooked out and tents pitched in the best approved Scout manner. A picked group of 30 men of Norumbega Council will act as judges of the Camporee, passing on the ability of the Scouts to maintain themselves under true mountain camping conditions. All during the winter, Norumbega Boy Scouts have been preparing for this crowning event of the Scout season, and the competition between the different troops for winner of this year's Spring Camporee is bound to be keen. On Saturday night, at the famous Council Ring, a group of older Scouts will stage the annual Camp Fire and Rodeo. Weird and wonderful doings are in prospect. Parents of Boy Scouts and friends of scouting are invited to come and see this demonstration of operative scouting, bringing their picnic suppers or dinners as the case may be. The easiest route to Nobscot is Route 9 to Framingham Center, turning right on Edgell rd. and traveling three and one-half miles towards Sudbury to the Reservation.

The record of Mr. Bowker proves concisely that he is the man to represent our people in Congress. Mr. Bowker's record as a legislator—his battles with Curleyism, Coakleyism, the Quabbin Dam, the pardons investigations, plus another score of victories, proves conclusively that Mr. Bowker is a fighter who gives no quarter. His five years on the Board of Selectmen in Brookline, eight years as a member of the House of Representatives has earned a lot of respect for him.

I have known the Bowker Family for two generations, and the citizens of this community agree with me that Mr. Bowker has made our district a fitting place in which to live, and when his powerful personality, and fighting spirit graces our Halls of Congress, our nation will be a better place in which to live.

Mr. Bowker will not merely be a committee member, and will not be a representative of any group or individuals, but the kind of militant spirit which is badly needed today to conserve the ideals we all cherish.

On December 24, 1935, in a letter to Mr. Bowker, Cong. Luce stated "I will perform twenty years work in the next four years." The four years are now up. Cong. Luce is seventy-eight years of age. The opportunity is now given to us to have a representative in Congress who has youth, vim, and vigor, last but not least a Republican candidate, who can win. Let's not take chances. Let us take Bowker.

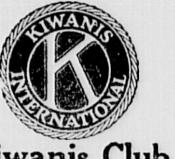

Sincerely yours,
 LINCOLN YALDEN.

Eliot Men's Club Have Get-Together

The Eliot Men's Club of Newton met on Monday evening, May 13th, in the chapel of the Eliot Church for their final get-together of the season. About 50 members enjoyed a chicken pie supper, served under the direction of Nelson Scott and his refreshment committee.

After supper President Tom Cleveand turned the meeting over to Ed Pease, chairman of the entertainment committee, who, after a round of community singing, pulled out his pocket knife a little fellow by the name of Fletcher Wood Taft. What he lacked in size, Mr. Taft more than made up in energy, humor and punch. Needless to say, the group enjoyed immensely his talk on "Personality for Leadership."

The group hated to accept this as their last meeting of the season, and a motion was carried to see what plans could be made for an outing to take place some time in June. Bob Harris, Paul Rich and Leigh Stanton were elected to see what could be done along this line.

Kiwani Club

At the Tuesday meeting of the Kiwanis Club held at the Charles River Country Club, Mr. James P. Gallagher, Clerk of the Newton Court and International Trustee of the Kiwanis Organization, announced that a new Kiwanis Club had just been organized in Pittsfield, Maine, and that he was also arranging to charter a new Club at Plymouth, Mass. Members of the local Club have been extended an invitation to participate in the chartering ceremonies for both of the new Clubs.

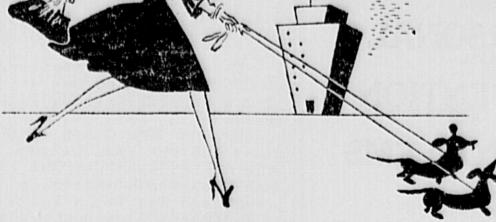

President John A. Janse announced that Kiwanis International had requested each Club to secure, if possible, five new members during the next six months as part of a national building campaign. Several new members have been received into the local Club within the past two months, and it is expected that more will be received at the meeting next Tuesday.

The Speaker of the Day was Edward J. Pease, New England Industrial and Wholesale Manager for the Sun Oil Company. His topic was "The Study of the Petroleum Industry."

Mr. Pease described the rapid growth of the Petroleum industry from a small beginning in 1900 to a business with over fourteen billion dollars invested at the present time. He described how the development and service rendered by the petroleum industry had contributed to the high standard of living in this country.

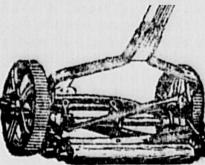

He said that perhaps the petroleum industry could be considered as a living monument to the American system of free competitive enterprise which permits maximum efficiency and maximum service. There are approximately thirty million automobiles in America today. Domestic crude consumption in 1940 was more than forty-eight billion gallons. Proven reserves of crude oil in this country are now in excess of twenty billion barrels, or ample at the present rate of consumption for more than one hundred and fifty years.

Mr. Pease brought out the danger of lowering the standard of living in America by too definite control or regulation. He showed how in other countries excessive regulation had destroyed enterprise, stopped the progress of any industry, destroyed its efficiency and very definitely lowered the standard of living of the entire nations. Mr. Pease asked the members to use their influence to protect this great American heritage of free enterprise which has made America the greatest country in the world.

Women's Club Activities

To Be Seen And Heard at Milwaukee

Women's club leaders, numbering about 5,000, from every state in the Union, among them many from Massachusetts, will attend the General Federation Council Meeting, to be held from May 19th to May 25th, in Milwaukee, the city often alluded to as Wisconsin's Bay of Naples. The Wisconsin State Federation is planning every phase of hospitality and enjoyment for their guests. One of these clubwomen says of Wisconsin: "It is a state of abundance, with glorious trees, a thousand shining lakes, white sandy beaches, rivers and spray-tossed waterfalls, all landscaped by a glacial period thirty thousand years ago. The story of the ages is written on the rocks and cliffs in southwestern Wisconsin, the state which in the thinking of noted geologists is 'the cradle of the continent.' This abundance of beauty and interest will be displayed to the fortunate clubwomen who can take this trip. Milwaukee itself is situated on the shoreland of the blue Lake Michigan, and offers clubwomen everything—charming gardens, beautiful homes and churches, art museums, civic centres, excellent hotels, smart shops, and Municipal Auditorium within a short walking distance of the Schroeder Hotel, the Convention Headquarters.

Sunday morning, May 19th, club hostesses will be ready in all the leading hotels to direct delegates to the church of their choice. Sunday afternoon, the State Garden Clubs will be hosts at the annual Garden Show which is being extended an extra day for the benefit of Council visitors. Following this courtesy, the clubwomen of the Milwaukee County Federation will honor Mrs. Sallie Orr Dunbar, president of the General Federation, all officers and delegates, at a Tea in the attractive colonial Club House of the Wauwatosa Women's Club.

Wisconsin Night will be observed the first night, Monday, the 20th. It begins with a complimentary dinner to Mrs. Dunbar, her officers and Board members, in the Crystal Ball Room of the Schroeder Hotel. The formal official opening of the Convention of the Council, which will be staged in the Municipal Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock, against a background of Wisconsin woodland, will consist of Addresses of Welcome, given by Hon. Julius P. Heil, Governor of Wisconsin; Hon. Carl F. Zeidler, Milwaukee's new 32-year-old "singing" Mayor; and by representative clubwomen.

This being the year for the election of a President and Vice-President of the United States, a program highlight will be the Forum scheduled for Tuesday evening, the 21st, when National Issues will be discussed by Hon. T. V. Smith, member of Congress from Illinois, speaking for the Democratic Party; and by Dr. Glenn Frank, of the National Republican Committee, speaking for that Party. Discussion from the floor will follow, which should make a decidedly snappy meeting, and these men will do well to come prepared for questions which will take their breaths as well as theirs.

On this same evening, too, there will be the Radio Hour, at 8 p.m. Central time, to which clubwomen nation-wide should listen. Mrs. Dunbar will give an address, and there will be a dramatization entitled "Jane Addams of Hull House," starring the brilliant actress, Helen Hayes.

Speakers upon every vital subject, such as conditions in Europe, the British Viewpoint, "Comparative Citizenship—Germany and the United States," Pan-American affairs, Citizenship, Our America, American Culture, Public Welfare, Health, Education, The Arts, will present much to think upon, throughout the Convention.

Much interest always attaches to State Directors' Night, which is scheduled for Wednesday, the 22nd. On this occasion the directors, wearing their loveliest frocks and carrying arm bouquets, pass down the aisles in an imposing procession and take their places upon the stage.

One entire evening session is given to the department for Junior Clubwomen, always a colorful event, and this year promises to be no exception.

Among committee reports, and there will be many, all pointing out achievements and progress, there will be seven Resolutions offered for consideration. One will be endorsement of the principles of a Federal non-support bill, as against existing individual state laws. One will be calculated to relieve the suffering of migratory workers; one on how best to assist children in a democracy; one will urge the retention of the United States Forest Service in the Department of Agriculture; one will suggest a continuation of the study of the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution; and one will urge National Patriotic Revival and Observance of Flag Week.

The report of the Golden Jubilee celebration of the General Federation will be a highlight of the Friday morning session, May 24th. Prizes will be awarded. Candidates for office in the General Federation election to take place at the Triennial Convention in Atlantic City in May, 1941, will be presented, which will be, too, the climax year of the Golden Jubilee.

Saturday, May 25th, has been designated as Wisconsin Recreation Day, and it will be the culmination of all social affairs in a feature which will probably be remembered forever by all participants. A veritable cavalcade of motor buses will transport the visitors along the shore of Lake Michigan, past Milwaukee's beautiful homes and spacious parks, stopping en route at Plymouth, the famous cheese market; then on to Kohler Village, the most unusual industrial garden community in the country, where luncheon will be served, after which there will be a visit to Waerdenhaus, headquarters of the Girl Scouts, a gift of Marie Kohler, and to the 1940 Better Homes demonstration sponsored by the Woman's Club, with its model homes and unique gardens; a visit to the Kohler Home, and finally, there will be a Tea at the home of the former Governor, Walter Kohler, where he will be host, and Mrs. Kohler and Miss Marie Kohler hostesses.

There will be a Picnic Supper at the home of Percy L. Merry, with other men members of the Club as his committee.

Auburndale Garden Club

The next meeting of the Auburndale Garden Club will be held Monday, May 20. The club has planned a trip to Sharon, the Bird Sanctuary. The members will take a box lunch.

Recent Weddings

Claflin Club Holds Father And Sons' Night

Fathers' and Sons' Night was observed on Tuesday evening by the Clafin Men's Club of the Newtonville Methodist Church. Following the dinner which was served by a group of older boys of the church Richard Fressell of Wellesley amused the audience with cartoon drawings. Bill Cunningham, well-known sports columnist, was the guest speaker of the evening. He was introduced by John A. Dunn. Mr. Cunningham told many interesting and amusing experiences in his years of newspaper work with various sports. He stressed the value of athletics and sports in the life of American youth in preparation for the battle of life before them.

President Howard W. Selby presided and group singing was led by Vice-president Frank M. Simmons and Carl L. Davis at the piano.

Officers were elected for the coming year with Frank M. Simmons as president, John A. Dunn as vice-president, Alan MacQuarrie as secretary and Howell E. DuPuy, Jr., as treasurer.

Spring Chess Tourney Of Newton Chestnuts

The spring chess tournament of the Newton Chestnuts was won by William Cushing Loring, 9½ to 4½, defeating former champion, Carl Stone Crummett, who won the fall tournament. The group is composed of business and professional men in Newton. The results of the spring tournament follow:

	Won	Lost
William Cushing Loring	9½	4½
Leslie H. Allen	8½	5½
Dr. Cameron A. Rae	8	6
Dr. Brewer Eddy	Tie	6½
Judge Thomas Weston Tie	7½	6½
W. E. Stanwood	7	7
Russell A. Fitts	5½	8½
Carl Stone Crummett	2½	11½

NEWTON SPORTS

RINDGE STARS TOP NEWTON IN QUAD MEET

A strong Rindge Tech track team with three outstanding negro stars proved Newton's nemesis on Wednesday when Coach Don Enoch's crew lost its first quadrangular meet since these meets were inaugurated at the outdoor track at Dickinson stadium several years ago. Rindge totalled 37 points, Newton 24, Brockton 18½ and Boston English 17½.

Of the nine events the indoor State Champions annexed five first places with three being captured by Aaron Smith, who shared feature honors of the day with Harry Robart, record breaking shotputter. Robart won the weight event with a toss of 56' 9 3-4" bettering all efforts of any New England schoolboy. Jerome Lewis, the third Rindge negro star, won the high jump and placed fourth in the hurdles. Newton won two first places with Bob Ross taking the 880 with a margin of 10 yards and Paul Hines winning the hurdles in a photo finish with Rhone of Boston English. The Newton lad nipped the Hub runner in the sprint to the finish line after the final barrier. Other first place winners were Al Pochosky of Brockton in the 440 and the Boston English quartet in the relay. Tony Hines, Newton anchor, staged a gallant bid to nip Moir of English coming off the last turn but the in-town runner swung wide to hold off Hines.

Fred Hall was Coach Enoch's entry in the 100 and the Newton captain fought gamely to finish third. He duplicated this effort in the 220 for two additional points. Joe Beatty came through the 440 in third place, closing fast to almost nip Moir for second. Woods of Newton led to the turn where first Moir and then Pochosky took over the lead. Ross' half mile effort was unchallenged all the way with Langill of Brockton a safe second and the real battle being for third between Johnson of Rindge and Delaney of English.

The relay was a ding-dong affair between English and Newton with the final stretch being a shoulder to shoulder duel between Moir and Hines. The first three Newton runners were Hall, Gil Doble and Bob Cotton.

Bill Boyer of Newton finished fourth in the shot while the Newton entries were shut out in the broad jump. Elliot Moyer tied with Tamulevicius for second in the high jump while Chet Thomas added another half digit to the orange and black total in a tie for fourth with Kincaide of English.

Newton will meet Brookline High in a dual meet on Tuesday at the Newton oval and then will be an underdog in the State meet here Saturday.

Newton Post A. L.
Junior Baseball

Fifty candidates for the Newton Post No. 48, American Legion Junior Baseball team reported to Manager J. Sherman Irving and Coach Wendell Thornton last Monday evening. A larger group is expected to report for practice at the Weeks Junior High School playground on Friday evening of this week at 6 p.m. Practice sessions will be held twice a week till June first when the fifteen most promising players will be picked to represent the Post during the coming season.

THE NEWTON ARCHERS

In spite of the wind some of the Newton Archers shoot good scores. For the women, Dorothy Matthews, placed first with her handicap score as well as her American score of 82-478. Doris Kimber placed second with her handicap and American scores. Thelma Phillips placed third in the American round with 80-390. Burton Howarth held first place with handicap 88-568-233-851 while Robert Goldich placed second with 90-580-213-793. For the American score the order was reversed with Robert Goldich first 90-580 and Burton Howarth placed second with 88-568. Adrian Matthews placed third with handicap 88-558-205-763 and Robert Boal third in the American Round with 89-567.

The Juniors did their parts well with Sally Spofford first with handicap 75-349-428-777. In the American Round Joseph Kimber placed first with 74-384. Marjorie Kimber was second with 74-369 and Sally Spofford third with 75-349.

In anticipation of the Eastern and the National the women are going to shoot the rounds that are popular for those championships. Next Saturday the women will shoot a National Round which is 48 arrows at 60 yards and 24 arrows at 50 yards.

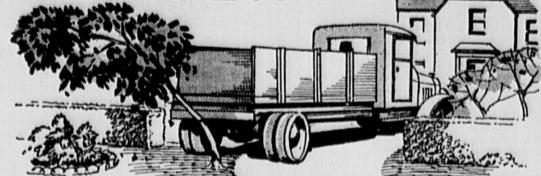

Y. M. C. A.

The Newton Y. M. C. A. tennis team defeated Brae Burn 3-0 at the Brae Burn Country Club Wednesday in its first match of the season in defending its Suburban Doubles League Championship title. Manager Art Jacobs of the "Y" team paired Paul Rich and Al Rogan to defeat A. Rowbotham and R. Rowbotham 7-5, 6-1, Harold Hunter and Bob Place, "Y," defeated A. Lane and Dr. E. Sawyer 6-1, 6-1, and Gordon Kitchin and Les Lowry, "Y," defeated H. Marshall, Jr., and E. Gray 6-1, 6-1.

Newton Y. M. C. A. won its initial outdoor track meet of the season by defeating the Lynn "Y" team 41 to 30 at the local "Y" field Saturday afternoon. Coach Pierce's men took five first places in the eight events in which competition was held. Newton's point winners were:

100 Yard Dash—2, Johnny Morris; 3, Bob Stewart.
220 Yard Dash—Won by Johnny Morris.
440 Yard Run—Won by Bob Hunt.
880 Yard Run—2, Bob Hunt; 3, Herb Cornell.
One Mile Run—Won by Herb Cornell, 2, R. Acherson.

JUST suppose that down the street a dealer had an automobile so close to your heart's desire that it might have been made to your own specifications.

Suppose it had the room you've been wanting—the big, strapping size you'd like—the imposing style and good looks and soul-satisfying luxury of appointment.

Suppose it had all the life and zip and action you could ask for and a big, durable, thrifty power plant that could match even fine watchwords for smoothness.

Suppose you knew that car set the standard for real modernity and value—but just assumed that it must be out of your reach because it was so obviously good!

Wouldn't it be tragic if you passed up that honey—just because you didn't inquire what the prices actually were?

Here and there that's happening, we fear. Happening because people who want Buicks aren't getting the actual facts.

Maybe you didn't know that there are five 1940 Buicks at five different price ranges.

That every one of these has a big, husky, straight-eight engine electrically balanced after assembly by Buick's own exclusive process.

That soft, stout coil springs are found on every one—that every one has recoil-mounted Knee-Action, finger-flick transmission, bona fide Buick styling—features literally counted by the dozen.

Maybe you didn't know, above all, that for Buick SPECIAL models, current prices begin as low as $895★ for the business coupe, delivered at Flint. That even when you add transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), and optional equipment and accessories, delivered prices are the lowest ever on such value.

But all that's true. You can prove it any day by asking for a demonstration that costs nothing, and involves no obligation.

So why take a chance of missing something gorgeously great that could be yours for the trying? Do something, and do it now—go see your Buick dealer!

Aldermen Appropriate $5000 For Part Payment Of Survey of City Depts.

School Department Not To Be Included In Survey; Alderman Hoffman Protests

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night it was voted to appropriate $5000 for a study and survey of all city departments except the School Department. Mayor Goddard reduced his original recommendation for an appropriation of $10,000 to have a survey of all departments made. Alderman McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee, explained that because the School Committee had decided to make its own survey of the school department, and had engaged an expert on educational matters to make a study, the Mayor had agreed with the School Committee to leave the School Department out of the survey to be made by the experts in municipal administration who will study the operation of the other city departments. He explained that the $5000 would be appropriated with the understanding that an additional appropriation may be made if further funds are needed, should the survey proceed to a degree that will require more funds. He stated that a conference had been held between the Mayor, the School Committee and the Finance Committee of the Aldermen, and it was agreed that pending the completion of the separate survey of the School Department, this city activity will not be included in the general survey. If, however, the separate school department survey is not satisfactory, the Mayor will ask that this department be included in the general survey.

Alderman McKay stated that the first study to be made is that of salaries paid to clerks at City Hall. This matter has been a vexatious problem for many years. It has been claimed that equitable salaries have not and are not being paid, that clerks doing similar work receive widely varying salaries, and that in some cases in the past influence of one kind or another has been a factor in obtaining salary increases for some of the employees in various departments. McKay also explained that if the survey does not prove satisfactory, it can be stopped at anytime. He said that a similar survey has been in progress at Brookline and will be completed in a few weeks. The result of the Brookline survey will be a guide as to whether or not such a survey in Newton will be worth while.

Alderman Hoffman of Ward 6 questioned the legality of appropriating $5000 for a survey of departments other than the School Department, when the Mayor's original recommendation had specified "all departments." City Solicitor Bartlett ruled that the order was properly before the Board. Hoffman asked for a short recess so that he might confer with the Mayor on the matter. In a few minutes word was received from Mayor Goddard that the order should read—"all city departments." When Hoffman did not return within the next several minutes, President Floyd put the motion (Continued on Page 5)

Hold Conference On Protest Against Lutz Election

A conference was held by the Board of Registrars of Voters of Newton at City Hall on Wednesday night on the protest made by Thomas E. Morahan of Hibbard rd., Newton, against the validity of the election of Roger A. Lutz as the man member to the Republican State Committee from the new Middlesex-Suffolk senatorial district. Morahan was one of the candidates at the presidential primary election on March 29 for this office.

On the ballot Lutz's address was given as 87 Ripley st., Newton Centre. Morahan charges that Lutz had not been a resident of this city for some years, that Lutz's name was not listed in the 1940 Newton directory, and that Lutz has been a resident of Cambridge for the past few years. He produced evidence to show that Lutz's 1939 and 1940 automobile registrations were issued to Lutz with the applicant giving his address as 40 Broadway, Cambridge; that Lutz gave the Cambridge address in obtaining his 1939 license to operate an automobile, and that the telephone directory lists Lutz as residing at 401 Broadway, Cambridge. Morahan told the Registrars of Voters that he had gone to the residence of Charles Frey at 87 Ripley st., Newton Centre the day before the election, and was told that Lutz had moved from that address.

Lutz first registered as a voter in Newton in 1930. His name was dropped from the voting list early in 1939 and he registered in September, 1939. He told the registrars that he had maintained his legal voting domicile at the Ripley st. address. (Continued on page 10)

Philip W. Carter For Legislature

The candidacy of Philip W. Carter of 16 Balcarres rd., West Newton, for the House of Representatives from the Fourth Middlesex District was announced this week by Mr. Carter, political journalist and author of the column, "Politics with Color," which appeared in these columns a few years ago and which has since been widely read in other Newton and Brookline papers. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkins Carter of West Newton, where he has resided for fifty-two years. Prior to the World War, when he served with the Twelfth Division, he spent three years in ink manufacturing and four years in social service work. Later on he was employment and service manager for a Lockwood-Green mill—Roxbury Carpet Co. of Framingham and then associated himself with the Open Road Publishing Co., publishers of the Open Road for Boys magazine, where he became treasurer and is still acting as a director, in addition to being a director of Outdoor Publications, Inc., publishers of Outdoors magazine.

Mr. Carter has long been active in a wide variety of community activities. For twenty-five years he has been a director of the Family Service Bureau, formerly the Newton Welfare Bureau and is now chairman of their Public Relations Committee, an integral part of the Newton Community Chest. Some years ago he organized the Sea Scouts in Newton and was a member of the Executive Board of the Norumbega Council for several years. As a charter member of Newton Post No. 48, American Legion, he has frequently served on its Executive Committee. An active member of the Players, oldest dramatic club in the state, he has appeared before the footlights for nearly thirty years. He has been a member of the Republican City Committee for a decade and has

Rev. Wm. Gunter Superintendent of Boston District

Rev. William Gunter, for the past four years pastor of the Newton Methodist Church was appointed superintendent of the Boston district at the 144th New England conference of the Methodist Church at Westfield on May 19. He succeeds Rev. Charles S. Otto who has been superintendent for the past 9 years, the longest term ever served in that post. Rev. Mr. Otto was appointed pastor of the Robinson Methodist Church at Malden. He was pastor of the Newton Methodist Church from 1929 to 1931. Rev. Mr. Gunter was pastor of the Waltham Methodist Church before coming to Newton. He will be succeeded in Newton by Rev. Charles T. Allen, who is transferred from Malden.

Rev. Mr. Allen was born in Detroit. Both his father and paternal grandfather were Methodist ministers. He graduated from Wesleyan University in 1921 and from Boston University of Theology in 1924. He served as pastor at churches in Norwood, and Arlington and for the past 5 years was pastor of the Robinson-Memorial Church at Malden. His wife is a native of Boston. The couple have two children.

Pomroy House, New Newton Social Settlement, Opened to Public

Mayor Paul M. Goddard congratulates Mrs. Paul E. Elcker, president of Pomroy House. Middle, looking on, Frederick S. Bacon, Treasurer.

Pomroy House Open For Community Work In Newton

Pomroy House at 24 Hovey st., Newton, was opened yesterday as a new centre for an extensive program of community service in one of the oldest parts of Newton. To celebrate the event the officers of the organization held open house which was attended by Mayor Paul M. Goddard and many prominent Newton citizens. The officers of Pomroy House are president, Mrs. Paul E. Elcker; vice-president, James B. Melcher; treasurer, Frederick S. Bacon and secretary, Mrs. Warner P. Eustis. Mrs. Steven B. Wilson has been chairman of the committee in charge of remodeling Pomroy House for its new work.

Pomroy House is the result of the merger of the Rebecca Pomroy Home for orphan boys and girls and the Stearns School Centre. The Rebecca Pomroy Home was established 54 years ago for the care of orphan children. In recent years changes in social-work methods have lessened the need for this type of social service. After a careful study of the problem by the directors of the Home and the directors of the Stearns School Centre and by a special committee of the Newton Community Council, it was decided to merge the work of the two agencies. The Stearns School Centre has carried on a program of social work for the past 34 years.

The Pomroy House will provide clubs, classes and recreation for both young people and adults. Provision has been made in the remodeled house for recreation rooms and for classes in handwork, sewing, woodworking and metalcraft. A nursery school is also maintained in the House. Pomroy House is a member agency of the Newton Community Chest. Miss Helen L. Sandstrom, for many years headworker at the Stearns School Centre, is in charge of the work at the Pomroy House.

Select Newton Teachers To Study At Workshops

Names of fourteen teachers in Newton public schools who were selected to study at various university workshops the coming summer, have been announced by Supt. of Schools Warren. They were selected from over seventy applicants. Their expenses in connection with the courses they will take are defrayed by the Rockefeller Foundation through the direction of the National Teacher Education Commission.

Turner Appointed To Police Force

Francis W. Turner of Colonial ave., Newtonville, was appointed a member of the Newton police department by Chief Hughes on Wednesday. He was first on the reserve force of the department. Turner, a lifelong resident of Newton, has been a member of the Newton fire department for 3½ years. He had been stationed at Engine 8, Nonantum. He is a son of Frank Turner, for many years driver of Hose 8, and now a pensioned member of the fire department.

Chief Hughes also appointed John J. Saleme of 95 Freeman st., Auburndale as a member of the reserve force. Saleme, a lifelong resident of this city, was first on the list until recently, but then became second on the list when Guy DelGazo of 321 Waltham st., West Newton was transferred to the Newton list of eligibles after having been on the reserve list of the Metropolitan police force. DelGazo moved into this city last September. The vacancy filled by Turner was caused by the recent retirement of Captain Richard Goode.

Memorial Service Next Sunday at Methodist Church in Auburndale

To Residents and Students of Newton:

Once again we appeal to you for donations of flowers for the purpose of decorating the graves of departed comrades on Memorial Day, and request that the flowers be left at the nearest school or fire station on Wednesday afternoon, May 29th. We wish to thank you for your kind co-operation and generosity in connection with this work last year.

We also wish to remind you that no person or group is authorized to solicit funds for this purpose, as all flowers used in the decoration of graves are the voluntary donations and co-operation of our friends in Newton.

Two Old Schools To Be Demolished

On recommendation of Mayor Goddard the Board of Aldermen on Monday night voted to authorize the razing of the Eliot School on Pearl st., Nonantum, and the Lincoln School at the corner of Pearl and Thornton sts., Newton. Both are wooden structures and were abandoned for school purposes last year when the new Lincoln-Eliot School at Pearl st. and Jackson rd. was completed. The Lincoln School, a two-room building, was erected in 1854. The Eliot School, a four-room building, was built in 1885.

It had been suggested that the Eliot School be used for community purposes, but the acquirement of the former Pomroy Home on Hovey st., Newton, has been a member of the Newton fire department for 3½ years. He had been stationed at Engine 8, Nonantum. He is a son of Frank Turner, for many years driver of Hose 8, and now a pensioned member of the fire department.

Chief Hughes also appointed John J. Saleme of 95 Freeman st., Auburndale as a member of the reserve force. Saleme, a lifelong resident of this city, was first on the list until recently, but then became second on the list when Guy DelGazo of 321 Waltham st., West Newton was transferred to the Newton list of eligibles after having been on the reserve list of the Metropolitan police force. DelGazo moved into this city last September. The vacancy filled by Turner was caused by the recent retirement of Captain Richard Goode.

Governor Leverett Saltonstall will again head the Memorial Day parade in Newton on Thursday, May 30. The Governor was requested to serve as Chief Marshal by the Veterans Council of Newton and accepted. He is a member of Newton Post, American Legion and has marched in Memorial Day parades in this city for many years. He has appointed Roy S. Edwards, Past Commander of Chaplain William J. Farrell Chapter, D. A. V. as Chief of Staff, and John B. Foley, Past Commander of Newton Post, A. L. as Adjutant General.

The customary activities and exercises will be held on Memorial Day. A special bus will leave Newton Corner at 8 a. m. to carry veterans to Memorial Hall from where they will proceed to Newton Cemetery to decorate graves of departed veterans. Members of Newton Post, A. L.; Sergeant Daley Post, V. F. W.; Chaplain Farrell Post, D. A. V., Thomas Burnett Post, Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will co-operate in decorating the graves of departed veterans. Arrangements have also been made for the decoration of graves in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham and other cemeteries where veterans who were residents of Newton are buried. A lunch will be served at Elks Hall, Newton for those who participate in the morning exercises.

The clergy of all Newton churches and principals of the various schools have been requested to ask contributions of flowers from parishioners and school children. The flowers may be left on the afternoon and early evening of Wednesday, May 29 at the houses of the Fire Department in the Newtons, and at Rhodes Drug Store in Waban.

On Sunday morning, May 26 a memorial service will be held at Centenary Methodist Church, Central st., Auburndale. Comrades will assemble at the corner of Washington st. and Commonwealth ave., at 10 a. m. Sunday and march to the church at 10:20. At 10:45 Rev. W. Henry Shillington will preach an appropriate sermon. All members of the Spanish War, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled Veterans, Sons of Union Veterans, and the auxiliaries of these organizations are invited to participate in all the observances relative to Memorial Day.

The parade on Memorial Day will start at 2:15 p. m. at Washington st. and Centre ave., Newton and will proceed along Washington st. to Newtonville and thence along Walnut st. to Newton Cemetery. Following the exercises at the cemetery the parade will reform and march to City Hall (Continued on page 10)

ANOTHER MEMORIAL DAY

Another Memorial Day is at hand. A day when we pause to memorialize the dead of all wars. Among them are those who fought for the cause of liberty and freedom, for the cause of unity, and for the cause of universal peace. Among them were many heroic dead—who lived and fought for the continued existence of those ideals which are exemplified in American tradition and history. Today a large part of the world is embroiled in another titanic struggle while we in America look on with growing concern as to the part we will be called upon to play in the course of world events. In honoring our war dead on Memorial Day let us again resolve that they shall not have died in vain, that come what may, America will lead on toward the goal for which they gave their lives that we might live in peace and happiness.

Rotary Club

Where's Elmer? Since 1932 at American Legion Conventions this question was asked repeatedly, but never satisfactorily answered. For that matter nobody could identify Elmer. It remained for the New York World's Fair director to give Elmer a flesh and blood existence, and on Monday at the Brae Burn Country Club he spoke to the members of the Newton Rotary Club.

Elmer is the man known as Mr. John Q. Citizen; otherwise, Mr. Average Man. He is the symbol of the 1940 New York World's Fair and it is to him this year's fair has been dedicated. Elmer wants the world to know the 1940 Fair is humanized, the old fashioned type of a fair where frivolity and gaiety abounds. All along the lines lower prices prevail, more fun at less cost. Practically all last year's exhibitors are on hand, no less than fifteen hundred free concessions. The attendance the first two Saturdays offer definite proof that the American people are going to turn out in unprecedented numbers to this year's edition of the New York Fair. For fun and education it is a monument to American ingenuity.

Burglaries In The Newtons

Gerrie Wilsbach reported to the police last Friday that someone had entered her dance studio at 233 Walnut st., Newtonville, and stolen a portable typewriter. Recently a phonograph was stolen from the studio.

Charles Crittenton reported to the police on Friday that three men in a station wagon had come the preceding night to a house he is constructing on Kingswood rd., Auburndale, and stolen lumber and cement.

OUR LADY'S ALUMNI COMMUNION BREAKFAST

The fifth Annual Communion and Breakfast of Our Lady's Alumni Association will be held Sunday, May 26, Mass will be celebrated at nine o'clock by the Rev. Russell T. Haley, Spiritual Director of the Association. Immediately following the Mass, breakfast will be served in the High School Auditorium. Rev. William Daly, Diocesan Director of Literature and Literary Clubs, will be the guest speaker and has chosen for his subject "The Citizen in Christ's Kingdom." Mr. William Gerity will be toastmaster for the occasion. The musical program is under the direction of Miss Florence Herlihy who will accompany Miss Ruth Gauvreau, the guest soloist.

Miss Mary Abban is general chairman of the breakfast. The Honorary Chairmen are John Miskella, President; Miss Mary Matthews, Treasurer; Miss Elizabeth O'Brien, Corresponding Secretary, and Miss Rose Timmons, Recording Secretary.

Garden flowers, donated by the parishioners, will decorate the shrine of Our Lady.

Parents and friends of members of the alumni are invited to be present at the Mass and Breakfast. It will be appreciated if they will make their reservations as early as possible.

LUNCHEON BRIDGE AT MOTHERS' REST

There will be a luncheon bridge at the Mothers' Rest on June third at one o'clock.

The following committee is in charge of arrangements: Mesdames Charles E. Bailey, S. Hardy Mitchell, William H. Greeley, Florence O. Lucas, Willis B. Clough, Carl H. Cummings, Harold R. Keller, Earl G. Manning, and Miss Elizabeth P. Bartlett.

Since this annual party always affords an excellent opportunity to visit the Rest and become acquainted with its location and equipment a large attendance is anticipated.

The Rest is situated on Oak Hill st., Newton Centre. Dorothy Thompson, the leading lady oracle of this country, made herself more ridiculous by her plea that the Republicans refrain from nominating

EDWARD H. Powers' Paragraphs

Germany and Russia are being labelled as "Godless nations" by many critics in this country. The rulers of Russia certainly don't believe in any God, and the rulers of Germany certainly don't believe in Christ, the God of their ancestors. But, according to statistics a large percentage, if not the majority, of the people of this country are not affiliated with any religious body and never go to church. Some of these believe in God, but mere of them don't, and some of the latter are among those referring to Russia and Germany as Godless.

Judge P. Sarsfield Cunniff of the Waltham court has been receiving criticisms because of a comment he recently made in a non-support case in that court when he condemned the act of a wife in searching the pockets of her husband's clothing. Judge Cunniff said—"It has been a wife's privilege from the beginning of time to search her husband's pockets." The judge went back too far. It was only in comparatively recent centuries that men started to wear pants, or that the ordinary man had any money in his pockets.

Many years ago we read an observation by some radical which condemned the importance which political and financial leaders of the Western civilization had placed on gold as the basis of national wealth and the determining factor of financial stability. In recent years nations abandoned the gold standard. The U. S. A. continued to believe that although the gold standard might be abandoned, the possession of gold is very essential and a great asset. Therefore, the U. S. A. has for years been purchasing gold from all over the world and has accumulated a vast horde of about $20,000,000,000 which is stored mostly in a huge concrete vault out in the Kentucky hills.

During these same years the Nazi government of Germany with very little gold in its possession, has by a method of national financing (which was criticised as utterly unsound by financiers of the wealthy nations) managed not only to feed and clothe its population, but also to manufacture a sufficient quantity of airplanes, tanks, arms and ammunition to rapidly conquer most of Europe and threaten at the present moment the future of France and Britain, and their colonial possessions.

Assuming that Germany conquers France and Great Britain, and becomes the dominant power in this world, an assumption that is even more than a possibility now, what will become of the huge quantity of gold the U. S. A. is holding in Kentucky? Obviously, it isn't a necessity to assure a nation's progress. Perhaps it will be used for jewelry.

Last Sunday night we listened to a representative of one of the largest weekly publications of this country give his regular radio broadcast from Paris. Among other things he stated that there evidently had been internal treachery in Belgium because of the alarming speed with which the Nazis overcame that country. But, the same night the French government displaced the much vaunted General Gamelin by General Maxime Weygand, a 73 year old veteran, and a day or two before France had made a move to bolster up national morale by calling a 34 year old Marshal Petain to the cabinet. And a day later the French government announced that some of its army officers had committed the fatal mistake of not blowing up bridges across the Meuse, and that the guilty parties will be punished. The amazing progress of the Nazi armies in Holland, Belgium and France is being attributed in considerable part to so called "fifth columns" in those countries. Perhaps "fifth columns" had been important factors in the Nazi victories so far, but descriptions of the horrible efficiency of the thousands of German bombing planes, tanks and other mechanical equipment of its obviously well-trained and fanatically brave soldiers, accounts for the incredible weak resistance which the French, British and Belgian armies have been displaying. If some of the would-be military critics and strategists in this country had to face diving bombers, tanks weighing up to 70 tons, and other hellish Frankenstein's of 1940 warfare, such as the Nazis have developed, they would be helpless even as Belgians, French and British. The puzzling thing is—where has been the highly touted artillery and other mechanical equipment of the French armies?

Talking about "fifth columns" and the current agitation to guard against such subversive activities in this country, recalls similar apprehension which prevailed here to some degree when the U. S. A. entered the World War in 1917. We believe that the Federal government in co-operation with State governments and officials, should take every measure necessary to guard against any treachery or sabotage. But, mindful of some of the ridiculous scares and rumors started by volunteer sleuths in 1917, we hope that such nuisances will be curbed now. We remember that one Newton resident made himself ridiculous by provoking a respectable Newton citizen of German birth, and then (as a citizen) placed the man under arrest as an alleged enemy of this country. Needless to say, the captive was at once released by properly authorized officials.

Dorothy Thompson, the leading lady oracle of this country, made herself more ridiculous by her plea that the Republicans refrain from nominating anyone against President Roosevelt, and that we have a coalition government. Dorothy should shift her eye chin to her left hand, and call on "the grouse" for better inspiration. We believe that if a national election were held now, President Roosevelt would be re-elected, if a candidate; but, this country has not arrived at such straits that it must imitate even to a lesser degree, the transition from a constitutional monarchy to a dictatorship, taken by Great Britain on Wednesday. And with this epochal change by Britain, there is one less "democracy" to fight for.

A few persons in this city are agitating that this city create a new office—that of purchasing agent. It would make good job for somebody and undoubtedly there are a number of Newton residents who already are aspirants, provided the plum will be put on the political plate. We wouldn't mind getting this job ourselves. But, as one who has had intimate knowledge of city affairs, before and behind the scenes over a long period of years, we believe the City of Newton need not go to the expense of providing a job for a purchasing agent, or a new purchasing commission. A Mayor and Finance Committee of the Aldermen, assuming they are to keep tabs on the purchase of city supplies, most of which are purchased under competitive bidding.

Charles A. Lindbergh started something a couple of years ago when he told of the great superiority of the Nazi air force. Recent events proved that he was correct. Now, he is again being severely criticised because of the speech he made the other night. We agree with Mr. Lindbergh that this country should mind its own business and not again be a cat's paw for other nations. We disagree with Mr. Lindbergh that fear of attack to America is needless.

The authorized survey of city departments by "experts" amuses me. This survey was agitated by some of the members of the Board of Aldermen and by a few of the recently self-appointed members of our city government. The department mostly in need of a survey, in the opinion of those desiring such a study of our city's activities, is the School Department, which costs the most of any city department to operate, and which, according to the "surveyists" has too high an administrative expense. But, the School Committee, which does not like the Board of Aldermen to horn in its province, took time by the forelock and approved the selection of Dr. Ellsbee of Columbia Teachers College to make a separate study and survey of the Newton School Department. Undeterred by this move on the part of the School Committee, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen agreed on an appropriation of $10,000 to defray the cost of investigating all city departments. But, the School Committee has been unwilling to have the "experts" who profess to study and improve the operation of any and all city departments, cogitate on Newton's school department. So, at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, it was voted to accept the Mayor's recommendation that only $5000 be appropriated to start a survey of all city departments with the exception of the School Department. This compromise was not acceptable to Alderman Hoffman who has been the most insistent advocate of retrenchment in city expenses in the Board the past couple of years. He left the Aldermanic chamber to confer with Mayor Goddard and endeavor to persuade the latter to insist in a survey of the School Department by the municipal physicians who are to make diagnoses of the ailments afflicting the other city departments.

But, the Board of Aldermen got impatient waiting for Mr. Hoffman in his effort to persuade the Mayor, and passed the $5000 appropriation.

N. H. S. '35 REUNION

The Newton High School Class of 1885 have completed plans for their reunion at the Hunnewell Club on June 4th. Notices have been sent out to all the members with few exceptions. Twenty-five have died since leaving school. Among those for whom no address is found are Bertha E. Childs, Genevieve Lee, Rebecca Gleason, Elizabeth Noonan, Mary L. Benedict, Edwin H. Crandall, Jr., Frank B. Mayo, John F. O'Connell, and Mary Brown Hale. The secretary of the class for this reunion is Miss Frances Nickerson, 26 Lowell ave., Newtonville, Mass.

The stone crusher and a large force of men are working on the ledge at Jewett st. near Boyd st.

The laying of the cornerstone of the new Baptist church at Newton last Friday evening was decidedly a sprinkling scene.

The small boys in Wards 1 and 7 have organized a baseball league. It is composed of the Wide Awakes, Unions, Elliots and Atlantics.

The census gives the interesting fact that there are in our city 153 widowers, 578 widows, 4293 single men, 5055 maidens, 5 divorced men and 10 divorced women. There truly seems to be plenty of fish left in the pond.

There was an immense crowd at the May party of the Channing Church in the church parlors last Friday. Both young and old enjoyed the occasion to the utmost.

The baseball game between Boston English High and Newton High was played at the Brookline playground last Saturday and resulted in a score of 17 to 12 in favor of Newton. The game was played under protest, the Boston nine claiming that the Newton shortstop is a student at Boston college.

Henry Bull conducted the meeting of the Boys' Branch of the Newton Y. M. C. A. last Sunday. The subject was the early influence of home and the influence of a good mother. The boys met on Wednesday evening and engaged in singing, Hugh Campbell has quite a list of new members. By paying 50 cents a year, anyone from 10 to 14 may join.

When are we to have the hitching post in front of the Public Library replaced? It was broken off some weeks ago, and was a convenience that is greatly missed.

The board of trustees of the Newton Cottage Hospital desire to inform the public that from the funds which have been contributed a desirable lot of land has been purchased and a balance of about $6000 remains. Plans have been made for an economical building with suitable accommodations for a beginning. The trustees very much desire that $2000 more in contributions be received before the building is commenced.

A Newtonville man was lately inquiring among his friends if they knew of anybody whom he could get to sew a few buttons on his clothes. He said his wife belongs to so many literary clubs that she does not have time to attend to anything of that kind.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday afternoon $1000 was appropriated for finishing Farlow Park, and $500 for a footbridge over the Circuit railroad at Waban near the almshouse.

People going down Carter st., Waban, yesterday morning were obliged to hold their noses in order to avoid the fearful stench from a freight car on the siding. The car contained buffalo hoofs and other stuff used at a glue factory in Auburndale.

Newton Graphic, May 9, 1890

There was some disturbance on Tuesday evening caused by the removal of a drunken man from the 9:20 train from Boston. He was in a very hilarious condition, and the police had some difficulty getting him to the lock-up.

Appropriations passed by the Aldermen included—material and equipment for WPA project (sewer construction) at Dedham st., $25; sewer construction of Langdon st., $450; sewer in Oakmont rd., Newton Centre; $4000; Water Department, mains in Melville and Linwood avenues, $645; mains in Farmington and Russell rds., West Newton, $3350; 1939 deficit bills, Health Department, $23,947; Play Ground Department, $249; claim for injuries to Norman Quinton of Charlton street, Newton Highlands, $550. The additional money for the work on the Dedham st. sewer was necessary because of ledge laying been encountered there. Seepage of water under Langdon rd. caused this job to be more expensive than first estimated. The Quinton injury was caused by a defect in Nahanton st., which caused the claimant to be thrown from his bicycle against a stone wall.

The Board of Aldermen turned down an offer of $225 from Michele Tedesco for a lot of land owned by the city on Sheridan ave., West Newton. An offer of $100 was accepted from Howard Platt for a strip of land on Talbot st., West Newton, adjoining his property. A petition from Margaret Hearst to change land at 1148 Beacon st. from residence to business zone, Edward Raia, who has been turned down before in a petition to change land on the Worcester turnpike between Florence st. and Hammond parkway from residence to business zone, again petitioned for such a change. It is a safe bet he will again get leave to withdraw.

Jacob Cron obtained a permit to designate George Myers as a driver on his junk collecting truck. Because the Chief of Police did not approve, the Board refused to grant a transfer of the license for 4 pool tables at 1335 Washington st. from Giuseppe Carvallo to Henry Marcelli. A petition was received from Albert another Newton lad who intends to enter the medical profession upon his graduation from school.

The Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity at Cornell recently elected its officers and among them was Herbert F. Bernhard of 26 Cedar st., Newton Centre. Herb is a freshman who graduated from the local high school last June with equal quantities of determination and good humor. Here he rode into office with Tom Burkhardt for three consecutive years, his capacity being that of treasurer. Other executive positions which Herb held were treasurer of the Chi Beta Phi social fraternity, chairman of the Civics Board, and member of the Orange Shield, Executive Council, and National Honor Society. At Cornell Herb is enrolled in the school of Administrative Engineering, a course for which he is truly fitted.

A prominent member of the class of '38 went on to Springfield College to be the only representative from Newton in his class. This man was Joseph Palmeri of 523 Watertown st., Newtonville, familiarly known as "Doc." At Springfield Joe was recently elected president of the Dramatic Club to serve for the coming year. It is rare indeed when a second-year man is accorded this honor, but the presence of such an active member could not be denied and he was given the gavel to wield. In high school Joe played football and baseball, besides earning grades which placed him in the National Honor Society. We all remember those occasions when Joe privileged his audiences with several monologues in an imitable Italian dialect. This latest display of versatility makes his goal as a teacher-coach seem a good deal nearer and easier to attain.

This reader concludes another informal session with the collegiate class located in this section of the land. For more news we will attempt another weekly chat next Friday, although final exams have cut

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Francis Cate of 130 Temple st., West Newton, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Lois Cate, to Alan Haskell Vrooman of Patchogue, Long Island. Miss Cate was graduated from Dana Hall in 1932 and from Smith College in 1936. Mr. Vrooman was graduated in 1934 from Princeton University where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the Tower Club. He will receive the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Princeton in June.

Mrs. Alexander L. Stephen of Chestnut st., Waban, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Stephen, to Thomas Sproule, son of Mrs. Thomas Sproule, formerly of Short Hills, New Jersey, and the late Mr. Sproule. Miss Stephen is a member of the senior class at Mt. Holyoke College. Mr. Sproule is a graduate of South Kent School and of Lafayette College. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kerr of Newton Highlands announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Louisa Allison Kerr to Theodore Kinget Quinn, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore K. Quinn of Darien, Connecticut.

The wedding will take place on June 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Hinds of Bristol, Pennsylvania, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Vivian Elizabeth Greene to William H. Coombs, junior, son of William H. Coombs of Colrain, Massachusetts and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Connick of Newtonville. Miss Greene and Mr. Coombs were graduated from Boston University, College of Liberal Arts, in the class of 1938. Miss Greene is now teaching in the Junior High School, Wellesley. Mr. Coombs attended the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, Needham, by Rev. Edward M. Condit.

The bride wore a gown of white satin, with an illusion veil caught to a crown of seed pearls and carried white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Johnson of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, wore a square necked gown of aqua chiffon. The bridesmaids, Mrs. John Hibbard, Mrs. Nelson Hart, Mrs. Donald Eaton and Miss Ruth Colville wore gowns of pale pink chiffon and carried shower bouquets of spring flowers.

Henry W. Eaton of Needham, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Francis H. Eaton, Donald A. Eaton, Alexander H. Daniels and Bickford Glover White, brother of the bride.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Four Found Guilty Of Loitering

Four West Newton youths were found guilty in the Newton court last Friday of loitering. Patrolman Mague charged that a gang of youths had been gathering each night at the corner of Washington and Elm sts., West Newton, blocking traffic on the sidewalk, using profanity and insulting young women who passed by. Judge Mayberry placed the cases of the four who were found guilty on file, and told them that the next time he would be less lenient. The defendants are advised to use their ears more and their mouths less.

NORTH BENNET STREET INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

For the twenty-fourth consecutive year the children of the Dramatic and Dancing Departments of the North Bennet Street Industrial School of Boston will give an annual spring entertainment at the Woman's Club House, Newton Centre.

The performance this year will be held on Saturday morning, May 25, at 10:45, when the children of the Dramatic Department will present "The Reluctant Dragon," a play in three acts adapted from a chapter in Kenneth Graham's "Dream Days," and directed by Miss Clara D. Gommies. They will be assisted by dancers from the School.

The proceeds of this entertainment are used for summer work among the children of the North End of Boston; summer kindergarten for little tots, story hours, roof parties, picnic pleasures and camp opportunities.

Mrs. Jessie McCullough, president of the Lend-A-Hand Club, welcomed the guests and led the singing of popular songs, following which the oldest mother, Mrs. Fritz Graf and the youngest mother, Mrs. Robert Hooper were presented with large nosegays of spring flowers. The guests sang the favorite song of Mrs. Graf "God Bless America" also that of Mrs. Hooper whose selection was "Mother." Miss Doris Brown introduced the speaker of the evening Mrs. Anne Austill of Wellesley who took as her topic "Gardens" quoting "Life is a Garden, and we must know what seed to plant and what to grow!" Mrs. Austill said that "God Has a Plan for each mother and daughter to do together." She told of the beautiful garden in New Hampshire of Elsie Caverly who is a cripple but finds fullness of life in the beauty of her garden and the pleasure she gives to hundreds of visitors during the summer months. Also a rector in England who retired to his "Tall Garden" where he could speak with God.

Mrs. Blanche Greenway Allen, soloist and choir director of the church, accompanied by Miss Margaret Hartshorn organist of the church rendered two contralto solos "Waters of Minnetonka" and "Pale Moon," responding to an encore with "Can't You Hear Me Calling Caroline."

Many Unlicensed Dogs in Newton

According to information received from the police who did the listing in this city last winter, and who concluded turning in information to the City Clerk's office on February 10, at least 500 dogs in this city have not been licensed by their owners. All dogs had to be licensed on or before April 30. Up to May 20 only 3800 dogs had been licensed in Newton. The law specifies that any dog running loose must wear a collar or harness with the metal tag, bearing its license number attached. This law has been quite laxly enforced in this city in past years.

The City Clerk's office has turned over to Dog Officer Lewis a list of persons known to own dogs, but who have not obtained licenses. These persons can be summoned into court by the Dog Officer. The number of persons bitten by dogs has greatly increased in Newton the past several years, so much so that the Newton Health Department has been listing the number of persons bitten each month along with records kept of communicable diseases. Last month 31 persons were bitten by dogs in Newton.

Will Not Change Ward 1 Precinct Lines This Year

City Clerk Grant announced on Thursday that the precinct lines in Ward 1 will not be changed this year. It had been planned to change that part of Precinct 2 west of Jewett st. to Precinct 1, which heretofore has extended to Jackson rd. Whatever changes will be made by the Aldermen affecting Ward 1, will not go into effect until 1941.

assistant; Mildred March, principal of the Ward School; Walter Taylor of the high school, and Julia Tobin of the Cabot School will attend University of Chicago general workshop in teacher education from July 22 to August 23. Carl Birmingham and Ruth Twiss, both of the high school, will attend Pennsylvania State College from July 1 to August 9. They will study "problems of the newer 50 per cent" in conjunction with the workshop in secondary education. Frances Forgie, teacher of handicapped children, will study at the mental health workshop at Vassar from June 20 to August 1. Ethel Rideout of the high school, will attend the English workshop at Harvard from July 1 to August 9. Francis Tanner of Day junior high school will attend the social studies workshop at Harvard from July 1 to August 9. Carl Penny of the Warren junior high school will go to the secondary school course at Syracuse University or Columbia University between July 1 and August 9. Anna Gorman of the Davis School and Beatrice Lane of the Underwood School will attend the elementary school workshop at Harvard from July 1 to August 9.

In connection with the announcement of those selected, Supt. of Schools Warren said:

"One of the very difficult tasks faced in connection with our participation in the in-service study has been the selection of those who will receive the Workshop Fellowships for the coming summer.

"An attempt has been made to see that as many interests as possible are represented in the delegation sent to study some of Newton's problems. At the same time I have tried to include representatives of all levels of the teaching staff."

"For those who applied for Workshop Fellowships and are not receiving them this year, it should be kept in mind that there will be other opportunities of a similar kind in the next two years that the Teacher Education Commission is in existence."

"For those teachers who plan to study this summer, it is suggested that serious consideration be given to the opportunities that Workshops offer in contrast to the usual type of summer school course. It is possible for anyone in the system to register independently in a Workshop program and in most cases to receive full summer course credit for the activity."

Former Newton Man Rescues Wounded Belgian Children

Harold B. Willis, supervising architect of Newton City Hall, and a former resident of this city has received first page attention in the newspapers of this country the past few days because of the news received from him that he was under fire several times by German airplanes while driving an ambulance containing wounded children from Amiens to Paris. Willis was quoted as saying that—"The roads outside Amiens are lined with dead women and children, refugees who had been shot down by the machine guns of German planes flying 15 feet above the roads. My ambulance was fired upon repeatedly between Amiens and Paris despite the big red cross and American flag I had on it.—Amiens is filled with wounded and the hospitals are overflowing with women and children. Several of these hospitals have been set on fire by incendiary bombs, dropped by the German planes."

Willis graduated from Harvard in 1912 and joined the American ambulance service in France before this country entered the World War. Later he became a member of the Lafayette Escadrille, his plane was shot down and he was captured. After spending 18 months in a German prison he escaped and reached France.

In 1920 he married Miss Cornelia Fiske of Boston and they have three children. Their home is in Weston. Mr. Willis is a member of the firm of Collens, Willis & Hubbard, architects of Boston. Harold Buckley Willis was born 50 years ago. His parents were residents of Newton High School and he graduated from Newton High School in 1908.

RECENT DEATHS

MARY M. POWERS

Mrs. Mary Montague Powers widow of Dr. Harry Huntington Powers, died on May 17 at her home, 32 Church st., Newton, in her 80th year. She was born in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, and graduated from Ripon (Wisconsin) College in 1882. She married Professor Powers in October, 1882 and for many years resided in various college communities where he taught. In 1902 she moved to Newton with Dr. Powers when he established the Bureau of University Travel in this city. Mrs. Powers had been an active member of Eliot Congregational Church, Newton Community Club and the Social Science Club of Newton. In 1936 her husband had a beautiful garden laid out on land he owned at Centre and Church sts., Newton, planning it as a civic contribution and avocation during the remainder of his life. Following his death in 1937, Mrs. Powers continued to maintain this garden.

She is survived by one son, Joseph H. Powers of Newton; two grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. E. H. Claffey of Wynnewood, Pennsylvania. Her funeral service was held at Eliot Church, Newton, on Monday, May 20; Rev. Ray Eusden officiated. Interment was in Newton Cemetery.

ROBERT GARDNER

Robert S. Gardner of 122 Clark st., Newton Centre, died on May 17. He was born in Charlestown 51 years ago and for 22 years had been resident manager of the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston. On May 2 he opened his own hotel, the Hotel Gardner on Massachusetts ave., and the following day he was taken ill. He had been prominent in Masonic bodies. He was a member of Euclid Lodge of Masons, Mount Olivet Chapter, Aleppo Temple and DeMolay Commandery, Knights Templar. He had been vice president of the New England Hotel Association, and a member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery. His funeral service was held on Sunday in the Second Church, Boston; Rev. Raymond Lang of Newtonville officiated. Mr. Gardner is survived by his widow, Mrs. Myra Greenlaw Gardner; and three daughters, Misses Natalie, Joan and Mary Gardner.

MARY JONES

Mrs. Mary A. (Kelly) Jones widow of Patrick Jones, died on May 19. She was born in County Fermanagh, Ireland, and had resided in Newton for about 50 years. She formerly resided at 353 Washington st., Newton, and in recent years had resided with her daughter in Boston. Mrs. Jones is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Frances Doherty of Boston, Mrs. Rose Glennon of Cambridge and Mrs. Mary Feeley of Newton; six grandchildren; and a brother, James Kelly of Ireland. Mrs. Jones' funeral was held on Tuesday morning from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Feeley, 14 School st., Newton. The solemn requiem mass was at Our Lady's Church and burial was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

ROBERT F. BOURKE

Robert F. Bourke of 1063 Beacon st., Newton Centre, died on May 15. He was born in Kilkilin, Kerry, Ireland, 75 years ago and had resided in Newton Centre over 50 years. He was a gardener by occupation. Mr. Bourke was a member of Newton Council, Knights of Columbus, and the Holy Name Society. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Bridget (McNamee) Bourke; seven sons, John, Robert, James, Francis, Charles and David, all of this city and William of Waltham; and four daughters, Mrs. Mary Barrett, Mrs. Margaret LeBlanc, Misses Anna and Katherine Bourke all of this city. Mr. Bourke's funeral service was held at Sacred Heart Church last Saturday and burial was in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline.

... WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES ...

Three Days At Swampscott

From the moment that clubwomen and Juniors from all over the State, began to throng the New Ocean House on Saturday afternoon, May 11th, until flowers and gifts were presented to outgoing and incoming officers of the State Federation, and automobiles whisked them away, with baggage once more packed, Wednesday, the 15th, the three thousand and more women who gathered for the Annual State Meeting, found every moment filled with interest, from provocative speeches to sociability.

No more attractive locale could be found for such a convention than the North Shore, which is doubly beautiful these spring days, with its sparkling waters on an expansive shore front, budding trees and shrubberies, and flowers bursting into bloom in surrounding gardens.

The Juniors held their Convention on Saturday, and many senior club-women, as well as about 600 Juniors, attended it.

"I Asked for It"

IT seems kind of funny, after dodging agents all these years, but the other day I actually went in and asked to buy some life insurance. In fact, the only way I could get it was to ask for it, because it was Savings Bank Life Insurance.

"I certainly like the Savings Bank Life Insurance idea of keeping all operating costs low and passing along the benefits by means of dividends as well as low premium rates. I'm 35, and at my age the premium is only $1.96 a month per $1000 of straight life insurance."

Savings Bank Life Insurance was created to provide safe family protection at low cost for thrifty people who are willing to buy "over-the-counter" insurance at the savings bank.

Round-Table Conferences, a Banquet, speakers among officers of the State Federation, and a delightful musical program, made up their Convention.

A spectacular feature of the evening was a large birthday cake bearing 46 lighted candles, which was borne through the dining-room during the banquet by four chefs, in honor of the 46th anniversary of the Massachusetts Federation, and also commemorating the Golden Jubilee of the General Federation.

The State Federation Annual Meeting began officially on Monday. But Sunday found many clubwomen already in attendance and having a day of quiet and peace in the lovely surroundings.

BUSINESS. Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, the business sessions of the State Federation meeting opened. Reports of officers were heard, that of the president being the notable one of the day, in resume of financial reports from the clubs.

In her Annual President's Report, Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth announced that the clubs of the State have contributed during the past year a grand total of $117,829.80 to various charitable and other causes. The largest sums were given for scholarships, which received nearly $27,000; welfare work, over $26,000; and hospitals, $22,598.21.

Mrs. Hildreth also made the announcement of the achievement of the ralings of the $1200 planned for the purchase of a Bookmobile, or library-mobile to send into rural communities. She stated that to date about $1400 has been subscribed by the clubs, in fact, and the excess will be used to purchase Talking Books for the Blind. Clubwomen were delighted to have the opportunity of seeing this new Bookmobile, a handsome new yellow affair, filled with shelves of new and popular books, which was on display outside the auditorium, on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Chairmen of departments announced as appointed to serve next year were the following:

Mrs. Ronald McKenzie, East Concord, American Home; Mrs. Joseph H. Burnett, Cambridge, Club Institutes; Mrs. Israel H. Oakman, Jr., Marshfield, Mothercraft; Mrs. George Davis, Deerfield, Literature; Mrs. Carl H. Whitney, Ashburnham, Radio; Mrs. Max Ulin, Dorchester, International Relations; Mrs. William B. Walsh, Bridgeport, Motion Pictures; and Mrs. H. Sherwin Reed, Boylston, Physically-handicapped.

For her award in walking off with first prize in the Penny Art Fund Notebook Contest, Mrs. Max Meyer of Hobbs Club chose Arthur Heintzelman's drypoint of "The Portuguese Fisherman's Daughter." Incidentally Mr. Heintzelman, now an internationally-known etcher, exhibited his first drawings at the Hobbs Club.

The outgoing president, Mrs. Hildreth, was announced as General Federation director from Massachusetts, to serve for the next two years, this being the custom to appoint the outgoing president to serve in this national capacity.

This year there was no list of Resolutions offered for endorsement as has frequently been the case in the past few years.

No direct action or Resolution about the European war was adopted, but at every session the 3500 women hear speakers advocating either American intervention on behalf of the Allies or American isolation.

Indirectly the clubwomen re-dedicated themselves to a woman's role, voting approval of the Resolution presented by Mrs. Arthur G. Fletcher, chairman of the department of the American Home, "to work unceasingly for the spiritual dedication of ourselves, our homes, and our nation."

These and the usual courtesy resolution to the management of the Hotel comprised this division of club business.

Resolution of thanks and appreciation to Clement Kennedy, president of the New Ocean House, was adopted, signifying the continued approval of this spot that for more than a decade has been the clubwomen's mecca by the seashore each spring.

SPEECHES. If Hitler's machine wins this war, we are the richest, the most prosperous modern nation, are the next logical goal for his fifth column, if not for actual physical attack." Dr. Samuel Hazzard Cross, Professor at Harvard University, declared in his address Monday morning, so opening at the very first session of the State Convention, discussion of the problem that is occupying the thoughts of the world, a discussion that every guest speaker carried forward during the three-day session.

"Three thousand miles of ocean are not a barrier against ideological infection and intrigue," the speaker stated.

"No one remains neutral when his neighbor's house is on fire, and with the shrinkage of distance before modern progress in mechanical and vocal communications, it is cheaper," claimed Dr. Cross, "to avert a catastrophe than to await specifically the impact of those whims of disaster that no wall can bar."

"No peace," he stated, "is conceivable until the Nazi menace is removed, in order to keep what we now have, we Americans shall in that case be obliged to maintain a permanent military establishment costly in money and destructive of those very democratic principles to which even our prize contests in various departments are always of interest, especially if Newton Club is a winner. To the Newton Centre Woman's Club was awarded first prize in the Club Bulletin Contest.

Mrs. Olaff Hoff, Jr., editor for Federation Topics, offered the prize-winning birthday jingle in connection with the Golden Jubilee of the General Federation.

A spectacular feature of the evening was a large birthday cake bearing 46 lighted candles, which was borne through the dining-room during the banquet by four chefs, in honor of the 46th anniversary of the Massachusetts Federation, and also commemorating the Golden Jubilee of the General Federation.

Pacifist liberals are devoted. "I am astonished," he said, "to see the number of young Jewish men who are leaders in America's pacifist sentiment and who are so misguided as to persist in their childish loyalty to the Soviet Union since it has linked hands with the ruthless Nazis."

"Furthermore," he added, "let us have a little less Anglophobia from our Irish friends."

In a spirited talk Monday afternoon, punctuated by frequent and vigorous bursts of applause, Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, first vice-president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, sounded a call to arms against the challenges to Democracy in the United States."

Citing remarks made to her by clubwomen in praise of dictatorships, as proof of her conviction that democracy is seriously challenged, she said, "One woman told me that if she could help to select the dictator, she would vote for dictatorship tomorrow. Just within a week," she continued, "president of one of our outstanding universities said, he thought Hitler was a genius and when he cleaned up Europe should come over here and show us how to run our country. And some of our clubwomen feel the same about it."

It is not, she hastened to point out, that clubwomen as a whole prefer dictatorship, but "some propagandists have sold the idea of dictatorship to some of our women." Calling for immediate and active resistance to this type of thinking, Mrs. Whitehurst proposed that "we dramatize democracy just as Hitler has dramatized National Socialism." She urged clubwomen to select strong leaders. "There is need for straight thinking," she said.

A strong plea for the continuance of the American industrial system was made by Sinclair Weeks, former Mayor of Newton, speaking at a symposium at a symposium, "Telling the Consumer," on Tuesday afternoon.

In a warning to the clubwomen, Mr. Weeks declared: "Look at the place of women in dictator countries today. Bear in mind, loss of economic freedom is loss of the freedom of speech, religion, and press, and also the loss of freedom of women. There is no distinction between the producer or consumer," according to Mr. Weeks.

Roger Wolcott, executive secretary of the National Consumer-Retailer Council, represented the retailer, and Dr. William Trufant Foster, president of Pollak Foundation for Economic Research spoke on behalf of the consumer.

Pointing out that there are large national organizations to represent the interests of labor and business, but none to represent adequately the consumer, Dr. Foster said that there should be a balancing of the consumer interest with these others.

Mr. Wolcott predicted that "five years from today women as consumer leaders will be credited with being responsible for cutting the costs of distribution."

Speaking before a capacity audience in Convention Hall, Tuesday evening, Governor Leverett Saltonstall, accompanied by Mrs. Saltonstall as a guest upon the platform, preceding the Reception in their honor, strongly emphasized the necessity for immediate and thorough preparedness "mentally, physically, morally and spiritually."

Claiming that none of the defenses of the country are adequate, Governor Saltonstall urged the building up of "a tremendous air force." "Let us develop the best officers and men, with plenty of funds to support them," he said, "and with a strong, united nation."

"We must be alive to what is happening," continued the Governor. "We must recognize the moral conflict which has upset the world. A nation that is disunited and disconcerted is ripe for picking by today's war lords."

Governor Saltonstall's dry wit brought appreciative chuckles from his audience when he commented upon the new canopy set up for the protection of clubwomen against the rain.

Clement E. Kennedy's canopy, extending the entire length from Puritan Hall doorway to Convention Hall, which he claims "the largest in captivity," Governor Saltonstall credited with being "insurance for beautiful weather enjoyed throughout the convention."

On Wednesday morning Dr. Carl Heath Kopt, of the Mount Vernon Church in the Back Bay, launched a vigorous attack on Adolf Hitler and his invasion of neutral countries. The murderer plans his crime with precision, and Hitler carefully designs his invasions, he said, in fitting him to the criminal, and then he added, as an explanatory statement for the man's mental status, "What's wrong with Hitler is that he has no matriarchal influence—no mother, wife, or daughter."

clubwomen was, of course, the Pageant, which was staged Monday evening; staged against a brilliantly-lighted golden frame, in which the central figure of the episode posed in tableau, and with musical accompaniment of electric organ, choruses, talented soloists, and dancers. In this impressive seven-act Pageant, "The Crystal Perisphere", in which 200 women participated, written by Ethel B. Atwood of Brockton, Massachusetts clubwomen paid tribute to the Golden Jubilee year of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. One of the most effective scenes was that entitled "Formation", with Mrs. Earl Greenlaw of Swampscott in the role of Julia Ward Howe, framed in the "perisphere".

Admiration for her portrayal was expressed by a grand-niece of the noted writer, Mrs. William Ellis Winston, who was in Swampscott for several sessions of the Conference. Mrs. Winston was a delegate from the Women's Association of the Massachusetts Osteopathic Hospital.

The actual gown worn by Mrs. E. H. Cobb, second club president of Massachusetts, was worn by her grand-daughter, Mrs. Grace Cobb Barnard of Boston, during the presentation of the Pageant. The girls were also those adopted by Mrs. Cobb.

Mrs. Albert W. Fuller and Mrs. Harrison D. Myrick, two of the younger clubwomen, carried the State and National Emblems.

Beginning with a tableau of Anne Hutchinson, posed by Mrs. Edward C. Geehr, and a scene produced by the Quincy Women's Club, the Pageant proceeded through the "Foundation" of clubs, Mrs. Frederick Glazier Smith, director; the "Formation", Mrs. John H. Kimball, director; "Expansion", Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, director, and Mrs. John A. Jennings, assistant; "Co-operation", Mrs. William J. McDonald, chairman, and Mrs. Henry W. Inman, director; "Association", Mrs. Malcolm Green, International Relations chairman, director; "Appreciation", Mrs. Miner H. A. Evans, director, assisted by Mrs. Clifford L. Hubbard; and "Our Federation", a tableau featuring Mrs. Whitehurst and Massachusetts officials, past and present.

Wearing antique costumes dating back 100 years or more, members of the Ladies' Physiological Institute, started in 1847; the Ladies' Library Association of Randolph, 1855, and New England Women's Club, 1867, appeared in scenes from their clubs' history. Mrs. Albert J. McKnight posed as "Knowledge."

Mrs. Earle Greenlaw impersonated Julia Ward Howe in the Perisphere, and Mrs. John H. Kimball showed her in "Reverie". Representing 75 "pioneer clubs", members, in costumes of their periods, promenaded and curtsied. Mrs. Edward T. Broadhurst posed as the central figure, "The Guardian".

Mrs. Herbert J. Gurney, the "war veteran" of the Federation, posed as "The War Mother"; Leicester G. Inman as a soldier; and Emma S. Bradbury as the "Red Cross Nurse". Mrs. William O. B. Little represented "Liberty", a number during which there was folk dancing of different countries.

Newtonville Woman's Club Plans Dessert-Bridge

Mrs. Robert Lindquist, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the Newtonville Woman's Club, is in charge of a Bridge, to be held at the Club House, on Monday, May 27th. The purpose of the affair is to raise funds for the October Bazaar, and all members and interested friends are urged to attend.

Dessert and coffee will be served at 1:30 p.m. There will be an individual prize for each table, in addition to several attractive door prizes.

The price of the tickets is only 50 cents and they may be obtained by calling Mrs. Lindquist at Newton North 0986-W, or any member of her committee.

ZONTA CLUB

The annual meeting of the Zonta Club of Newton was held at the home of Mrs. Dora Fyffe, S. White Oak rd., Waban, Monday evening, at 6:30 p.m.

On Monday evening, June 3rd, the last meeting of the season will be held at the home of Miss Caroline Freeman, 258 Mt. Vernon st., West Newton.

At 6:30 a porch supper will be served followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year, and the transaction of unfinished business.

AS WE LIKE IT CLUB

The monthly meeting of the As We Like It Club will be held on Tuesday evening, May 28th. Annual Mothers' Night will be celebrated.

Catered supper at 6:30, followed by a play given by a group from the North Congregational Church of Newton. Come and bring your mother.

The Newton Journal of February 2, 1978, had the following announcement of another demonstration and lecture upon the subject of the telephone as follows:

"Exhibitors of the Telephone Before the West Newton Lyceum"

"There will be an unusual attraction for next Monday evening. A competent gentleman connected with the Institute of Technology will exhibit the wonders of the telephone. One hour will be given to this."

The following week, February 9, gave a most interesting and detailed account of this lecture reading:

"The City Hall was crowded on Monday evening to hear about and also to have conclusive demonstration by an actual experiment of the wonders of the telephone. Wires were laid between Mr. N. T. Allen's house and the City Hall and from the former both vocal and instrumental music was plainly transmitted to the large audience of the Lyceum. Mr. William Rand, Mr. B. F. Houghton and Mr. Matthews of Boston were the musicians. Various instruments used were also exhibited."

"For this fine entertainment the people of West Newton are indebted to the kindness of Professor Blodgett, of the Boston Institute of Technology, who has recently taken up his residence at West Newton. Without having made the telephone inventions a special study, he succeeded in furnishing the audience a most interesting, instructive and satisfactory entertainment."

The following excerpt from this account reiterated the success of the lecture and demonstration.

"To this instrument (the telephone) was attached a battery and the tone produced was very distinct and of great power. This was received with tremendous applause by the audience, which was distinctly heard through the telephone at Mr. Allen's residence (one mile distant) and was very gratifying to those who had exerted themselves to entertain the audience in a distant building. Everything attempted was a success."

"Professor Blodgett read several amusing incidents from Professor Bell's book concerning the wonder and astonishment created by its peculiar properties; also of the advantages it had in saving life, by a prompt attendance of physicians and surgeons that were summed through its use."

The lecturer's prognosis as to the development of speed in the matters of communication and transportation have undoubtedly been exceeded by anything he could have anticipated, as now exemplified in the modern application of transcontinental and trans-oceanic and ship to shore telephone service and by the modern Diesel engine driven or electrically propelled locomotive speeding stream-lined trains at a hundred or more miles per hour.

First Telephones in Newton, Private Lines

In common with the conditions prevailing with most communities the first telephones installed in Newton on a commercial basis were private lines not connected through an exchange.

"In the year 1875, in the city of Boston, Mass., a new page was brought to view and an astonished world saw the Telephone."

"When Faraday discovered the laws relating to induction and when Professor Morse invented the electric Telegraph, two leaves were turned in the massive book.

"When Dr. Franklin flew his kite into the clouds he opened the covers of an immense volume upon the title page of which was written the words, 'Electricity and Magnetism.'

NEWTON NET TEAM CHALKS UP 54TH WIN

Favored In Tourney Tomorrow—Scanlon Seeded First

Every week the Newton High tennis team continues to make athletic history which will be very bit as difficult to duplicate as Lou Gehrig's unbroken string of playing in consecutive baseball games. On Tuesday the orange and black racquet wielders easily defeated Haverhill High 7 to 0 at the Riverside Courts in Auburndale for its 54th consecutive team match victory.

The closest match was the number four singles between Bill Powers of Newton and LaRiviere of Haverhill. Powers dropped the first set 2-6 but came back to win the next two and the match, 6-1, 6-2. LaRiviere teamed up with Vincour to win the lone losers point in a doubles match with Bill Doherty and Bob Guild.

In other singles matches Capt. Phil Scanlon defeated Ash, 6-1, 6-4; Stan Collinson defeated Vincour, 6-2, 6-2; Jack Lynch defeated Gorevitz, 6-3, 6-4; Bill Betz defeated Kassel, 6-3, 6-2; and Bill Woods defeated Hirshberg, 6-0, 7-5. In the other doubles match Dick Daley and Stewart Wilson gave Newton the seventh point by turning back Ash and Gorevitz, 7-5, 6-3.

Newton enters the 14th annual high school interscholastic tournament to be played at Winchester tomorrow the favorite with Winchester being a close second ready to take over the honors should the Newton players falter. Captain Phil Scanlon is seeded number one and Jack Lynch number three. Nineteen schools have entered 87 players with Collinson, Powers, Betz and Woods following Scanlon and Lynch as local entries. Collinson has been playing number two position on the Newton team by virtue of defeating Lynch in a competitive challenge match which Coach

Despite Absence of Several Individual Stars

Minus several individual stars the Newton High track team turned back the invading Brookline High runners and field event athletes on Tuesday at the Dickinson stadium cinder path in Newtonville by a score of 42 to 30. Coach Enoch's charges divided the eight first places with the hurdles 440-yard and 880-yard runs and broad jump going Newton's way and the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes, shot put and high jump being won by the visiting athletes.

Bill Hurley was high scorer for the orange and black with a first in the broad jump, tie for second with teammate Bob Cotton in the 100 and a third in the hurdles. Paul Hines won the race over the barriers, Joe Beatty the 440 and Bill Woods copped the half mile. Cotton also took a second in the 220, Beloit a third in the 440, Ross a second in the 880 and Chet Thomas a tie for second in the high jump. Thomas and Olivigni took second and third in the broad jump to give Newton a clean sweep in that event with Walker and Paschier second and third in the shotput to complete Newton's scoring.

The Newton team was not hard pressed to win despite the absence of Gil Dobie, and Charles Edison because of college exams and Fred Hall and Bill Boyer due to illness.

Fogarty was Brookline High scorer with a double victory in the sprints.

The meet closed Newton's dual season. Two more meets remain on the local schedule with the annual State Meet tomorrow on the Newton track and the annual trip to Mt. Hermon interscholastics at Northfield on June 1st.

ARTISANS FAVORED TO DETHRONE NEWTON

In Annual State Track Meet At Newtonville Tomorrow

Newton High will play host tomorrow to an invading horde of several hundred outdoor track athletes arriving for the annual State High School track meet at the Dickinson Stadium. Although the local squad has several potential stars and scorers it will be an almost impossible task for Coach Enoch's charges to turn back the favored Mechanics Arts High outfit, indoor state champions in Class A. In Class B, of the smaller high schools, Rindge Tech indoor B champs with a well-balanced team lead by three negro stars, is the favorite although Worcester Commerce has potential strength to upset the predictions if the Cantabrigians fail to live up to prior efforts.

In two events Newton has a chance of winning individual titles with Paul Hines in the hurdles and Bob Ross in the half mile. If both come through it will send the orange and black off to a good start with other point possibilities in Hall and Cotton in the 220, Joe Beatty in the 440, Woods in the 880, Thomas in the high jump, and Hurley in the broad jump.

With Mechanics Arts High primed to score in nearly every event, Newton will have to have the assistance of individual threats from Lawrence, Lowell, Brockton, Boston English, Everett and Medford to stage a successful defense of its 1939 title.

taken a leading part in countless city and state campaigns.

Mr. Carter graduated from Harvard in 1910, when he married Dorothy (no relation) of Newtonville. They have four children, all of whom have attended the Newton Public Schools and the Newton High School.

In making the announcement of his candidacy, Mr. Carter issued the following statement:

"In offering my candidacy to the voters of the Fourth Middlesex District I wish to emphasize two points: first, I am aware of the relative unimportance of any political candidacy at a time when Hitler has overrun Europe, is poised on the Channel for a direct smash at the British Isles and is indirectly threatening the security of the United States. Government must, however, be carried on and it is perhaps more advisable than ever before to place in public office men of maturity and ripe and varied experience. Secondly, my present candidacy, deferred for many years out of respect for the veteran Rep. William B. Baker, now retiring, would have been held in abeyance until late June or July had not three other candidates already announced themselves."

"I shall greatly appreciate the active support of all those citizens who have followed my humble but sincere efforts for over thirty years in behalf of Newton and her numerous civic organizations."

Morahan also charged that Lutz had not conformed with the instructions sent out by Secretary of State Cook which designated March 5 as the last day for filing nomination papers and certifying signatures. The State laws specify that a voter must establish or change his party designation 31 days before a primary. Lutz went to Newton City Hall on March 8th of this year to designate himself a Republican.

Mr. Lutz told the Board of Registrars that he had resided most of his life in Newton, but had been residing temporarily in Cambridge because of the illness of his father. He stated that he had maintained his legal residence in Newton, however.

The Board of Registrars, William J. Doherty, Thomas F. Donnelly, Frank M. Grant and Harold Young, made no decision, but said they would check up on Morahan's charges.

Newton High School Class of 1915 Holds Enjoyable Reunion

Committee Hears From All But Six of Former Class of 189

Newton Girl Flies To France for Relief Work

The Class of 1915, Newton High School observed its 25th anniversary last Friday night at the Brae Burn Club, West Newton. Mrs. Frank A. Day, Jr., secretary of the class, read the class history and letters from members unable to be present. Because the class president, Horace Hawks was ill in a hospital, Calvin Smith, a former president of the class, presided. Bradford Williams of West Newton projected snapshots of various members of the class on a screen. The photographs of the members of the class, now middle aged men and women, were taken of the various subjects when they were of ages from infancy to the present time, and both entrained and amused the gathering. Caricatures of members of the class were also projected. Miss Pauline Chellis entertained with dances, and Mrs. Dorothy Speare Hubbard sang.

Eight former teachers of the class were present. They included Charles Swain Thomas, professor emeritus of English at Harvard, who spoke at length; Miss Emma F. Johnson, Miss Esther Bailey, Mrs. Grace Shepardson Kuntz; Miss Gertrude Myles, Miss Delpha Coolidge, Miss H. Anna Kennedy and Miss May B. Kennedy. Miss Ruth C. Wise, secretary of Newton High School for over 25 years, was also a guest. About 200 were members of the class and 159 graduated. Of these, 110 were present.

President Hawks' message to the class was read by the chairman, as follows:

Classmates, Better Halves and Teachers:

Welcome to this, our Twenty-fifth Anniversary Reunion. It is wonderful to know that so many have responded, and it is a bitter disappointment to your president that illness prevents his being with you.

Correspondence with so many classmates and teachers has been great fun, bringing unexpected messages from the distant corners of the earth. It has been a particular pleasure to work with your committee, for anything asked of any member has been gladly done. But what else could you expect: this is the Class of 1915!

Move Telephone Business Office

The records of accounts of more than 16,000 Newton telephone subscribers will be moved from the present business office at 321 Washington st., Newton, to the new telephone building at 787 Washington st., Newtonville, on Saturday afternoon, and the new business office will be open for business Monday morning, June 3. Manager Eugene J. Campbell announced today.

The same ten service representatives who handle the accounts of Newton customers at the present time will continue to serve at the new building where they can be visited in person or reached by telephone by calling NEWTON North 9950. Mr. Campbell's office will be in the new building, also.

Walnut furniture, with walls tinted in a modern shade called "thistle rose" and fluorescent lighting provide an office that is at once pleasant to work in. (Continued on Page 8)

Annual Memorial Day Services

The annual Memorial Day parade and services at Newton Cemetery were held on Thursday with Governor Leverett Saltonstall as Chief Marshal, Roy Edward, Chief of Staff; and John Foley, Adjutant General. Troop F, 110th Cavalry headed the parade, and in addition to veteran organizations and their auxiliaries a large contingent of Boy Scouts carried massed colors.

Prayer at the Soldiers' Memorial in Newton Cemetery was offered by Rev. W. Henry Shillington. Harold Ames read the G. A. R. "Order of the Day" by General Logan, and William E. Mick of the Sons of Union Veterans presided over the customary tribute exercises. Governor Saltonstall referred to the contrast between the peaceful, reverent scene in the cemetery and the terrible carnage in progress in Europe. He said that now, overseas, might seem to have

Newton Hospital Training School Graduation

The graduation exercises of the Class of 1940, Newton Hospital School of Nursing will be held on Thursday afternoon, June 6, at 4 p. m. The exercises will be held in a large tent which will be erected on the grounds at the rear of Founders' Memorial building. This is the 52nd year of the School of Nursing at Newton Hospital.

The invocation will be given by Rev. Herbert Hitchen of the First Unitarian Society of West Newton, and the address will be delivered by Mrs. Dorothy Canfield Fisher. Miss Faye Crabbé, principal of the School of Nursing, will make the presentation of the class; Frank L. Richardson, president of the Board of Trustees, will confer the diplomas; and Miss Bertha W. Allen, administrator of the hospital, will present the awards.

On Wednesday of this week Class Day was held. At 4:30 there was the traditional ivy planting and at 6:30 the class had dinner as guests of the faculty. On Wednesday evening class night was held, the principal feature was a play by the dramatic club.

On Friday, May 31st, the class will be the guests of the Alumnae Association at a picnic, and on June 2 the baccalaureate service will be held in St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Lower Falls, with a sermon by Rev. Roger Bennett.

Award Sand and Gravel Contracts

Street Commissioner Haughey has awarded the contracts for furnishing sand, bank gravel and screened gravel to the City of Newton for the coming year. The New England Sand & Gravel Company of Needham was awarded the contract for furnishing 15,000 cubic yards of screened sand at 74 cents a cubic yard. Their bid on screened gravel was 78¢ a ton and on bank gravel 90¢ a cubic yard.

The Riverside Sand & Gravel Company of Lower Falls was awarded the contract for furnishing 20,000 cubic yards of bank gravel at 86¢ a cubic yard. They bid 90¢ on the sand, and 77¢ on the screened gravel. George H. Noone of West Roxbury was awarded the contract for furnishing 5000 tons of screened gravel. His bids were 77¢ for 2 inch gravel, 76¢ for 3-4 inch and 79¢ for pea size. Noone's bid on screened sand was 81¢ cents.

Tresca Brothers of Newton Centre bid 80¢ on screened gravel and 90¢ on bank gravel. The Garden City Sand & Gravel Company of Weston bid 84¢ on screened gravel and 99¢ on screened sand.

Plan Athletic Night at High School, June 11

Plan Banquet Program For Letter Winners and Fathers

An Athletic Night for winners of letters in all forms of sport at the high school during the current school year is being planned by the Boys' Athletic department and high school authorities. An interesting program is being scheduled for the evening of June 11th with banquet, interesting speaking program, and the award of letters in spring sports. Fathers of the boys who have earned letters will also attend in this new form of athletic get-together, the first of its kind in the long history of the high school.

Following the dinner there will be a program of singing, a presentation of the school authorities, coaches and city officials. Sports talks by two outstanding men in athletic fields and the award of letters. Letters in football being awarded in the fall at an annual assembly of boys during school hours the arranging of the athletic night is designed to give similar recognition to winners of awards in winter and spring sports, which heretofore have been made without group attention.

The Athletic Night is being arranged by the Boys' Athletic Department under the supervision of Frank M. Simmons, department head, and Paul E. Ellicker, principal of the high school. Various committees comprised of coaches and members of the athletic council are being appointed to take charge of the numerous details.

Victory Day At St. Mary's Church

The minimum goal of $25,000 in subscriptions toward the $40,000 parish hall and wing for historic St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Newton Lower Falls, was announced as having been reached this week. "Victory" Day will be observed as part of Family Sunday at a special Sunday morning service on June 2nd at 9:45 a. m., the start of its new summer schedule for services.

Adults and boys and girls of the entire parish will gather for a special message from Rev. Roger W. Bennett, rector.

Henry H. Stafford of Waban, chairman, Building Committee, stated:

"The minimum quota has been reached through the whole-hearted cooperation of all within the parish and body-spirited members of the Community. To all including the workers, committees and the press, our warm and sincere thanks are extended.

"It is hoped that $1,000 to $5,000 extra will be pledged or given for added equipment and landscaping need and for moving and repairing the organ.

"Bids are now being received and contracts will be let in the near future.

"It is hoped to have a modern and well-equipped parish and community building ready to serve the under-church community which surrounds this area to carry on as constructively in 1940 as did the builders of the church itself in the challenging period of 1812 and 1814 when the present church edifice was hand-built for present and future use."

Meanwhile, the securing of the approximate $20,000,000 Fund asked by the American Red Cross to assist these destitute war victims must go forward. Chairman Norman H. Davis announced a few days ago that the Red

Much Interest Shown at Hearing Before Aldermen on Question Of Reducing House Lot Size

Consultant Explains Changes Proposed In Certain Areas; Numerous Residents and Organizations Approve Plan With Some Modifications; Objections in Oak Hill

Red Cross Asks No "Blackout of Mercy"

The third public hearing on the proposed amendments to the Newton zoning ordinance for the purpose of establishing minimum sizes for house lots in this city, was held at City Hall on May 23 and large numbers of citizens present. Alderman Rawson, chairman of the Claims and Rules Committee of the Aldermen presided, and all the members of that committee and the Planning Board were present. The matter under discussion was the designation of zone areas in Wards 5 and 6.

Professor Frederick J. Adams, consultant to the Planning Board explained the various residence zones which it is planned to establish. The first was—that section of the city at its southeast corner, adjoining the Brookline and West Roxbury boundaries and near the large Catholic cemeteries. It is proposed to place that in Class C, in part, and also some of it in Class B, restricted to single residences. Frederick Eichorn opposed this plan. He said his family owns 80 acres of land in this section, much of which is swamp land, and it is not suitable for anything except two-family houses.

The next district to be discussed was that bounded by Brookline, the turnpike, Hammond Parkway and Dudley rd. It is proposed to place this area in Class A, 15,000 square feet minimum. The change was opposed by Charles A. Malley and Robert J. Burns. The latter said that Crossby rd. is a street of two-family houses. Mrs. Curley contradicted Mr. Burns on the statement that Manet rd. is in a two-family section.

Professor Adams explained that the only sections of the city where 15,000 foot lots are proposed are—West Newton hill, Chestnut Hill and Oak Hill, and the golf club section at Waban. He said it is hoped to prevent in Wards 5 and 6 what has already happened in other parts of the city—the cutting of large size lots into a number of too small lots.

Samuel Nesson asked Chairman Rawson to read the original Paragraph F in the Planning Board recommendations. This specified that in the case of the lot which adjoins property in the same ownership, conformity with the Section shall be required, provided such conformatity does not involve undue hardship; but in the case of a lot which is assessed as a separate parcel at the time this section is adopted, conformity with the provisions of paragraphs A, B and C of this section shall not be required. Nor shall said paragraphs A, B and C apply to lots shown on subdivision plans officially approved by the Planning Board or Board of Survey prior to the date on which this Section was adopted by the City of Newton.

Mr. Nesson recommended that the words—"and, or recorded in the Registry of Deeds" be included in this paragraph.

Rupert Thompson representing the Newton Bankers Association and the Chamber of Commerce, went on record as favoring in principle the proposed amendments to the ordinance. He said that a letter would be mailed

THE POWERS MEMORIAL GARDEN

For the past several years one of the most attractive places in the Newton section of the city has been the old English garden at the corner of Centre and Church streets. The garden was laid out as a civic enterprise by the late Dr. Henry Huntington Powers and since his death a few years ago has been maintained by Mrs. Powers. With the passing of Mrs. Powers last week we trust that the community will not also be deprived of the continuance of this beautiful spot. We are informed that it probably lies within the discretion of the trustees of the estate as to whether or not the garden will be further maintained and that such determination may well be dependent upon the interest of the community in the project. We believe that it would be fitting and proper to designate this garden as the Powers Memorial Garden and that proper provision be made by the trustees for its maintenance. We will be pleased to place before the proper persons any endorsement of this suggestion which our readers may care to make if they will advise us of their interest.

Girl Scouts

Captain Anderson's Animal Circus will be presented by the Newtonville Girl Scouts on Saturday, June first in the Newton High School Athletic Field. If stormy, it will be held in the High School Drill Shed.

The grounds will be open from ten a. m. to six p. m. with circus performances at eleven, two and four o'clock. There will be pony rides and booths, selling candy, cooked food, pop, hoodies, sandwiches, balloons, grabs, and hot dogs.

The scouts will parade in uniform at ten a. m. * * *

A Day Camp for Newton Girl Scouts will be maintained at the Riverside Recreation Grounds on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays of the first four weeks of July, from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

The program will include swimming, nature quests, arts and crafts, camp cookery, folk dancing, minstrels, dramatics and tennis. Daily admission is ten cents, which includes milk for each girl to supplement the lunch she brings with her.

The camp will be directed by Miss Helen Fagan, who is a Senior Life Saver, Trained First Aider and a Craft and Nature Leader.

It is sponsored by Mrs. Theron B. Walker, Commissioner; Mrs. Walton S. Redfield, Chairman of Camp Committee and Mrs. Edward H. Pendergast, Chairman of the Day Camp Committee.

The Newton Highlands Girl Scouts held their annual Court of Awards on Friday evening, May 24th, in the Parish House of the Congregational Church.

Following the opening flag ceremony, the Brownies gave a flag drill and twenty-four Brownies received their "wings."

Troop 26 gave a candlelight service. Troop 21 explained the points necessary to become Second Class Scout and then every girl in the troop received a Second Class Badge. The Seniors presented this year's work in the form of an annual meeting.

Troop 31 described the work required to attain Merit Badges which were then awarded by Miss Adelade Ball, Chairman of the Program Committee, assisted by Miss Kathleen Twombly, Local Director of Newton Girl Scouts and Miss Corinne Diller, Field Captain.

Rotary Club

Gene Campbell, manager of the Newton Office of the N. E. Telephone & Telegraph Co., assisted by Richard Mandell, created a lot of interest, at the meeting of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday at the Brae Burn Club, with his talk and movie film entitled "Mr. X."

The whole movie showed clearly how the voice reflects personality. The audience was very much interested in trying out the Voice Mirror. This device after speaking into it turns the voice back. The voice is heard as others hear it. The various captions of the movies impressed immensely, such as "The Voice with a Smile," "You and your Telephone," "Your Company's Voice."

Just the way one says hello may change the whole attitude of a prospective customer. A good voice bring charm. The whole movie clearly showed that with courtesy and consideration over the telephone, more friends are made at the other end.

EDWARD H.

Powers' Paragraphs

President Roosevelt did not state in his "fireside chat" last Sunday night whether or not he will be a candidate for a third term. But from the way in which he used the pronoun "we", in referring to the national defense program, one might logically infer that the President plans to be the chief executive of the U. S. A. for another four years.

One of the most fantastic tales we have read for a long time was that story about the attempted assassination of Leon Trotsky early last Friday morning down in Mexico City. According to the news despatches twenty men carrying machine guns overcame Trotsky's four guards, rushed into the patio of the exiled Communist's residence, and for about 15 minutes poured a rain of bullets into the bedroom where Trotsky and his wife had been asleep. With astonishing agility for two elderly persons, the former Bolshevik leader and his wife rolled out of the bed so fast that they avoided the bullets. Then they crouched on the floor (or under the bed according to another account) and by some miracle escaped death or injury, although machine-gun bullets were being sprayed into the room. Just why the twenty assassins did not go into Trotsky's bedroom and finish the fight they allegedly came to do, seems quite peculiar. It is a wonder they didn't present Leon with a wristwatch or a loving cup, and Mrs. Trotsky with a bouquet of roses.

There is a State law which compels motor vehicles to have a muffler on the exhaust of the motor. This law was passed many years ago to save the nerves of the public from a trying nuisance. But there is no law which compels similar mufflers on the exhausts of motors of air compressors. Why should persons be compelled to endure the racket of an air-compressor for hours or days when such a machine is in use on a street or building?

The war in Europe appears to be moving with alarming rapidity against Britain and France. The German armies obviously have been too powerful for the allied forces, as was shown by the ousting of the allies from the vital channel ports, both in Belgium and France, and the constant tightening of the ring of Nazi troops around the trapped Belgian, British and French armies in Flanders and Artois. The surrender of the Belgian army under the order of King Leopold was a terrific blow to the British and French chances of victory.

King Leopold is being accused of cowardice, treachery and pro-Germany. We don't know whether or not Leopold has been pro-German and it may be that he was actuated in capitulating by a desire to save his throne. But it is also possible and probable that the Belgian king, disheartened by the seemingly inevitable victory of the German forces in the near future, the U. S. A. cannot condone any delay in readying this country against any and all threats of armed might. And this is not hysterical alarmism as some optimistic folks may opine.

Steal Equipment From Automobiles

A car owned by the Newton Buick Company and which was being used by Dr. Denton Nutter of 1094 Centre st., Newton Centre, was stolen about 11 a. m. Monday while it was parked on Lincoln st., Newton Highlands. As Dr. Nutter emerged from the house where he had been making a professional call, he saw the car being stolen and he made an ineffectual attempt to catch it. In the car was Dr. Nutter's bag containing instruments and narcotics, and the police at first thought that whoever stole the automobile might have done so to obtain the narcotics. This theory proved wrong, however, when the car was recovered in Medford on Tuesday morning after it had been abandoned in that city. The physician's bag was found in the car with its contents intact.

Automobile horns valued at $45 were stolen Sunday night from a truck owned by C. P. McCarthy of Boston, while the vehicle was parked at the rear of a filling station at 14 Eliot st., Newton Highlands. Frank Shapiro of 26 Mandelby rd., Newton Centre, reported that fog lights valued at $35 were stolen from his car on Saturday while it was parked in his garage. Fog lights were also stolen on Saturday from a car owned by George Volpe of 337 Beacon st., Newton Centre, while the car was parked on Chestnut terrace.

Boys with mischievous intent held the gates at the B. & A. crossing on Walnut st., Newtonville Tuesday evening while the gatekeeper was trying to raise the gates. As a result a chain broke and the gates on the north side of the tracks were rendered inoperative. A little fun may be excusable, but in this case it proved rather serious for the boys.

Edward J. Rogers of Fairview rd., Newton, was arrested about 1 o'clock last Friday morning after his car had been in collision at Commonwealth and Grant avenues, Newton Centre, with a car driven by Eugene Arcand of 159 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill. Arcand received cuts and bruises and was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. Rogers was arrested by Patrolmen Garequin and Murphy and a few hours later he was also taken to Newton Hospital from police headquarters to be treated for cuts and bruises. In court later that morning he was charged with drunkenness and driving while under the influence of liquor. His case was continued until June 6.

country, influenced their ruler to end further slaughter of his subjects in an apparently lost cause to defend Belgium.

If the tide of victory continues to move with Hitler's forces, and if the Nazi armies will succeed in reaching Paris and Britain, or if the overwhelming Nazi air force will strafe London and other cities of Britain as horribly as they did Moscow, Rotterdam and other places, will France and Britain also capitulate, or will they fight and die to the last man, as the leaders of these two nations have asserted that they will do? It is easy for people in this country which has not experienced the horrors of modern warfare to criticize a nation which surrenders, but if some of those who criticize had to undergo the hell which is produced by bombing from the air, machine-gunning and cannoneading tanks and armored cars, they too might cease being heroic—and capitulate.

Henry Ford states that if his plants are kept free from government interference and red-tape, that in 6 months time they can turn out 1000 airplanes each day. We believe Henry's estimate is quite high, but it is more than probable that if his factories were kept free of government interference, they could turn out many hundreds of planes each day, before the Post will be装饰ed at headquarters at Newtonville at 12:30 p. m. The parade will start on Walnut st., Newtonville at 2 p. m. and proceed to Newton Cemetery. The usual exercises will be held, consisting of singing, prayer by the Post chaplain and an oration by Comrade Benjamin Pitman of Marblehead. At the conclusion of the oration, the Post will decorate the graves of those who died that this nation might live, after which the Memorial Tree will be planted. The line of march will then be resumed from the cemetery to Newton Centre and Newton, where a dress parade will be tendered the Post by Claffin Guard and the high school battalion.

It is safe to assume that Ellet Church will not be heated by steam this summer. The parish meeting effected a good deal of profitable sanitary and heating knowledge from several of the members. The drift was in the direction of more and larger furnaces and still more coal. People who grumble about too much cold, will be the first to grumble about too much heat.

The discussion about the two-session plan at Newton High School is waxing warmer. The people are just beginning to take a hand in it. If they once get warmed up they will make the School Committee and School Superintendent give the real reason for the proposed change, which we hear hinted is to be the separation of the sexes at high school. If this is the reason, speak it out, and let us know why.

Nine hundred and ninety Portland boys have signed voluntarily the triple pledge against intoxicating liquors, tobacco and profanity. How many Newton boys are ready for it?

Do our city laws allow the maintaining of hog-pens and hen houses in thickly settled neighborhoods? These are exceedingly offensive to the smell in warm weather, and especially on warm nights. Don't these breed disease, hog-cholera or chicken-pox?

Persons on the North side of the tracks at Newton are jubilant. The Boston & Albany this morning commenced work to dig the tunnel under the tracks opposite Channing st. Their children will soon be able to travel to and from the postoffice and school without endangering their lives.

The home of Charles Curtis on Otis st., Newtonville was broken into last Monday and robbed of about $2000 in jewelry and diamonds.

A case of somnambulism occurred at Upper Falls last Sabbath night. John Driscoll, a fireman at the Clark paper mill, while in this condition, fell from his chamber window two stories to the ground. He fell upon his head and is now in a critical condition.

The apple trees are said to be a week ahead of time with their blossoms this year.

The young ladies of the Ellet Church of S. P. C. E. will have charge of the flower mission this year, and will be at the railroad station at Newton every Tuesday and Friday morning from 8 to 9. They invite contributions of flowers, fruit, vegetables or any delicacies for the sick and deserve cordial support in their worthy work. Last year 5000 bouquets of flowers, besides fruit, vegetables and books, were sent from Newton to Boston.

Boys with mischievous intent held the gates at the B. & A. crossing on Walnut st., Newtonville Tuesday evening while the gatekeeper was trying to raise the gates. As a result a chain broke and the gates on the north side of the tracks were rendered inoperative. A little fun may be excusable, but in this case it proved rather serious for the boys.

The question of a bridge across the Charles River connecting Newton and Weston is being considered. This would particularly benefit Weston and would bring into the market some beautiful land for building purposes.

Beriah Billings narrowly escaped a serious accident at Upper Falls square on Tuesday. The hames became unhooked and in turning around the wagon ran onto the horse's hoofs, and the horse kicked up the wagon until his legs became entangled. The horse was soon released without having been injured.

Newton, Mass.

Dear Sir:

The Wardens, Vestrymen and Rector of St. Mary's Church, Newton Lower Falls, Mass., extend to you their sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid and effective assistance of your paper during our drive for funds for the new parish buildings.

After hitting the Lamb car, DeMoe's car then bounded back and hit the Govoni car.

Speeders Fined

In Newton Court

Joseph DeMoe of 156 School st., Waltham, was fined $25 by Judge Mayberry in the Newton court last Saturday for driving an automobile so as to endanger the safety of the public. DeMoe started to pass a car driven by Alceo Govoni of Wellesley when the latter slowed down on Watertown st., Newtonville, to permit a truck to enter the driveway leading into a mill. In doing so, DeMoe's car collided with a car proceeding in the opposite direction and operated by Mrs. Thelma Lamb of Bridge st., Bemis. Mrs. Lamb's daughter, Nancy, received a head injury and was taken to Newton Hospital for treatment.

After hitting the Lamb car, DeMoe's car then bounded back and hit the Govoni car.

NEWTON SMITH COLLEGE CLUB

Mrs. John W. Cooke, 188 Arnold rd., Newton Centre, will open her home and gardens for the annual meeting and spring picnic of the Newton Smith College Club, on Tuesday, June 4, from 5:30 to 8, weather permitting. If there is rain the event will be postponed until Wednesday, June 5, at the same time and place. Reservations should be sent to Mrs. Quincy W. Wales, chairman of the program committee, who is making the arrangements. Mrs. Raymond Hunting, the retiring president, will preside at the short business meeting. Mrs. Richard H. Lee, chairman of the nominating committee, will present the slate of officers for the coming year. After the business meeting Miss Patricia Pierce and Miss Barbara Anderson, of the class of 1938 at Smith, will present an interesting program of dances.

Richard F. Bancroft of Newton Centre acted as best man. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Ray A. Eusden of the Eliot Church.

The music was furnished by Earl R. Weidner, organist, and the quartet of the Eliot Church, Miss Gertrude Enhart, Miss Thelma Jo Fisher, George H. Wheeler and Walter H. Kidder, who sang the Lohengrin wedding march and incidental responses during the ceremony, furnishing a very unusual and delightful contribution to the occasion.

On their return from a wedding trip to Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Kirchberg will reside in Boston. Mrs. Kirchberg is a graduate of Wellesley College, supplemented by summer courses at Middlebury and at Harvard. Mr. Kirchberg is an alumnus of Albion College in Michigan.

HENRY—KIRCHBERG

Miss Elizabeth Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Henry of 86 Nonantum st., was married on Friday, May 24 to William Jordan Kirchberg Jr. of Detroit and Boston, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kirchberg of Detroit, at a small wedding at the home of the bride's parents.

The house was decorated for the occasion with purple and white lilacs, which were banked at one end of the living room to form a background for the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a gown of white embroidered organdy and carried a bouquet of white lilacs and sweet peas. Her sister, Miss Margaret Henry, the maid of honor, wore white net trimmed with bands of bright print, and carried pink roses with larkspur.

SMITH—PARKIN

Miss Betsy Winthrop Parkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Rogers Parkin of Bound Brook, New Jersey, was married to Donald Greenlaw Smith of Newton Centre and Hollywood, son of Mrs. Eleanor M. Smith of Newton Centre on Saturday evening, May 25, in the Presbyterian Church at Bound Brook. Rev. William T. Boult of Mt. Vernon, New York, performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Spruce Farm, home of the bride's parents.

The bride wore a princess gown of yellow marquisette with matching hats and carried Colonial bouquets of yellow sweet peas, blue delphinium and baby's breath. Mrs. Kent, mother of the bride, wore blue lace and Mrs. Kennett wore dusty pink net.

On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Kennett will reside on East Side Parkway, Newton.

The bride attended the Chandler Secretarial School. The groom is employed in the office of the Boston & Albany Railroad.

son of Mrs. Alfred G. Kenngott of 51 Otis st., Newtonville, at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, May 25, in the chapel of the Andover Newton Theological School at Newton Centre. Dr. David Brewer Eddy performed the double ring ceremony which was followed by a reception in the club room of the school. Ivy and white flowers formed the decorations in the chapel.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chiffon, a fingertip length veil caught to a cap of lilies of the valley and carried white roses and sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles Russell Eddy, as matron of honor, who wore blue marquisette with starched lace and carried a Colonial bouquet of mixed flowers and a matching hat. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jackson S. Kent of Westwood, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Phyllis Ann Schipper of Newtonville. They wore gowns of yellow marquisette with matching hats and carried Colonial bouquets of yellow sweet peas, blue delphinium and baby's breath. Mrs. Kent, mother of the bride, wore blue lace and Mrs. Kennett wore dusty pink net.

Herbert T. Kainus of Hollywood, uncle of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were A. Newell Bottomley, Frank J. Ryder, Jr., Joseph Norton of Fitchburg, John C. Barcalow of Morris Plains, New York, Robert Louer of Schenectady, New York, and James Knight of Woodsville, New Hampshire.

After a wedding trip on Cape Cod, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Hollywood, California.

The bride attended the Baldwin School, Bryn Mawr, Pa., and the Erskine School in Boston. She is a direct descendant of John Winthrop, first governor of the Massachusetts Colony. The groom is a graduate of Worcester Academy.

ENGOTT—KENT

Miss Eleanor Hope Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Kent of 10 Regent st., West Newton, was married to John Kemple Kenngott, son of Mrs. Alfred G. Kenngott of 51 Otis st., Newtonville, at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, May 25, in the chapel of the Andover Newton Theological School at Newton Centre. TONER—CONNELLY

Miss Martha Connally, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Connally of West Roxbury, was married on May 23 to Lt. James V. Toner, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Toner of 14 Lockwood rd., West Newton. The ceremony took place at Randolph Field Chapel, in Texas. Mrs. Toner was graduated from the Katharine Gibbs School in 1939. Lt. Toner was appointed a second lieutenant in the United States Army Air Corps the first of May. On July 2nd, Lt. Toner will leave from Hamilton Field in San Francisco, California, accompanied by Mrs. Toner for the Hawaiian Islands, where he has been assigned to duty.

National Bank Has New Checking Service

A new checking service is announced by the Newton National Bank which will make checking facilities available at moderate cost. In this department customers can have the use of a personal check book without incurring the expense incident to a regular commercial account. The bank provides a check book containing ten (10) checks at the rate of $1 for each book. There is no charge for deposits and no monthly service or activity charge. The only charge is for the small fee for each check issued. Accounts can be opened easily and quickly by mail.

Recent Engagements

At a tea at the University Club, Boston, on Saturday, Mrs. Newton W. Schwab of 230 Cabot st. announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Clara Newton Schwab, to Gordon Gale Wisbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Wisbach of 164 Kirkstall rd. Cards, attached to tiny old fashioned individual bouquets and bearing the names of the two young people, disclosed the news. The pourers were Mrs. Robert Cook Schwab of Braintree, Miss Schwab's aunt, and Mrs. Dwight C. Colburn of Newton Centre. Mrs. William Diman of Newton Centre ushered.

Miss Schwab will be graduated from Pembroke College with the class of 1940, where she has been president of Christian Association during her senior year. She is a member of Question Club, an honorary society, and of Lambda Phi Sorority. In September she will take up the position of director of physical education and recreation of the student nurses at the Rhode Island Hospital in Providence.

Mr. Wisbach graduated in the class of 1938 at Brown University and is a member of Delta Upsilon Fraternity.

There are no immediate plans for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Fowler of Daniels st. announced the engagement of Mrs. Fowler's sister, Miss Winifred W. Coffin of Cambridge to Mr. Edmund F. Calgan of New York and Boston. Miss Coffin studied at the Madam Achard School in Brookline and graduated from the Designers' Art School of Boston. Mr. Calgan is a graduate of the Phoenix Art School in New York. A June wedding is planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ingerson Brown of 148 Dickerman rd., Newton Highlands, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Cornelia Woolton Brown, to Stephen Kemp Bailey, son of Professor and Mrs. Albert Edward Bailey of Evanston, Ill., and formerly of Newton Centre. Miss Brown is a member of the senior class at Swarthmore College. Mr. Bailey is a graduate of Hiram College and of Oxford University which he attended as a Rhodes scholar. He also studied at Columbia University and the University of Heidelberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hopwood of 16 Dunton rd., Watertown, and formerly of Newton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Winifred Earl Hopwood, to Robert Porter of Otis st., Watertown. Both Miss Hopwood and Mr. Porter are graduates of the Watertown High School.

Organize Youth Hostel Group Here

All meeting Monday evening in the community room of the Newtonville Library the following officers of the Newton Group of the American Youth Hostel were elected: Chairman, Mr. H. Potter Trainer; Vice Chairman, Mrs. Jens; Publicity Chairman, Mr. Haydn Pearson; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Charlotte Root.

All the Newton Hostelers and their parents were invited to attend the get-together. Miss Charlotte Root led the meeting. The program began with three reels of movies which presented Hosteling in America and in Europe to those parents that did not know just what was planned. Miss Root explained the purpose of the meeting and read Gov. Saltonstall's letter of endorsement. It was voted to call the group the Newton Division of the A.Y.H.

The first reel of the movies had been sent by Bill Nelson the director of the New England Region of the A.Y.H., and the other two were taken by Charlotte Root when she travelled with A.Y.H. groups in Europe in 1936 and 1937.

After the movies, Harold Ames, Chairman of the Newton Veterans Council, spoke on what he considered the place of Hosteling in America today. As a veteran he was glad to see a growing organization that gave so much to the youth who had outgrown scouts and school organizations and assured the support of the veterans. Haydn Pearson, principal of the Bigelow Junior High School, told of the Hostel that his parents have, and of the fine type of young and old Hostelers he had met coming in there. He had two criticisms to make. The first was that many of the Hostelers got too tired and tried to cover too much ground in between the Hostels, and the other was that there could be more check up on the house, parents, and Hostels. Yet he was enthusiastic about the movement and what it had to offer to all ages.

The American Youth Hostel Movement has received tremendous impetus in the last two or three years with national headquarters in Northfield, Mass. There are now 209 Hostels in the United States and Canada.

Annual Report of Free Library

The annual report of the Newton Library Department has been published and distributed. It contains the following preface by Mrs. Virginia M. Hutchinson, president of the Board of Trustees.

To His Honor, the Mayor:

The Trustees of the Newton Free Library submit herewith their report for the year 1939.

The red-letter event of the library year was the opening of the new Newtonville Branch. The Librarian in his report gives the details of that occasion. This beautiful building is a source of great satisfaction to the Trustees, and they are exceedingly grateful to all the citizens and groups of citizens who made it possible. The interior far surpasses our expectations in its attractiveness, thanks particularly to Mr. Connick's exquisite medallions and the decorating of Mr. Robb. The library will serve not only its primary purpose of supplying the adults and children of Newtonville and the High School with books, but gives an opportunity for the exhibition of the work of Newton artists and craftsmen.

No one took more pride in the Dedication exercises than Mr. John R. Prescott, who had been the largest individual contributor, through the sale of his book, "Suburban Living at Its Best." It was announced that evening that the receipts from the new edition were also to be used for the benefit of the Newtonville Branch. By his death on December 24th, the Library lost a true and valued friend.

The auditorium at Newtonville has freed the room formerly used as a meeting place at the Main Library and that room has been transformed into a music room. Our Librarian, Mr. Lucht, has contributed a splendid collection of gramophone records, and with the additions, which we hope may come from other citizens of Newton, the Library will have available another source of education and enjoyment.

We have been aided in supplying story hours by contributions from three clubs in West Newton, the Community Service Club, the West Newton Educational Club and the Newton Mothers' Club, also by the Social Science Club of Newton, the Newton Centre School Association and a generous anonymous donor.

Always welcome these gifts that help start children on the happy road of book appreciation.

The cut in our book appropriation embarrassed us by forcing us to charge for books normally provided free by the library, and made impossible keeping up the collections of books in the different branches. We hope this will not be necessary in subsequent years.

In connection with the Newtonville Branch, a word of praise should be said for the librarian and his helpers in their difficult task of moving in and settling. Their loyalty and efficiency throughout the year, of which this is but one instance, are very much appreciated by the Trustees.

In his report Librarian Julius Lucht stated that the building of the branch library at Newtonville was the outstanding event of the department in 1939. The Newtonville Library Association conducted a campaign to raise funds for the purchase of the library site on Walnut st. and collected $29,159.20 in subscriptions. The expenses of conducting this campaign were $2862.19; this left a balance of $6,297.01.

The amount required in addition to this sum to purchase the site was $6,000; $2684.25 had to be paid in back taxes, and the cost of the building and its equipment was $101,315.75. The city paid 55 per cent of this sum and the WPA 45 per cent.

The city will require 7365 tons of run of mine coal, 3820 tons of nut and slack, 200 of Pocahontas pea, 185 of egg, 36 of nut, 160 of pea, 49 of stone, 60 of buckwheat. The schools will require about 7000 tons of coal and the other public buildings about 2900 tons.

Librarian Lucht stated that the action of the City Government in cutting $3500 from the 1938 budget recommendation of the department for books, periodicals and binding was quite a blow. His report states: "This gave the smallest appropriation for books since 1922 when the circulation was about half of what it is now. In order to minimize the effect that this might have on our permanent collection, we concentrated our purchases this year on non-fiction, and on juvenile books of more lasting value. Only one copy of the new worthwhile fiction was bought from city funds. Other copies were provided from the Howes or Duplicate Pay Fund. Our expense for binding was reduced by one-third, and many books that should have been re-bound were patched up by temporary mending; in some cases books had to be withdrawn from circulation. It is apparent that, in order to meet our borrowers' reasonable demands for new fiction as well as for non-fiction, to keep up the standard of our juvenile collection, and to conserve what is worthwhile by re-binding, we need at present an annual appropriation of at least $18,000."

Paul Holmstrand of 40 Cypress st., Newton Centre, was sentenced by Judge Dowd in Norfolk Superior court on Tuesday to serve from 5 to 7 years in State Prison. On the night of March 22 Holmstrand got into the taxi driven by Edward Mancini of Dover and at a revolver point robbed Mancini at a lonely spot in Dover. Holmstrand later strode into police headquarters in Boston brandishing his gun, and surrendered. He is married and has one child.

Librarian Lucht stated that in May, 1939, the library began to charge 1 cent for each reserve, as is even charging 2 cents. Inasmuch as the privilege of reserving books free of charge was being constantly abused, many books being reserved and then not called for, the present arrangement gives better service and relieves the staff of needless work.

The city appropriation for the Library Department in 1938 was $91,704.45, and in 1939 it was $88,410.

The income of the department from sales on books and other items was $7194.17 in 1938 and $7350.37 in 1939. The income from funds in 1939 was $1024.37; from the Howes Fund (duplicate pay collection) $3090.43, and gifts for story telling, $149.75; all totaling $4264.55.

At the beginning of 1939 the library had 151,129 adult volumes, 40,712 volumes for juveniles, and during the year purchased 4852 volumes for adults and 2571 for juveniles. Books added from other sources, including gifts and transfers from the pay collection brought the totals to 158,255 volumes for adults and 43,341 for juveniles. During the year 4501 books were discarded, 294 lost and paid for and 26 unaccounted for. Ten newspapers are subscribed for and 4 given; 182 magazines subscribed for and 101 given. The circulation of adult volumes in 1939 was 577,139, and of juvenile volumes 296,036. Of these totals 382,342 of the adult volumes were fiction, and 123,731 of the juvenile volumes.

City Answers Suit For Reinstatement

City Solicitor Bartlett filed an answer in the Newton District Court on Tuesday to the suit brought by Patrolman John L. Riley who has filed a claim against the city to recover sums of money which have been deducted from his pay weekly as his contribution to the retirement fund. Riley was originally appointed to the police force in 1916. He served a year and then went to serve in the World War. After returning from military service Riley served another year in the police department and resigned in 1920 to resume his trade as a bricklayer. He was reinstated to the police department in 1935. According to a law passed several years before by the State Legislature, Riley was given full rights as a member of the force, and on the supposition that his prior appointment gave him seniority over men who had served many years on the force, but who were appointed after 1916, Riley was at once assigned to a day route.

He contends that inasmuch as he was appointed to the department before the contributory pension system went into effect, in accordance with the law it is his right to be included under the non-contributory pension system in which he was included after he was first appointed to the police department. The city solicitor contends that Riley's pension status is based on the date of his reappointment to the department.

At the annual meeting of the Mother's Club of the North Congregational Church, Mrs. Esther Kent was elected President; Mrs. Alice Sorenson, Vice President; Mrs. Louise Gosline, Secretary, and Mrs. Edith Corncor, Treasurer.

Following the installations of the first private line telephones in Newton, the Central Massachusetts Telephone Company terminated two lines of their system in Newton apothecary stores. The Newton Republican of October 23, 1880, had the following announcement pertaining to one of these installations as follows:

"Telephone at a Small Cost"

"Residents of Newton can have personal conversations with parties in Boston, Cambridge, Lowell, Framingham, Worcester and intervening places by means of the Central Massachusetts Telephone Office at Rogers Drug Store (Charles F. Rogers proprietor Newton Corner, now Hubbard Drug Company, 425 Centre st.) where a list of telephone subscribers in other places may be seen. Messengers may also be obtained at any office on this or connecting lines to call parties (not subscribers) with whom you wish to converse. One trial of the system will convince any person of its wonderful advantages."

J. EDWARD HILLS
An Early Telephone Subscriber

Mr. Nathaniel W. Lillie, a present resident of Brookline, was a former Superintendent of the Telephone Dispatch Company the first operating company in Boston. He has the distinction of having been the earliest operator employed at a switchboard probably in the entire world.

In his "Reminiscences of the Telephone in Boston 1877-1914" he says that a telephone office existed in Newtonville on February 1, 1881.

The Newton City Directory of 1881 lists a "Telephone Office" in the apothecary store of Mr. William C. Gaudelet, Washington st., corner of Gaudelet and Waban. This was designated as a office of the Central Massachusetts Telephone Company with connections to all points."

The City Council subsequently granted the petitions of the Telephone Company and construction followed making a more comprehensive local service available to the inhabitants generally with connections to all points."

On August 26 of this year the press of Boston announced that "The National Bell Telephone Company have purchased the territory of the Suburban Telephone Company including fifty cities and towns within twelve miles of Boston."

The announcement included the fact that the consolidated company was the largest then existing in the world controlling and operating from 15,000 to 18,000 miles of wire.

The officers of the Company were given as follows: W. A. Ingham, president; M. G. Parker of Lowell, vice-president; Charles L. Glidden of Lowell, treasurer; and Loren M. Dowds of Salem, general manager.

Through this organization the Newton subscribers had available a most comprehensive telephone service both locally and to places outside of the local area.

House Lots

to the Claims & Rules Committee in which several suggestions would be made. Henry I. Harriman of 825 Centre st. said he is entirely in sympathy with the general provisions of the proposed ordinances, but he asked for an alteration to the section applying to general residence and business zones. He said that several years ago he had bought a large area containing 354,000 square feet bounded by the turnpike and Hammond Pond parkway, and on this in the not too distant future hopes to build a series of fireproof apartments of the garden type. Each building would have, as planned, 27,000 feet of land and each family would have 2260 feet, generally speaking. But, it would be very difficult to divide the area so that each building will have a separate lot, as at present planned in the proposed zoning. He suggested that—in case that more than one dwelling or apartment is built on a given lot of land under one ownership, the lot if located in general residence, business or manufacturing zone, shall contain not less than 7000 square feet for each building erected and not less than 1200 feet for each family. Each building shall have a suitable approach from a public or private roadway."

Norman Hall appearing for the Oak Hill Improvement Association said that the association had approved in principle the plans submitted by Professor Adams for residence zones at Oak Hill, but they favored certain modifications. The contour of the land should be given more consideration, and an intermediate zone (Class B) should be established at Oak Hill between the proposed A and C zones. Henry S. Cummings of Oak Hill commended the Planning Board and Prof. Adams for the way they divided Oak Hill. He said that only a few years ago many Oak Hill residents had petitioned for a 20,000 foot restriction in that district, and the are still in favor of 15,000 square feet as the minimum. He would like to see the intermediate zone between the A and C zones. Others who spoke in favor included: Fred B. Lund, Jr., Louis C. Smith and Dr. H. E. Kennedy.

A letter from the Waban Improvement Association approved the recommendations of the Planning Board with the following exceptions—that dwelling houses be restricted to within 10 feet of side lot lines in Class A, instead of 15 feet, and within 7½ feet in Class B zones; and that the section of Ward 5 near Troy lane, Cotter and Coyne sts., be left in a private residence zone.

J. Earle Parker of Waban inquired regarding the substituted Paragraph F., and Chairman Rawson explained that it would throw into the Board of Appeal lots where a hardship might result on owners where they would be in a sub-division approved by the Planning Board. The question of separate parcels is eliminated.

Arnold Hartmann of Rosalie rd., Oak Hill, said he is opposed to the proposed changes because they are not necessary to establish the purposes for which the Newton zoning law was established, but have been drawn to promote idealistic and aesthetic standards, which while desirable in themselves, are burdensome, impractical and discriminatory, to owners of undeveloped land in Oak Hill. He said that according to the present zoning law an average size small single residence and garage can be built in Newton on a lot of 3200 feet. He stated that last year Newton won the prize for being the healthiest city in the U. S. A.,

and if it could do this with a zoning restriction of a 30 per cent coverage for buildings on lots as small at 3200 square feet, a minimum size of 7500 feet instead of 15,000 feet would be adequate.

Mr. Hartmann said that 17 years ago he started to develop land in Oak Hill and acquired 216 acres for this purpose. He planned to create an outstanding community, he engaged the services of Arthur Shurtliff as a landscape engineer and had the advice of the man who developed Kew Gardens at Long Island, New York. The first section he developed contained lots with a minimum of 100 feet frontage and 15,000 feet area. He met with much sales resistance because he was pioneering in what had been a farm section without adequate transportation facilities. When he developed a second section with lots somewhat smaller, these sold quickly.

Mr. Hartmann said that last year he took a tract of 20 acres near Dudley rd. and Brookline st. and subdivided it for a community of small homes. Since this development opened he has sold 13 lots there, and 8 houses have been built. In the meantime only one house has been built by him in the rest of Oak Hill village. He said that Oak Hill was planned as a community of different groups of properties so situated as not to detract but rather to enhance the value of each other. To place all land in Oak Hill in Class A, single residence would limit him to selling lots to people who can afford homes costing $12,000 and up. He asked: "Do you know how long it would take me and others to sell our land in Oak Hill which has been put into Class A?" He answered his question by saying it would take 88 years based on the rate of building there during the past 5 years of houses costing $10,000 and over.

Mr. Hartmann said that changes in economic conditions and social habits have been far reaching and have made adjustments necessary in the standard of living. He said that instead of forcing teachers, professionals and the younger generation of Newton families to reside in apartments, we want them in moderate priced homes in Oak Hill. He said he has paid dearly in the effort to develop Oak Hill as a community of large lots and expensive homes, and he recommends that Classes A and B in single residence zones be not created, and that the minimum size of lots for Oak Hill be 7500 square feet, 75 foot frontage, set back 25 feet, side lines not less than 7½ feet, lot not nearer than 25 feet to house on adjoining lot.

In the sciences we learned more than the mysteries of chemical reactions from H. Anna Kennedy. If the girls of the Class are still able to hop, skip and jump, it can only be because they have treasured these many long years the principles of a stream-lined life as taught by Grace Shepardson Kuntz.

Patience is a virtue of virtues.

Those of us who have acquired it may owe it to our early training in waiting for the verb to appear at the end of a German sentence by Esther Bailey.

Some of us, placed in recent years in positions of responsibility where we have had to deal with difficult situations and unruly persons (domestic or otherwise), have remembered with great profit the masterly way in which "incidents" of flamboyant youth in Room 10 were met by May Belle Goodwin.

In the very fact that we are here as united members of a Class is tribute to the tactful efficiency with which the wheels of the Newton High School were—and still are—made to go round by Ruth Wise.

And finally, that love for an accurate and elegant expression of thought which, if not acquired through study of Palmer's "Self-expression in English," must have come from our inspiring association with one who has always been at home with the masters of English prose and verse—Charles Swain Thomas.

Let us pay tribute to these nine venturesome souls who have bravely accepted our invitation to dine with us this evening, and also to other members of our youth—Miss Wallace, Miss Flanders, Miss Story, Miss Wight, Miss Dix and Miss Owen—who have sent us gracious greetings and sincere regrets that they could not join us. Let us honor them by standing on our feet and giving them a good hand.

But now to our speaker. I can see him as of twenty-five years ago: with an extra tug to his eyebrows, stepping down from the platform to sit at a desk on the floor as one of the class; or poised on the edge of the platform, quoting some gem treasured in his memory, as he looked out the window and seemed to find inspiration from sky and passing clouds. In honoring us by accepting our invitation this evening, he unconsciously brings back to us those days which seem but yesterday when the name of Wordsworth, Shelley and Keats brought us the voice of Charles Swain Thomas.

The committee which arranged the reunion included—Mrs. Katherine Reynolds, Day, Mrs. Eleanor Shumway Gildersleeve, Louis F. Ranlett, Miss Helen L. White, Miss Margaret A. Will, Mrs. Georgia Nutting Wray, Mrs. Mary Kimball Ball, Mrs. Priscilla Williams McGill, Mrs. Dorothy Speare Hubbard, Clarence A. Chapin, Mrs. Ruth Wellington Burkhardt, Edgar S. Burkhardt, Mrs. Susan Pessen den Buell, Mrs. Louise Bacon Fuller, Miss Pauline Chellis, Miss Eleanor Elliott, Miss Marion Gordon, Emery Leonard, John V. Spaulding, Calvin B. Smith, Bradford Williams, Robert A. Nagel, Mrs. Catherine Tyler Johnson and Mrs. Eugenie Brown Tappan.

Newton Second in State Meet

Newton High also was dethroned as the state outdoor high school champions in the annual outdoor state interscholastic meet at Mt. Hermon, Northfield.

Coach Enoch's charges tied for third place with 26 points. The orange and black who were the defending champions yielded their title to Choate School, the new titlists nosing out the Mt. Hermon home athletes by a fraction of a point, 27 3/12 points to 27 2/12 points. Another prep school, Cheshire, deadlocked Newton.

Newton was the only high school aggregation to compete in yesterday's events.

Bob Cotton added a point to Newton total with a fifth in the 220-yard dash. Bob Beatty took a fifth in the quarter-mile and Bob Ross a fourth in the half-mile.

Two Newton athletes took second and third in the pole vault with Klein and Zilly of Cheshire finishing behind the winner.

Zilly of Cheshire, Elliott Mover took second in the high jump which went to Billy Pescosolido, former Newton star now at Deerfield. "Pesky" was one of the individual stars of the meet with a double win adding the broad jump laurels with a 22 ft. 4 in. leap to his 5 ft. 10 in. winning high jump effort.

Newton High 1915 Holds Reunion

union said something about the teachers coming to behold the product of their folly. By rights, the teachers should be lined up at the head table where, as from a reviewing stand, they could put us through our paces. But no—they say they have had enough of platforms, and now prefer to lose themselves among the many-headed. Alas! this retiring disposition, this refusal to take their rightful place at the head of the class, can point to only one thing—that they have already looked us over, and believe that "folly" is the right word.

Mr. Hartmann said that 17 years ago he started to develop land in Oak Hill and acquired 216 acres for this purpose. Does Your Grocer's Boy See Stars?

ARE your steps a menace to public safety—do they feature cracked numbers and wide open spaces?

Good solid steps with good solid hand rails may save a broken ankle or a cracked head, and you never can tell—the ankle or the head might not belong to the grocery boy—it might be yours.
